A Poetics of Minds and Madness XINRAN YANG, 2023-09-26 This monograph aims to explore the mind narrative nexus by conducting a cognitive narratological study on the mad minds in fictional narratives Set on the interface of narrative and cognitive science cognitive linguistics cognitive psychology and cognitive neuropsychology it adopts an indirect empirical approach to the fictional representation of madness The American writer Ken Kesey's novel One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest is chosen as the primary text of investigation whereas due consideration is also given to other madness narratives when necessary This book not only demonstrates the value of reading and rereading literary classics in the modern era but also sheds light on the studies of cognitive narratology cognitive poetics madness narratives and literature in general

The Hero's Fight Patricia Fernández-Kelly, 2016-08-23 A richly textured account of what it means to be poor in America Baltimore was once a vibrant manufacturing town but today with factory closings and steady job loss since the 1970s it is home to some of the most impoverished neighborhoods in America The Hero's Fight provides an intimate look at the effects of deindustrialization on the lives of Baltimore's urban poor and sheds critical light on the unintended consequences of welfare policy on our most vulnerable communities Drawing on her own uniquely immersive brand of fieldwork conducted over the course of a decade in the neighborhoods of West Baltimore Patricia Fernández Kelly tells the stories of people like D B Wilson Big Floyd Towanda and others whom the American welfare state treats with a mixture of contempt and pity what Fernández Kelly calls ambivalent benevolence She shows how growing up poor in the richest nation in the world involves daily interactions with agents of the state an experience that differs significantly from that of more affluent populations While ordinary Americans are treated as citizens and consumers deprived and racially segregated populations are seen as objects of surveillance containment and punishment Fernández Kelly provides new insights into such topics as globalization and its effects on industrial decline and employment the changing meanings of masculinity and femininity among the poor social and cultural capital in poor neighborhoods and the unique roles played by religion and entrepreneurship in destitute communities Blending compelling portraits with in depth scholarly analysis The Hero's Fight explores how the welfare state contributes to the perpetuation of urban poverty in America

Not by Bread Alone Robert Nalbandov, 2016-01-01 Since its independence in 1991 Russia has struggled with the growing pains of defining its role in international politics After Vladimir Putin ascended to power in 2000 the country undertook grandiose foreign policy projects in an attempt to delineate its place among the world's superpowers With this in mind Robert Nalbandov examines the milestones of Russia's international relations since the turn of the twenty first century He focuses on the specific goals engagement practices and tools used by Putin's administration to promote Russia's vital national and strategic interests in specific geographic locations His findings illuminate Putin's foreign policy objective of reinstituting Russian global strategic dominance Nalbandov argues that identity based politics have dominated Putin's tenure and that Russia's east west split is reflected in Asian European politics Nalbandov's analysis shows that unchecked domestic power an almost exclusive application of hard power and determined ambition for unabridged global influence and a defined place as a world superpower are the keys to Putin's Russia

The perspective changes everything - A comparison of the narrative perspective of film and novel "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" Juliane Weuffen, 2004-10-18 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.0 A Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald Institute for Anglistics American Studies language English abstract The novel One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest by Ken Kesey is without a doubt an outstanding example of American Literature So it was obviously necessary to make a movie out of the manuscript Unfortunately there are some harsh differences between movie and book which in some cases change the original plot in a way that influences the viewer Most of the differences come out of the different narrative perspective of the film because the story is just told objectively while the book tells it from a patient's point of view But there are inexactnesses that change the viewer's perspective towards the characters The only fact saving the movie is the choice of incredible actors Jack Nicholson McMurphy Louise Fletcher Ms Ratched William Redfield Harding Will Sampson Chief Bromden and Brad Dourif Billy Bibbit are only the main examples for the unbelievable performance shown in this movie by all actors Although most of their characters are illustrated differently in the book they all did a great job Since my project is to compare the narrative perspective of the book to that of the film my sources were the book¹ and the DVD ² Additionally I have used several essays collected in A casebook on Ken Kesey's One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest edited by George J Searles³ This book was a very valuable source for my work because the essays contain lots of information interpretations and views of various authors on many different themes ¹ Ken Kesey One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest Signet Books 1995 ² Einer flog über das Kuckucksnest Warner Bros Home Videos 2003 ³ George J Searles A casebook on Ken Kesey's One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest University of New Mexico Press first edition Albuquerque 1992

