Diaspora in German Television Films Emrah Yalcin, 2021-02-09 Contemporary television fictions allow the audience to experience the reality of everyday life in audio visual spaces Thus controversial issues discussed in German society such as homosexuality racism or clashes of cultures are revisited in the social drama films produced for German television through a mixture of generic conventions such as tragedy thriller and melodrama Consequently the audio visual representations of the people who are the focus of these discussions represent an interesting area of research The book deals with the audio visual spatiality of the Turkish diaspora in Berlin in three contemporary TV films in this format namely Wut Range dir Zuli Alada 2006 Die Neue The Newcomer dir Buket Alaku 2015 and Nachspielzeit Extra Time dir Andreas Pieper 2015 Therewith it brings a spatial approach to the issue of polemical belonging of the Turkish Diaspora to the German national space within the audio visual context The proposed spatial approach presents an alternative argument to the assumptions of German politicians who celebrate a common German history that bases on Christian Jewish identity democracy and enlightenment

The Global Land Grab Annelies Zoomers, Mayke Kaag, 2014-02-13 The last two years have seen a huge amount of academic policy making and media interest in the increasingly contentious issue of land grabbing the large scale acquisition of land in the global South It is a phenomenon against which locals seem defenceless and one about which multilateral organizations such as the World Bank as well as civil society organizations and action NGOs have become increasingly vocal This in depth and empirically diverse volume taking in case studies from across Africa Asia and Latin America takes a step back from the hype to explore a number of key questions Does the global land grab actually exist If so what is new about it And what beyond the immediately visible dynamics and practices are the real problems A comprehensive and much needed intervention on one of the most hotly contested but little understood issues facing countries of the South today Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1988 Lists citations with abstracts for aerospace related reports obtained from world wide sources and announces documents that have recently been entered into the NASA Scientific and Technical Information Database Home/Fronts Janina Wierzoch,2020-03-03 In recent years the US led invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq have had an impact on the UK rivalled only by Brexit and the global financial crisis For people at home the wars were ever present in the media yet remained distant and difficult to apprehend Janina Wierzoch offers an analytical survey of British contemporary war narratives in novels drama film and television that seek to make sense of the experience The study shows how the narratives instead of reflecting on the UK s role as invader portray war as invading the British home Home loses its post Cold War sense of permanent peace and is recast as a home front where war once again becomes part of what it means to be us Moving Modernisms David Bradshaw,Laura Marcus,Rebecca Roach,2016 The essays in Moving Modernisms Motion Technology and Modernity written by renowned international scholars open up the many dimensions and arenas of modernist movement and movements spatial geographical and political affective and physiological temporal and epochal technological locomotive and metropolitan aesthetic and representational Individual essays explore modernism s complex geographies focusing on Anglo European modernisms while also engaging with the debates engendered by recent models of world literatures and global modernisms From questions of space and place the volume moves to a focus on movement and motion with topics ranging from modernity and bodily energies to issues of scale and quantity The final chapters in the volume examine modernist film and the moving image and travel and transport in the modern metropolis Movement is reality itself the philosopher Henri Bergson wrote the original and illuminating essays in Moving Modernisms point in new ways to the realities and the fantasies of movement in modernist culture Fruit Crops Anoop Kumar Srivastava,Chengxiao Hu,2019-11-30 Fruit Crops Diagnosis and Management of Nutrient Constraints is the first and only resource to holistically relate fruits as a nutritional source for human health to the state of the art methodologies currently used to diagnose and manage nutritional constraints placed on those fruits This book explores a variety of advanced management techniques including open field hydroponic fertigation bio fertigation the use of nano fertilizers sensors based nutrient management climate smart integrated soil fertility management inoculation with microbial consortium and endophytes backed up by ecophysiology of fruit crops These intricate issues are effectively presented including real world applications and future insights Presents the latest research including issues with commercial application Details comprehensive insights into the diagnosis and management of nutrient constraints Includes contributions by world renowned researchers providing global perspectives and experience The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism in Public Discourse, Literature, and Film Michael C. Frank,2017-06-14 This study investigates the overlaps between political discourse and literary and cinematic fiction arguing that both are informed by and contribute to the cultural imaginary of terrorism Whenever mass mediated acts of terrorism occur they tend to trigger a proliferation of threat

scenarios not only in the realm of literature and film but also in the statements of policymakers security experts and journalists In the process the discursive boundary between the factual and the speculative can become difficult to discern To elucidate this phenomenon this book proposes that terror is a halfway house between the real and the imaginary For what characterizes terrorism is less the single act of violence than it is the fact that this act is perceived to be the beginning or part of a potential series and that further acts are expected to occur As turn of the century writers such as Stevenson and Conrad were the first to point out this gives terror a fantastical dimension a fact reinforced by the clandestine nature of both terrorist and counter terrorist operations Supported by contextual readings of selected texts and films from The Dynamiter and The Secret Agent through late Victorian science fiction to post 9 11 novels and cinema this study explores the complex interplay between actual incidents of political violence the surrounding discourse and fictional engagement with the issue to show how terrorism becomes an object of fantasy Drawing on research from a variety of disciplines The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism will be a valuable resource for those with interests in the areas of Literature and Film Terrorism Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Trauma Studies and Cultural Studies
