

"...It's like when we attend a wedding and we look at the bride walking toward the altar: we know the bride, but we cannot see the emotions on her face clearly, because it's covered by her veil. We are sure the emotions exist, but we cannot describe them precisely, because they are hidden by that elusive veil, which will be lifted only later. ..."

William and Peter left Ireland to turn a fundamental page in their life. They settled in an evocative farm on Tuscany hills and started a new and rewarding activity. Also their best friend, Reginald McKenzie, changed his life drastically and looked for a new start in Italy. But things are never the way they look like and they will have to unravel a mystery related with the charming, beautiful and rich Flammetta Innocenti to brighten up again the daily life in the small village of Capacciano...