Love, Money, Duty Rachel Adams, 2025-04-29 From birth to death we care and are cared for by others Yet we rarely acknowledge care except when it fails In Love Money Duty Rachel Adams examines the stories we tell about care those who do the work and those who depend on it These narratives she argues help us better understand our complicated feelings about care and the obligations that come with it Combining insightful and compassionate readings of writers and artists among them Toni Morrison Susan Sontag Roz Chast Sally Mann and Jamaica Kincaid with stories of her own experiences Adams analyzes the work feelings and ethical dilemmas associated with care including unwelcome emotions such as boredom resentment exhaustion and disgust From the universal dependence of infancy to elder care and from the intimacy of home and family to institutions like hospitals nursing facilities and asylums Love Money Duty considers our ambivalence about vulnerability and need and how it is shaped by capitalism race and gender Drawing from moral philosophy gender and queer theory critical race and disability studies and health humanities Adams treats care as a form of work a feeling an ethic and an art Exploring the radical possibilities of care and the devastating consequences of its failure this book invites readers to appreciate care that works recognizing the creativity and resourcefulness of dependent people and their caregivers

Human Programming Scott Selisker, 2016-08-01 Do our ways of talking about contemporary terrorism have a history in the science technology and culture of the Cold War Human Programming explores this history in a groundbreaking work that draws connections across decades and throughout American culture high and low Scott Selisker argues that literary cinematic and scientific representations of the programmed mind have long shaped conversations in U S political culture about freedom and unfreedom and about democracy and its enemies Selisker demonstrates how American conceptions of freedom and of humanity have changed in tandem with developments in science and technology including media technology cybernetics behaviorist psychology and sociology Since World War II propagandists scientists and creative artists have adapted visions of human programmability as they sought to imagine the psychological manipulation and institutional controls that could produce the inscrutable subjects of totalitarian states cults and terrorist cells At the same time writers across the political spectrum reimaged ideals of American freedom democracy and diversity by way of contrast with these posthuman specters of mental unfreedom Images of such human automatons circulated in popular films travelogues and the news media giving form to the nebulous enemies of the postwar and contemporary United States totalitarianism communism total institutions cult extremism and fundamentalist terrorism Ranging from discussions of The Manchurian Candidate and cyberpunk science fiction to the cases of Patty Hearst and the American Taliban John Walker Lindh Human Programming opens new ways of understanding the intertwined roles of literature film science and technology in American culture The Routledge History of Disease Mark Jackson,2016-08-05

The Routledge History of Disease draws on innovative scholarship in the history of medicine to explore the challenges involved in writing about health and disease throughout the past and across the globe presenting a varied range of case studies and perspectives on the patterns technologies and narratives of disease that can be identified in the past and that continue to influence our present Organized thematically chapters examine particular forms and conceptualizations of disease covering subjects from leprosy in medieval Europe and cancer screening practices in twentieth century USA to the ayurvedic tradition in ancient India and the pioneering studies of mental illness that took place in nineteenth century Paris as well as discussing the various sources and methods that can be used to understand the social and cultural contexts of disease Chapter 24 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license <https://www.routledgehandbooks.com/doi/10.4324/9781315543420.ch24> Bible and Cinema: Fifty Key Films Adele Reinhartz,2012-12-12

Movies which have drawn inspiration from the Bible either directly or indirectly have been extremely popular since the earliest days of cinema Bible and Cinema Fifty Key Films introduces a wide range of those movies which are among the most important critically acclaimed and highest grossing films of all time including The King of Kings Ben Hur The Passion of the Christ Frankenstein Close Encounters of the Third Kind 2001 A Space Odyssey Apocalypse Now Monty Python's Life of Brian Written by a team of international scholars the fifty entries discuss the Biblical stories characters or motifs depicted in each film making this book the ideal guide for anyone interested in the long standing relationship between the Bible and film Yin and Yang in the English Classroom Sandra

Eckard,2014-12-31 English studies today are driven by demanding curriculum but this need is often met with unenthusiastic students Fun work like movie days or projects is often seen as what to do after the real work is finished But what if instructors could blend the two pieces together more effectively motivating students with interesting material while still achieving curriculum goals This text attempts to fuse the pieces in to a cohesive philosophy Yin and Yang in the English

