Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1876 Educational Systems for Disruptive Adolescents Keith J. Topping,2022-12-29 In the early 1980s concern about disruptive behaviour in secondary schools had grown being variously regarded as a symptom of a decaying society or as a failure on the teachers part One response was to throw money at the problem and various different kinds of special schools and units had been devised to deal with disruptive adolescent pupils Yet there was little systematic evaluation of the different options particularly in terms of cost effectiveness Originally published in 1983 this book reviews all the available research on 21 alternative systems for the education of disruptive adolescents at the time These range from the highly expensive residential special schools to on site adaptations which involve no extra cost Most are based on developments in Britain and the United States and the author concludes in favour of many of the less sophisticated systems This book will be interesting historical reading for workers and students in educational psychology special education and educational policy

School Library Journal ,2006 The Bible Christian ,1840 Exploring Children's Literature Nikki Gamble,Sally Yates,2008-06-06 This book is based on the belief that deep subject knowledge of language and literature provides a foundation for effective teaching and learning It provides a comprehensive guide to the range of genres and characteristic features of English language fiction written for children It will help readers to develop their understanding of literature within social cultural and political reading practices extend their knowledge of language features and conventions of different genres and develop skills in analytical and critical reading The Children's Buyer's Guide ,2005

Educational Subnormality Sally Tomlinson,2018-09-03 First published in 1981 Based on a three year study of children moving into special ESN M education in an English city in the mid 1970s this book questions the whole concept of mild educational subnormality by examining the criteria according to which professionals make decisions to place children within this stigmatised category It suggests that the beliefs that the professionals hold about the behavioural family and class characteristics of the children help to determine their judgements and that these beliefs are related to their own position within the social structure Reports Commissioners of National Education in Ireland,1856 Parliamentary Papers
