One World A Global Anthology Of Short Stories:

One World Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Jhumpa Lahiri, 2009-05-01 This book is made up of twenty three stories each from a different author from across the globe All belong to one world united in their diversity and ethnicity And together they have one aim to involve and move the reader The range of authors takes in such literary greats as Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Jhumpa Lahiri and emerging authors such as Elaine Chiew Petina Gappah and Henrietta Rose Innes The members of the collective are Elaine Chiew Malaysia Molar Wood Nigeria Jhumpa Lahiri United States Martin A Ramos Puerto Rico Lauri Kubutsile Botswana Chika Unigwe Nigeria Ravi Mangla United States Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Nigeria Skye Brannon United States Jude Dibia Nigeria Shabnam Nadiya Bangladesh Petina Gappah Zimbabwe Ivan Gabirel Reborek Australia Vanessa Gebbie Britain Emmanuel Dipita Kwa Cameroon Henrietta Rose Innes South Africa Lucinda Nelson Dhavan India Adetokunbo Abiola Nigeria Wadzanai Mhute Zimbabwe Konstantinos Tzikas Greece Ken Kamoche Kenya Sequoia Nagamatsu United States Ovo Adagha Nigeria From the Introduction The concept of One World is often a multi colored tapestry into which sundry if not contending patterns can be woven for those of us who worked on this project One World goes beyond the everyday notion of the globe as a physical geographic entity Rather we understand it as a universal idea one that transcends national boundaries to comment on the most prevailing aspects of the human condition This attempt to redefine the borders of the world we live in through the short story recognizes the many conflicting issues of race language economy gender and ethnicity which separate and limit us We readily acknowledge however that regardless of our differences or the disparities in our stories we are united by our humanity We invite the reader on a personal journey across continents countries cultures and landscapes to reflect on these beautiful at times chaotic renditions on the human experience We hope the reach of this path will transcend the borders of each story and perhaps function as an agent of change Welcome to our world

One World Two Chris Brazier, Ovo Adagha, 2016-08-22 One World Two is the eagerly awaited follow up to One World and another globe trotting collection of stories But it is more than simply an anthology of short fiction as it contains representative literature from all over the world conveying the reader on thought provoking journeys across continents cultures and landscapes One World Two is even more ambitious than Volume One in its geographic scope featuring twenty one writers drawn from every continent Most of the stories are unique to this volume while others are appearing for the first time in English Egypt's Mansoura Ez Eldin and Brazil's Vanessa Barbara The themes and writing styles are as richly diverse as their writers origins The collection is built around a loose theme of building bridges It is interested in the human condition as a dynamic central line linking individuals cultures and experiences east and west north and south and perhaps most importantly past present and future This book features established stars such as Edwidge Danticat Breath Eyes Memory Viet Thanh Nguyen The Sympathizer and Aminatta Forna The Hired Man and authors who are steadily building a reputation such as Fan Wu Ana Menendez and Daniel Alarcon In order of appearance the authors are

Postcolonial Poetics Elleke Boehmer, 2018-06-27 Postcolonial Poetics is about how we read postcolonial and world literatures today and about how the structures of that writing shape our reading The book's eight chapters explore the ways in which postcolonial writing in English from various 21st century contexts including southern and West Africa and Black and Asian Britain interacts with our imaginative understanding of the world Throughout the focus is on reading practices where reading is taken as an inventive border traversing activity one that postcolonial writing with its interests in margins intersections subversions and crossings specifically encourages This close sustained focus on reading reception and literariness is an outstanding feature of the study as is its wide generic range embracing poetry essays and life writing as well as fiction The field defining scholar Elleke Boehmer holds that literature has the capacity to keep reimagining and refreshing how we understand ourselves in relation to the world and to some of the most pressing questions of our time including resistance reconciliation survival after terror and migration

Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang, 2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading

