The Book of Encouragement and Consolation Goscelin (of Saint-Bertin), 2012 Goscelin of St Bertin's Book of Encouragement and Consolation Liber Confortatorius is extraordinary both as an example of high medieval spiritual practice and as a record of a personal relationship. Written in about 1083 by the monk Goscelin to a protégé and personal friend the recluse Eva it takes up the tradition of St Jerome's letters of spiritual guidance to women and anticipates medieval advice literature for anchoresses. As a compendious treatise incorporating numerous exempla excerpts from theological discussions and advice on meditative practice it has much to tell us about the intellectual interests and preoccupations of religious people in the late eleventh century. As a personal document it allows a fascinating and uncommonly intimate insight into the psychology of religious life the sense of self the construction of gender and the relationships between men and women in the high Middle Ages.
