The Films of Kore-eda Hirokazu Linda C. Ehrlich, 2019-12-30 The Films of Kore-eda Hirokazu An Elemental Cinema draws readers into the first 13 feature films and 5 of the documentaries of award winning Japanese film director Kore-eda Hirokazu With his recent top prize at the Cannes Film Festival for Shoplifters Kore-eda is arguably Japan's greatest living director with an international viewership He approaches difficult subjects child abandonment suicide marginality with a realistic and compassionate eye The lyrical tone of the writing of Japanese film scholar Linda C Ehrlich perfectly complements the understated yet powerful tone of the films From An Elemental Cinema readers will gain a special understanding of Kore eda s films through a novel connection to the natural elements as reflected in Japanese traditional aesthetics An Elemental Cinema presents Kore eda s oeuvre as a connected whole with overarching thematic concerns despite frequent generic experimentation It also offers an example of how the poetics of cinema can be practiced in writing as well as on the screen and helps readers understand the films of this contemporary director as works of art that relate to their own lives

The Translation Zone Emily Apter, 2006 Translation before 9 11 was deemed primarily an instrument of international relations business education and culture Today it seems more than ever a matter of war and peace In The Translation Zone Emily Apter argues that the field of translation studies habitually confined to a framework of linguistic fidelity to an original is ripe for expansion as the basis for a new comparative literature Organized around a series of propositions that range from the idea that nothing is translatable to the idea that everything is translatable The Translation Zone examines the vital role of translation studies in the invention of comparative literature as a discipline Apter emphasizes language wars including the role of mistranslation in the art of war linguistic incommensurability in translation studies the tension between textual and cultural translation the role of translation in shaping a global literary canon the resistance to Anglophone dominance and the impact of translation technologies on the very notion of how translation is defined The book speaks to a range of disciplines and spans the globe Ultimately The Translation Zone maintains that a new comparative literature must take stock of the political impact of translation technologies on the definition of foreign or symbolic languages in the humanities while recognizing the complexity of language politics in a world at once more monolingual and more multilingual

Nation, Language, and the Ethics of Translation Sandra Bermann, Michael Wood, 2005-07-25 In recent years scholarship on translation has moved well beyond the technicalities of converting one language into another and beyond conventional translation theory With new technologies blurring distinctions between the original and its reproductions and with globalization redefining national and cultural boundaries translation is now emerging as a reformulated subject of lively interdisciplinary debate Nation Language and the Ethics of Translation enters the heart of this debate It covers an exceptional range of topics from simultaneous translation to legal theory from the language of exile to the language of new nations from the press to the cinema and cultures and languages from contemporary Bengal to ancient Japan from translations of Homer to the work of Don DeLillo All twenty two essays by leading voices including Gayatri Spivak and the late Edward Said are provocative and persuasive The book s four sections Translation as Medium and across Media The Ethics of Translation Translation and Difference and Beyond the Nation together provide a comprehensive view of current thinking on nationality and translation one that will be widely consulted for years to come The contributors are Jonathan E Abel Emily Apter Sandra Bermann Vilashini Cooppan Stanley Corngold David Damrosch Robert Eaglestone Stathis Gourgouris Pierre Legrand Jacques Lezra Fran oise Lionnet Sylvia Molloy Yopie Prins Edward Said Azade Seyhan Gayatri

Mostow, 1996-10-01 This book provides for the first time in English the kind of information that allows an accurate appreciation of the meanings and quality of Japanese poems Mostow s reception oriented approach in this poem by poem discussion inspires an excellent essay on the history of English translations of this collection Choice Joshua Mostow offers a brilliant and multifaceted exploration of Japanese poetics through translations commentaries and both literary and visual readings of the most influential of all poem anthologies This book penetrates to the heart of traditional Japanese aesthetics Stephen Addiss University of Richmond a rigorous and engaging study of an extremely important Japanese text It is filled with information and shows a real appreciation for the often unarticulated assumptions that lay behind certain understandings both Japanese and Western concerning meaning and significance in a work of literature The study breaks still further ground by articulating and in the most persuasive fashion issues relating to text and image that are central to the Japanese arts in virtually all periods

Professor Mostow has written a book that should interest not only specialists in the fields of Japanese literature and fine arts but virtually anyone who enjoys reading poetry in an active and thoughtful fashion J Thomas Rimer University of Pittsburgh

Theoretical Perspectives on Autobiographical Memory M.A. Conway, David C. Rubin, Hans Spinnler, Willem A. Wagenaar, 2013-04-17 The meeting Theoretical Perspectives on Autobiographical Memory was held at the Grange Hotel Grange over Sands in the Lake District region of North Western England July 1991 The workshop was financed by a generous grant from the NATO Scientific Affairs Division under the Advanced Research Workshop programme and without this funding the meeting would not have been possible the organisers and delegates gratefully acknowledge the support of the NATO Advanced Research Workshops programme Thirty five scientists from five different NATO countries attended the workshop and twenty seven delegates presented papers The two aims of the workshop were to bring together in one forum a number of comparatively separate approaches to autobiographical memory and to promote theory in the area generally These aims were fulfilled in the presentations and discussions particularly the final discussion session in which delegates focussed on the central issues of the nature structure and functions of autobiographical memory and how these emerge in different research areas The present volume contains the papers arising from the workshop We thank Mrs Sheila Whalley for secretarial help and Fiona Hirst and Stephen Anderson for practical assistance in coordinating registration for the workshop
