One Minute Stewardship Sermons:

One Minute Stewardship Sermons Charles Cloughen, Jr, Charles Cloughen, 1997-09 Short concise inspirational meditations that can be used to explore the many aspects of stewardship throughout the year Includes tips from a dozen contributors representing several denominations and congregations of all sizes One-Minute Stewardship Charles Cloughen Jr, 2018-06-17 A collection of meditations on the importance of stewardship Much has changed in the 21st century world of stewardship Now a person may use electronic funds transfer or use a credit card after clicking on a website link instead of dropping a check in the offering plate Stewardship witness videos can be linked to the church's website One Minute Stewardship is designed to promote the development of a meaningful theology of giving in a new age These short reflections indexed by Scripture theme event and lectionary can be included in weekly parish e-mails newsletters weekly bulletins or read as an invitation to the offering during worship The book addresses the issue of designated giving which is usually separate from general stewardship appeals and is designed to empower clergy and lay leaders to promote the message of good stewardship every Sunday of the year A Manual for Stewardship Development Programs in the Congregation Lonnie Schreiber, Thomas Gossen, 1998-08 This practical manual guides churches through a year long stewardship program Covers the fundamentals of building a successful program from teaching Christian stewardship to hosting creative successful commitment events Filled with useful advice and how to sections on topics ranging from recruiting and training leaders to charting progress Offers a complete overview of The Joyful Giving Program for stewardship Faithfulness to our Stewardship. A visitation sermon, etc Samuel BLACKALL, 1860 Successful Church Fund-Raising John R. Bisagno, 2002-04-01 God is blessing many churches today with exponential growth and great opportunity for ministry in their community However many churches have inadequate facilities or feel the crunch of overcrowding and are without the immediate resources for expansion This book written from someone with the heart for the church and who had the joy of seeing his own congregation give in excess of 250 million over 30 years will equip a church of any size with the knowledge to conduct from beginning to end a full capital campaign The Living Church, 1963 So Fill Our Imaginations Mark Lloyd Taylor, 2022-03-14 With this memoir doubling as an exercise in theological reflection Mark Lloyd Taylor invites readers to explore the work and play of a year of preaching A turbulent and supersaturated year of life in the world featuring parish departures and resilience a housing crisis in neighborhood and city the inauguration of Donald Trump as president with attendant social political economic issues ISIS Iraq and Syria Displaced people at the southern border Sexual violence against women Race in America Feminist womanist and process theologies propel Taylor's twelve sermons across the 2016-17 church year Lectionary Year A But at its most imaginative the adult work of preaching becomes child's play Sermons carried by verbal and visual and tactile images Walking makes the way Straying beyond fences of hatred and staying beyond A broken porcelain bowl mended with gold A seven foot tall assemblage of kimchi pots no longer buried by fear An icon of the great faith of the Canaanite woman great enough to convert Jesus Every single one of us a little baby Sophia living and moving and having our being in the universal womb of God our mother All to fill corners and empty spaces in our imaginations Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. General Assembly,1951 Unleashing the Word Adam Hamilton,2011-12-01 Imagine announcing a new series of sermons and seeing worship attendance increase by 1 000 people on the first Sunday of the new series Or consider a pastor developing sermon plans two to three years out What kind of pastor sits in a bar with a notepad just looking for ideas for sermons Or has as his aim to preach the best prepared best researched sermons his congregation has ever heard All of these and more explain part of the reason the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection has grown from four people to over 10 000 in just thirteen years In Unleashing the Word Adam Hamilton helps pastors and church leaders consider the purpose planning and execution of excellent preaching He offers detailed descriptions of the sermon planning writing and preaching process behind one of the fastest growing churches in the United States He includes numerous personal anecdotes and enough sermon ideas to keep the average pastor busy for years Finally after you have read how sermons are planned and prepared at the Church of the Resurrection you can watch the included DVD which features four full length sermons and other resources to help you apply what you ve read in the book If you only buy one book on preaching this year this is the book you must buy A Revolution in Generosity Wesley K. Willmer,2008-05-01 Give over 100 today and get this personalized