How High We Go in the Dark Sequoia Nagamatsu, 2022-01-18
SHORTLISTED FOR THE WATERSTONES DEBUT FICTION PRIZE 2022 FINALIST FOR THE BARNES a scientist who having failed to save his own son from the plague gets a second chance at fatherhood when one of his test subjects a pig develops human speech a man who after recovering from his own coma plans a block party for his neighbours who have also woken up to find that they alone have survived their families and a widowed painter and her teenaged granddaughter who must set off on cosmic quest to locate a new home planet From funerary skyscrapers to hotels for the dead How High We Go in the Dark follows a cast of intricately linked characters spanning hundreds of years as humanity endeavours to restore the delicate balance of the world This is a story of unshakable hope that crosses literary lines to give us a world rebuilding itself through an endless capacity for love resilience and reinvention Wonderful and disquieting dreamlike and all too possible How High

We Go in the Dark reaches far beyond our stars while its heart remains rooted to Earth and reminds us that our wellbeing depends on the wellbeing of our world Samantha Shannon author of The Priory of the Orange Tree African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui's diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public Engaging the Diaspora Pauline Ada Uwakweh, Jerono P. Rotich, Comfort O. Okpala, 2013-10-29 By its focus on the African immigrant family Engaging the Diaspora Migration and African Families carves its own niche on the migration discourse It brings together the experiences of African immigrant families as defined by various transnational forces As an interdisciplinary text Engaging makes a handy reference for scholars and researchers in institutions of higher learning as well as for community service providers working on diversity issues It promotes knowledge about Africans in the Diaspora and the African continent through current and relevant case studies This book enhances learning on the contemporary factors that continue to shape African migrants Putting It All Together Jeffery W. Galle, Jo K. Galle, 2023-07-14 Thanks to learning science and to the creativity of teaching and learning professionals we know much more about the ways students learn experientially and collaboratively For our courses teaching scholars have identified practices and pedagogies that engage students to collaborate and experience deeper learning Ken Bain has called Super Courses the courses that possess opportunities for learning in the classroom the lab and into the world where experiential learning joins course content The course practices and pedagogies so fundamental to deep learning should also be included in program design both for academics and campus life and even the curriculum itself Putting it all Together provides a frame that includes the pedagogies and practices and discussion of the larger contexts within which they can be applied The book also offers more than thirty brief chapters of selected practices applied in individual contexts The authors are faculty members administrators and staff professionals who have developed learning experiences for students The rationale behind the book is simple embedding the most powerful practices and pedagogies within courses programs and the curriculum calls for every professional at every institution to play a different but equally important role in improving student learning and student success

Pieces of Silver Dipita Kwa,2011 Rosi Daniela Kouoh a female Divisional Officer newly appointed to Njopongo steps into office at a time when preparations for elections in the Riders Union sows panic in the hearts of the town s barons and a tragic road accident ignites feelings of vengeance and survival In order to determine the root cause of the rising tension and build a platform for lasting calm and justice she gets two men out of police custody Sadi a loser and bitter father of an unborn child and Esingi a daring retired streetboy and chauffeur to the powerful Lord Mayor and business tycoon This is the thrilling tale of a woman determined to purge her town of injustice corruption and greed It is also the story of the niece of the Lord Mayor torn between family loyalty and her love for a poor bus driver

GYNOCENTRIC CONTOURS OF THE MALE IMAGINATION: A STUDY OF THE NOVELS OF CHINUA ACHEBE AND NGŪGĨ WA THIONG'O Dr. Amna Shamim,2017-03-23 The focus of this book is upon the changing perception of women in African society and their portrayal over different periods in the novels of Chinua Achebe and Ngugi wa Thiong o the writers who intriguingly wrote on the constant changing role of African women in Igbo and Gikuyu clans The book dicusses the image of African women entrapped in double jeopardy in both traditional and modern Africa There has been a remarkable transformation in the representation of women from the early novels to the later novels of both the writers that has been studied in this book from close quarters The approach and technique of the novelists in projecting their female characters has also been analyzed The novels of both the writers marked a sea change in the thinking and perception of Westerners with reference to Africa and its people This work is devoted to the exploration of the image of women in the East and West African societies through the selected novels of Chinua Achebe and Ngugi wa Thiong o

