Architecture, Media, Archives Ana Bonet Miró, 2024-08-22 Over 60 years on from its inception the celebrated Fun Palace civic project developed in the 1960s by the radical theatre director Joan Littlewood and the architect Cedric Price continues to capture the architectural imagination Despite the building itself never being realized much of the previous analysis of the Fun Palace has been devoted to Price and his drawings The critical role that Littlewood played however remains largely unrecognized by architectural scholarship and a whole area of the project's cultural agenda remains overlooked Architecture Media Archives is the first serious study of the complex relations between Littlewood and Price reframing the Fun Palace as an extended media project and positioning Littlewood more clearly as co designer Drawing on extensive archival material the book considers how due to a lack of institutional support the aims of the Fun Palace to transform the passive mass audiences of post war consumer society into active citizens through forms of self directed pleasure led and open exchange were realized through different sites of information throughout the 1960s From broadsheets pamphlets and journals to films and press news the book addresses the conditions of production circulation storage and reception of these sites and reveals how they not only recorded the transformation of the project but also fundamentally enhanced and informed its meaning in specific ways The book also raises important questions about the agency of the Fun Palace archive in shaping the reception of the project in the decades since its inception presenting its analysis through a novel Fun Palace Reception Index and Chart fundamentally altering our view of the project itself and transforming the way in which we understand the technological and cultural production of the 1960s Big Crime and Big Policing Tonita Murray, Elizabeth Kirley, Stephen Schneider, 2024-07-05 Following money over national borders banking systems casinos and free trade zones as well as the world of the corrupt elites Big Crime and Big Policing brings new scholarly and practical insights into our understanding of the interplay of money crime and policing on the grand scale In this wide ranging volume a mixed group of scholars and practitioners aim to show how money dictates the scope and nature of financial and corporate crimes and the impact of these crimes on national economies social institutions and communal well being alike The book examines how the combined efforts of governments and international organizations fail to stop financial crime at its source and despite apparently generous human and financial resources police and law enforcement efforts ultimately fall short of defeating big crime and of meeting public safety needs International in scope Big Crime and Big Policing provides fresh reflection on a significant problem of our age one that demands greater attention from governments and the public

E-Research Nicholas W. Jankowski, 2010-03-17 No less than a revolutionary transformation of the research enterprise is underway This transformation extends beyond the natural sciences where e research has become the modus operandi and is penetrating the social sciences and humanities sometimes with differences in accent and label Many suggest that the very essence of scholarship in these areas is changing The everyday procedures and practices of traditional forms of scholarship are affected by these and other features of e research This volume which features renowned scholars from across the globe who are active in the social sciences and humanities provides critical reflection on the overall emergence of e research particularly on its adoption and adaptation by the social sciences and humanities 3D Printing and Beyond Dinusha Mendis, Mark Lemley, Matthew Rimmer, 2019 This ground breaking and timely contribution is the first and most comprehensive edited collection to address the implications for Intellectual Property IP law in the context of 3D Printing and Additive Manufacturing Providing a coverage of IP law in three main jurisdictions including the UK USA and Australia 3D Printing and Beyond brings together a team of distinguished IP experts and is an indispensable starting point for researchers with an interest in IP emerging technologies and 3D printing

Creator Culture Stuart Cunningham, David Craig, 2021-06-22 Explores new perspectives on social media entertainment There is a new class of cultural producers YouTube vloggers Twitch gameplayers Instagram influencers TikTokers Chinese wanghong and others who are part of a rapidly emerging and highly disruptive industry of monetized user generated content As this new wave of native social media entrepreneurs emerge so do new formations of culture and the ways they are studied In this volume contributors draw on scholarship in media and communication studies science and technology studies and social media Internet and platform studies in order to define this new field of study and the emergence of creator culture Creator Culture introduces readers to new paradigms of social media entertainment from critical perspectives demonstrating both relations to and differentiations

from the well established media forms and institutions traditionally within the scope of media studies This volume does not seek to impose a uniform perspective rather the goal is to stimulate in depth globally focused engagement with this burgeoning industry and establish a dynamic research agenda for scholars teachers and students as well as creators and professionals across the media communication creative and social media industries Contributors include Jean Burgess Zo Glatt Sarah Banet Weiser Brent Luvaas Carlos A Scolari Dami n Fraticelli Jos M Tomasena Junyi Lv Hector Postigo Brooke Erin Duffy Megan Sawey Jarrod Walzcer Sangeet Kumar Sriram Mohan Aswin Punathambekar Mohamed El Marzouki Elaine Jing Zhao Arturo Arriagada Jeremy Shtern Stephanie Hill Mobile Media Use Among Children and Youth in Asia Andrew Zi Han Yee, 2025-01-21 This book examines mobile media use among children and youths within an Asian context By studying the impact of mobile media on children and youth in Asia it focuses on the explosive growth of mobile media among young people and seeks to understand the potential consequences of mobile media use on society relationships and what it means to be a young person With this it provides a richly contextualized Asian voice to research on mobile media and young people enriching the global conversation surrounding an increasingly central aspect of youths everyday lives Research on mobile media and its impact on children and youths in Asia is not thoroughly represented despite the proliferation of smartphone and tablet use in the region This volume fills this gap by canvassing contemporary research on mobile media children and youth in Asia through the perspectives of emerging scholars in the region and beyond It promotes an understanding of the motivations and patterns of use by children and youth in the region examines contemporary research on the antecedents and consequences of mobile media use on society relationships and the individual and provides a critique of mobile media use among children and youth The volume also provides a culturally sensitive examination of mobile media use among children and youth describing and analyzing policies enacted to manage young people s smartphone use It acknowledges Asia as a large and diverse region with differing linguistic cultural and sociopolitical traditions and contexts and so the work does as far as possible look to ensure geographic and cultural diversity by prioritizing works from countries that are typically underrepresented It is a relevant text to graduates and researchers in communication and media studies social and developmental psychology human development studies science and technology information systems and design science