state of the art fountain pen free Become a gold sponsor and your name will be featured on our exclusive Wall of Fame Send in your donation by December 31st and enjoy the benefits of giving on your next tax return Who hasn t heard fundraising gimmicks like these Or who hasn t used these gimmicks on others As Wes Willmer writes generosity is the natural outcome of God s transforming work in individuals when they are conformed to the image of Christ Fundraising and giving are not simply drops in the bucket Capital campaigns and raising funds go deeper than the money They are spiritual activities in becoming more like Christ A Revolution in Generosity is a work by some of the best scholars and practitioners on the subject of funding Christian organizations As Willmer writes The foundation for realizing a revolution in generosity is understanding the biblical view of possessions generosity and asking for resources With over twenty expert contributors this book is a must read for organizations striving to rid themselves of secular asking practices and gain an eternal approach The Crisis in the Churches Robert Wuthnow,1997-03-06 At a time when already overworked clergy are being called upon by budget cutting politicians to do more for the poor the sick and the elderly American churches are suffering persistent financial shortfalls In fact contrary to popular media images of millionaire televangelists America s churches are cutting back programs and staff clergy salaries are stagnating and many parishes are having trouble raising enough money to keep the church lit and heated on Sunday Why are America s churches in financial distress Robert Wuthnow a leading commentator on religious life in America asserts that the steady drop in donations volunteering and personal involvement is a direct result of a spiritual crisis a crisis caused in large part by the clergy's failure to address the vital relationships between faith and money work stewardship giving and economic justice In The Crisis in the Churches Wuthnow offers a searching study of this financial crisis and of the spiritual vacuum that has silently grown worse during the past decade To do this he lets the churches speak for themselves quoting extensively from interviews with clergy and laity in sixty Protestant and Catholic congregations throughout the U S and drawing from the texts of over 200 sermons from church financial records and a national survey What emerges is that parishioners often feel the church does not care about what they do from Monday to Friday offers no guidance in their most pressing day to day concerns yet always seems to be asking for more money Clergy for their part say they hesitate to talk about finances because they know the money question makes people uncomfortable But failure to raise the subject often makes it necessary to cut the very programs and services that middle class parishioners desire and would support Wuthnow argues that in order to survive churches must find ways to minister to the economic concerns of their own middle class parishioners Indeed of every 1 000 received by churches 900 comes from people who work in middle class occupations Clearly anything that motivates middle class members to become more involved will strengthen a church's financial well being and capacity to serve its people Although the situation is critical Wuthnow finds much cause for hope He points to ideas and programs that some churches have enacted to challenge their members to think differently about work and money and giving Parishioners sometimes respond positively when clergy speak boldly and concretely about matters of faith and finance and some churches have formed small groups whose members meet regularly to discuss issues of spirituality work personal finances and stewardship A serious and sympathetic examination of the crisis behind the stained glass this thought provoking volume will be highly valuable both practically and as moral support to clergy parishioners and anyone else concerned about restoring vitality and significance to American churches

Remember the Future Gerald W. Keucher, 2006-02 Keucher's primer on sound asset management encourages leaders of congregations to remember the future when they're making decisions so that the needs of the present are balanced against what's best for the long term

Preaching to Those Walking Away N. Graham Standish, 2022-06-07 Preaching to Those Walking Away will help pastors adapt to a world of YouTube TED Talks and video marketing in which traditional preaching styles no longer feel authoritative engaging or compelling N Graham Standish has long been passionate about reaching out to those who call themselves spiritual but not religious Determined to help the church connect with them he shares methods he has tested refined and proven effective approaches to preaching typically not taught in seminaries Rather than grounding preaching in traditional homiletical theories and practices Standish integrates insights from postmodernism generational theory multiple intelligences theory marketing communications theory brain neurological research counseling spiritual formation TED Talk