Global Cultures Elisabeth Young-Bruehl,1994-12-09 An anthology of 62 stories from around the non Euro American world providing new definitions of cultural diversity and commonality and an invaluable tool for teachers responding to the growing need for multicultural literature Over the past two decades sweeping political changes and burgeoning new technologies have resulted in communities being increasingly defined in global as well as regional and national terms. Although the intellectual terra nova of world cultures remains largely uncharted, this anthology of sixty-two stories from around the non-Euro American world provides what Elisabeth Young Bruehl calls an introductory map to the great wealth of literary works now being produced in at once the particular settings of the writers' experiences and the global setting. Young Bruehl finds that while the cultural diversity the stories exemplify is amazing, so too is the similarity in thematic terms of the concerns that this diversity presents. Thus she organized Global Cultures thematically to highlight and clarify how these worldwide cultures both converge and diverge. A comprehensive general introduction outlines forces behind the transnational approach to literary study, and chapter introductions contextualize each story. Stories from India, Cuba, South Africa, and Uruguay are connected by the theme of exile and immigration; tales from Nigeria, Guatemala, Cameroon, and Egypt share a theme of political violence and civil uprisings; works from Taiwan, Chile, Jamaica, and Syria describe commonalities of women facing effects of modernization, prejudice, war, and immigration. Global Cultures contributes to the fast-growing body of contemporary short fictions newly available in English and is an invaluable resource to meet the need for multicultural literature.

Women in American History Peg A. Lamphier, Rosanne Welch, 2017-01-23. This four-volume set documents the complexity and richness of women's contributions to American history and culture, empowering all students by demonstrating a more populist approach to the past. Based on the content of most textbooks, it would be easy to reach the erroneous conclusion that women have not contributed much to America's history and development. Nothing could be further from the truth. Offering comprehensive coverage of women of a diverse range of cultures, classes, ethnicities, religions, and sexual identifications, this four-volume set identifies the many ways in which women have helped to shape and strengthen the United States. This encyclopedia is organized into four chronological volumes, with each volume further divided into three sections. Each section features an overview essay and thematic essay, as well as detailed entries on topics ranging from Lady Gaga to Ladybird Johnson, Lucy Stone, and Lucille Ball, and from the International Ladies of Rhythm to the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. The set also includes a vast variety of primary documents, such as personal letters, public papers, newspaper articles, recipes, and more. These primary documents enhance users' learning opportunities and enable readers to better connect with the subject matter.

Nine Lives Peter Braaksma, 2009-09-01. You can cut the flower, but you cannot stop the coming of spring. Malalai Joya, the young member of the Afghan parliament, refuses to let injustice go unchallenged. Her words reflect the irrepressible attitudes and actions of all the women and men who tell their stories here. As with all the titles in New Internationalist's World Changing imprint, Nine Lives sees opportunity in the midst of adversity and presents the life stories of people who have been confronted with seemingly insurmountable obstacles, opposition, and oppression. Whether it is human rights activist Harry Wu, who spent nineteen years in Chinese labor camps, or Nobel Laureate and President of Costa Rica Oscar Arias Sánchez, each of the nine voices in this collection has confronted an urgent and inescapable need to dig deep either to rescue themselves or to forge a fresh way forward for others To understand the key stories behind the headlines Peter Braaksma believes that it is essential to feel the personal intimate experience of people working on the frontline of human rights and humanitarian issues that the stories uninterrupted and unpolished must speak for themselves Reading like nine mini novels the nine remarkable stories belong to Bassam Aramin Palestinian National Authority Monireh Baradaran Iran Youk Chhang Cambodia Sompop Jantraka Thailand Malalai Joya Afghanistan Chaeli Mycroft South Africa Oscar Arias Sanchez Costa Rica and Harry Wu China Peter Braaksma has worked as an editor communications advisor and journalist in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom African