Reaffirming Rehabilitation Francis T. Cullen, Karen E. Gilbert, 2013 Reaffirming Rehabilitation 2nd Edition brings fresh insights to one of the core works of criminal justice literature This groundbreaking work analyzes the rehabilitative ideal within the American correctional system and discusses its relationship to and conflict with political ideologies Many researchers and policymakers rejected the value of rehabilitation after Robert Martinson s proclamation that nothing works Cullen and Gilbert s book helped stem the tide of negativism that engulfed the U S correctional system in the years that followed the popularization of the nothing works doctrine Now Cullen traces the social impact on U S corrections policy This new edition is appropriate as a textbook in corrections courses and as recommended reading in related courses It also serves as a resource for researchers and policymakers working in the field of corrections

Accommodating the Spectrum of Individual Abilities United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1983 The Free Market in Medical Care Leo Ray Ingle, 2015-04-14 The most prominent theme of Take Back Our Health Care is the restoration of a genuine free market in medical care not the market touted by corporations but a market more akin to the traditional free market and to the systems of Greek and Medieval medical care The amazing scientific and technological advances in medicine and the effect of those advances changed the role of physicians and increased the costs of care Increased governmental and corporate control of medicine threatens us all A genuinely free market is described as well as the challenges facing those markets Doctors are in the position of Aesculapius who in the cover graphic represents medicine His choice is between mercury merchants and the three graces medicine hygiene and panacea Aesculapius treated patients merchants make deals with clients The book focuses on the solution

Can "The Whole World" Be Wrong? Richard Landes, 2022-11-22 A Winner of the Association for the Study of the Middle East and Africa 2023 Bernard Lewis Prize Landes a medievalist and historian of apocalyptic movements takes us through the first years of the third millennium 2000 2003 documenting how a radical inability of Westerners to understand the medieval mentality that drove Global Jihad prompted a series of disastrous misinterpretations and misguided reactions that have shaped our so far unhappy century These misinterpretations in 2000 2001 2002 and 2005 contributed fundamentally to the ever worsening moral and empirical disorientations of our information elites journalists academics pundits So while journalists reported Palestinian war propaganda as news lethal journalism they were also reporting Jihadi war propaganda as news own goal war journalism These radical disorientations have created our current dilemma of pervasive information distrust deep splits within the voting public in most democracies the politicization of science and the inability of Western elites to defend their civilization and instead to stand down before an invasion

Animal Madness Laurel Braitman,2014-06-10 For the first time a historian of science draws evidence from across the world to show how humans and other animals are astonishingly similar when it comes to their feelings and the ways in which they lose their minds The Madwoman Can't Speak Marta Caminero-Santangelo,1998 In this work the subversive madwoman first appropriated by feminist theorists and critics is re evaluated How the author asks can such a figure be subversive if she s effectively imprisoned silent and unseen Taking issue with a prominent strand of current feminist literary criticism Caminero Santangelo identifies a counternarrative in writing by women in the last half of the 20th century one which rejects madness even as a symbolic resolution Neurotechnology James Giordano,2012-04-26 New technologies that allow us to investigate mechanisms and functions of the brain have shown considerable promise in treating brain disease and injury These emerging technologies also provide a means to assess and manipulate human consciousness cognitions emotions and behaviors bringing with them the potential to transform society Neurotech Acts of Conscience Steven J. Taylor,2009-07-10 In the mid to late 1940s a group of young men rattled the psychiatric establishment by beaming a public spotlight on the squalid conditions and brutality in our nation s mental hospitals and training schools for people with psychiatric and intellectual disabilities Bringing the abuses to the attention of newspapers and magazines across the country they led a reform effort to change public attitudes and to improve the training and status of institutional staff Prominent Americans such as Eleanor Roosevelt ACLU founder Roger Baldwin author Pearl S Buck actress Helen Hayes and African American activist Mary McLeod Bethune supported the efforts of the young men These young men were among the 12 000 World War II conscientious objectors who chose to perform civilian public service as an alternative to fighting in what is widely regarded as America s good war Three thousand of these men volunteered to work at state institutions where they discovered appalling conditions Acting on conscience a second time they challenged America s treatment of its citizens with severe disabilities Acts of Conscience brings to light the extra ordinary efforts of these courageous men drawing upon extensive archival research interviews and personal correspondence The World War II conscientious objectors were not the first to expose public institutions and they would not be the last What distinguishes them from reformers of other eras is that their activities have faded from the professional and popular memory Taylor s moving account is an indispensable contribution to the historical record