presentations motivational theory and the history of communication styles Standish developed his ideas about preaching during more than two decades as senior pastor of a healthy growing congregation that consistently attracted people who had walked away from Christianity and church More than half a century ago Canadian communications theorist Marshall McLuhan said The medium is the message But mainline Christianity has been slow to adapt its message to new mediums The population at large will not adapt to traditional Christian ways of preaching however so Standish helps pastors understand the thinking of those walking away and shows preachers how to adapt their thinking about their craft instead of demanding that those walking away adapt to ours A Way with Words Adam T. Trambley, 2020-04-17 A vital resource for pastors who seek to transform the culture of their church A Way with Words demonstrates the power of the weekly sermon to change the culture of a congregation Using the analogy of language learning Adam Trambley shows how a consistent ministry focus over an eighteen month period can help a church address areas that inhibit growth even as the pastor preaches on a diversity of subjects or uses a lectionary The author explores how important focused preaching can be to moving church development forward and offers a long term strategy particularly helpful for pastors looking to take full advantage of the opportunities their weekly sermons provide Each chapter includes discussion questions and practical exercises that can be used as part of a preaching group or seminary class or to aid the solo pastor in preparing dynamic sermons This is a topic not generally taught in seminary but vital for pastors who wear many hats as preachers pastoral caregivers and administrative leaders Preaching Fred B. Craddock, 2010-05 The standard textbook on the art and craft of preaching with a new Foreword by Thomas G Long Lectionary Worship Workbook, Series II, Cycle C Wayne H. Keller, 2000-06 The most impressive thing about Wayne Keller s body of ideas for worship throughout the Christian Year is his boldness He is bold in demanding that we his colleagues in liturgical leadership plan worship that has to do with the reality of our congregations experience in the world rather than just leading people through a proper agenda of acts and words that have no bearing on what we do the rest of the week He is bold in challenging us to bring that real world with its pains and its pleasures its hungers and its feasts its beauty and its ugliness to exposure before the living God And he is bold in helping us shine the strong exposing light of the transforming Word on our real lives and on that real world so that we may move beyond planning worship as a nice safe feel good routine from which we depart the same people we were when we arrived We are thrilled by the seriousness and authentic reverence with which this author approaches the planning of worship Thank God for Wayne Keller and for his deep respect for the central act of the Christian community the blessed and life transforming experience of the worship of God Richard Avery and Donald Marsh Port Jervis New York Wayne Keller s method creates not only a contemporary appeal but also effects a congregational involvement so necessary today within the liturgical context His approach is fresh and practical and yet a reflection consistently of a solid liturgical and homiletical background Keller has the ability to appeal to the everydayness of congregational experience Donald Macleod Francis L Patton Professor Emeritus Princeton Theological Seminary The good humor of Wayne Keller s work helps us feel at home in our imperfect world and feel more empathy for the rough edges of others and ourselves Wayne s work encourages hope and faith with the way we are Doug Adams Professor of Christianity and the Arts Pacific School of Religion and Graduate Theological Union A cascade of insights ideas suggestions and plans for stimulating the working pastor s imagination and guiding in worship planning Robert Coote Professor San Francisco Theological Seminary Editor Mustard Seed Churches Wayne Keller elevates us to an authentic bring your warts and smiles encounter with the living God a remarkable year round resource for the entire worship team Paul Hackett Former pastor and member First Presbyterian Church Puyallup Washington Keller says I have seen people bored to death in worship seemingly because they come to worship as spectators not as participants For me no spectators are allowed Soren Kierkegaard s analogy of worship as drama has guided my thinking and planning Wayne H Keller graduated from Monmouth College in Monmouth Illinois and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary He has served pastorates in Pennsylvania Washington and Oregon and has also been the director of a halfway house for recovering mental patients A member of the Presbyterian Writers Guild Keller has published several books and numerous articles and has been a columnist for the Bellingham Herald He has also appeared frequently on radio and television programs and co hosted a call in counseling program and talk show