The Price For Peace W.J. May, 2019-11-01 How do you keep fighting when you ve already been claimed When sixteen year old Elise is ripped from her home and taken to the royal palace as a permanent guest she thinks her life is over Little does she know it has only just begun After befriending a group of other captives including the headstrong Will Elise finds herself swept away to a world she never knew existed polished sculpted and refined until she can hardly recognize her own reflection She should be happy to have escaped the poverty of her former life But she knows a dark truth The palace is a dream on the surface but a nightmare underneath With a dwindling population the royals have imprisoned the teenagers to marry and breed Only seven days remain of freedom before they will be selected by a courtier and forever claimed Danger lurks around every corner The only chance of escape is death But when the day of the claiming finally arrives the world will never be the same Royal Factions The Price for Peace Book 1 The Cost for Surviving Book 2 The Punishment for Deception Book 3 Faking Perfection Book 4 The Most Cherished Book 5 The Strength to Endure Book 6 Search Terms fantasy witches vampires paranormal shifter romance shifter romance shifters shifter coming of age dark fantasy fantasy new adult superhero fantasy ebooks witches vampires and witches superhero paranormal fantasy paranormal romance New Adult College Romance Paranormal new adult new adult and college New Adult College Romance w j may chronicles of kerrigan Tudor supernatural England romance mystery tattoos superpowers paranormal boarding school series Young Adult dystopian sagas horror romance horror fantasy Young Adult werewolf shifters romance paranormal shifter romance young adult young adult fantasy academy bully romance high school bully romance academy romance Children s Dystopian Sci Fi Books Teen Young Adult Values Virtues Fiction Coming of Age Young Adult Teen Fantasy Romance Teen Young Adult Science Fiction Dystopian Romance Edison in the Boardroom Revisited Suzanne S. Harrison, Patrick H. Sullivan, 2011-10-31 A revised and expanded edition of the groundbreaking Edison in the Boardroom highlighting the winning strategies today s biggest companies use to maximize the value of their intellectual property Now fully revised and expanded Edison in the Boardroom Second Edition takes an in depth look at the revolutionary concept of intellectual asset management IAM Incorporating stories and teachings from some of the most successful companies in the world such as Hewlett Packard IBM Procter Gamble Rockwell Dow Ford and many others Harrison and Sullivan have made an exhaustive study of IAM and its implications for today s businesses Features updated interviews of companies and a new treatment of the Profit Center Level Updates stories and teachings from some of the most successful companies in the world Showcases a hierarchy of best practices that today s companies can integrate into their own business philosophies to gain the best return from their intellectual assets Edison in the Boardroom Second Edition compiles a wealth of knowledge and successful stories that illustrate how far businesses have come in their ability to leverage and monetize their intellectual assets Interrogating Neoliberalism and Cruel Optimism in Education Louise Azzarello, 2025-03-31 This book is a philosophical examination of the ways in which neoliberalism underpins and impedes public education It proposes that education s adoption of neoliberal logic generates a sense of despair amongst educators who often enter the profession with the hope of building a better more just world Drawing on the author s 27 years of experience as a secondary classroom teacher and engaging with a range of theoretical concepts cultural objects and scenes of violence from her time in the classroom The Radical Potency of Despair renders visible the ongoing harms that neoliberal logic creates for education and educators The author proposes a new ruptured fantasy of education and suggests that it is not hope that ignites educators who keep fighting for education but rather despair Despair is conceived of as a generative force provoking educators to hold time and space open for pedagogical encounters that interrupt the ongoing instrumentalization of education The author further conceptualizes a notion of thinking with images as a pedagogical interruptive force Thinking with images she argues gives students time and space to attend to what they see thus affording them the chance to think differently about the violence of modern society Such pedagogical interruptions are presented as a refusal of the normative order of education countering present infrastructures that aim to constrain and instrumentalize education A compelling and original volume it will appeal to scholars researchers and upper level students with interests in neoliberalism and education the philosophy of education critical pedagogy and educational policy and politics
