One From The Hart Publisher Gallery:

The Museum ,1894      International Antitrust Litigation Jurgen Basedow,Stephanie Francq,Laurence Idot,2012-02-03
The decentralisation of competition law enforcement and the stimulation of private damages actions in the European Union go hand in hand with the increasingly international character of antitrust proceedings As a consequence there is an ever growing need for clear and workable rules to co ordinate cross border actions whether they are of a judicial or administrative nature rules on jurisdiction applicable law and recognition as well as rules on sharing of evidence the protection of business secrets and the interplay between administrative and judicial procedures This book offers an in depth analysis of these long neglected yet practically most important topics It is the fruit of a research project funded by the European Commission which brought together experts from academia private practice and policy making from across Europe and the United States The 16 chapters cover the relevant provisions of the Brussels I and Rome I and II Regulations the co operation mechanisms provided for by Regulation 1 2003 and selected issues of US procedural law such as discovery that are highly relevant for transatlantic damages actions Each contribution critically analyses the existing legislative framework and formulates specific proposals to consolidate and enhance cross border antitrust litigation in Europe and beyond      Graham's Illustrated

Jurisdiction and Judgments in Relation to EU

Competition Law Claims Mihail Danov,2010-12-09 This book sets out the way that through enhanced private antitrust enforcement reform private international law has a pivotal role in EU competition law disputes with an international element The author offers a thorough analysis of the post 2003 policy of the EU favouring private law enforcement of EU competition law and its implementation under the existing provisions for jurisdiction and recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments under the Brussels I regime The book also considers how the jurisdiction recognition and enforcement of judgments issues are dealt with in England under the common law rules applicable when Brussels I does not apply The complex private international law problems in respect of cross border class actions that have arisen in several countries as well as judgments in relation to antitrust infringements are also discussed The author further examines the choice of law issues that may arise before the English courts under Rome I and Rome II The potential problems regarding jurisdiction of arbitral tribunals and choice of law in arbitral proceedings in relation to EU competition law claims and the jurisdiction of English courts in proceedings ancillary to arbitration claims are dealt with accordingly This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional s International Arbitration online service      Combating Crime in the Digital Age: A Critical Review of EU

Information Systems in the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice in the Post-Interoperability Era Athina

Giannakoula,Dafni Lima,Maria Kaiafa-Gbandi,2020-03-31 Combating Crime in the Digital Age A Critical Review of EU Information Systems in the Area of Freedom Security and Justice in the Post Interoperability Era Challenges for Criminal Law and Personal Data Protection provides a systematic and comprehensive account of EU information systems functioning in the area of freedom security and justice with the aim to establish the contemporary links between information sharing and criminal law and evaluate the consequences Part 1 offers a systemisation and critical assessment of pertinent systems ECRIS ECRIS TCN Pr m PNR Europol SIS Eurodac VIS EES ETIAS and the new interoperability regime from the perspective of their objective to prevent and combat serious crime Part 2 explores personal data protection law police law and criminal procedure law in order to propose safeguards and limitations for regulating this rapidly evolving framework and addressing the challenges for fundamental principles and rights The authors central suggestion is that the issue falls within the context of an emerging precognitive paradigm of criminal law

The Illicit Trade in Art and Antiquities Janet Ulph,Ian Smith,2015-11-05 This new text provides practical guidance on the modern law relating to cultural objects which have been stolen looted or illegally exported It explains how English criminal law principles including money laundering measures apply to those who deal in cultural objects in a domestic or international setting It discusses the recovery of works of art and antiquities in the English courts where there are competing claims between private individuals or between individuals and the UK Government or a foreign State Significantly this text also provides an exposition of the law where a British law enforcement agency or a foreign law enforcement agency is involved in the course of criminal or civil proceedings in an English court The growth of relevant international instruments which include not only those devoted to the protection of mankind s cultural heritage but also those concerned with money laundering and serious organised crime provide a backdrop to this discussion The UK s ratification of the UNESCO Convention on Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit Import Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property 1970 in 2002 is considered The problems posed in attempting to curb trafficking in art and antiquities are explored and the effectiveness of the current law is analysed
