Reflections on Reformational Theology Kimlyn J. Bender, 2021-07-29 The essays in this volume examine some of the fundamental doctrinal convictions of Martin Luther and the Reformation legacy as well as the maturation and development of these convictions in the theology of Karl Barth The broad evangelical vision that spans its various confessional tributaries is presented in the essays of this volume Together these studies serve as a cumulative argument for the ongoing coherence meaning and consequence of that vision one that at its heart is constructive and ecumenical rather than narrowly polemical Kimlyn J Bender examines a variety of topics such as the relation of Christ and the Church as understood in the theology of Luther and Barth the centrality of Christ to an understanding of all the solas of the Reformation the place and significance of the Reformers in Barth's own thought and Barth's theology in conversation with distant descendants of the Reformation often neglected including Baptists in America Pietists in Europe and Barth's own complicated relationship with Kierkegaard Bender concludes his discussion by presenting constructive proposals for a

Church and university on the way and thus ever reforming Ressourcement Gabriel Flynn, Paul D. Murray, 2012 A historical and a theological analysis of the most important movement in twentieth century Roman Catholic theology

Introducing Radical Orthodoxy James K. A. Smith, 2004-12 Provides a helpful overview of Radical Orthodoxy highlights its areas of agreement with Reformed theology and assesses its value as a truly postmodern theology The Pope and the Professor Thomas Albert Howard, 2017-04-07 The Pope and the Professor tells the captivating story of the German Catholic theologian and historian Ignaz von Döllinger 1799-1890 who fiercely opposed the teaching of Papal Infallibility at the time of the First Vatican Council 1869-70 convened by Pope Pius IX 1846-1878 among the most controversial popes in the history of the papacy Döllinger's thought his opposition to the Council his high profile excommunication in 1871 and the international sensation that this action caused offer a fascinating window into the intellectual and religious history of the nineteenth century Thomas Albert Howard examines Döllinger's post-conciliar activities including pioneering work in ecumenism and inspiring the Old Catholic movement in Central Europe Set against the backdrop of Italian and German national unification and the rise of anticlericalism and ultramontanism after the French Revolution The Pope and the Professor is at once an endeavor of historical and theological inquiry It provides nuanced historical contextualization of the events topics and personalities while also raising abiding questions about the often fraught relationship between individual conscience and scholarly credentials on the one hand and church authority and tradition on the other Naturally Human, Supernaturally God Adam G. Cooper, 2014-05-01 Naturally Human Supernaturally God seeks to open a small window upon an interesting case of theological convergence between three of the most important theologians of the pre-Conciliar period of Catholic theology Reginald Garrigou Lagrange O.P., Karl Rahner S.J. and Henri de Lubac S.J. each of whom played a vital role in the Second Vatican Council The differences between these three figures sometimes seem to run so deep as to defy resolution Yet Cooper argues they were strangely united in a shared conviction today's church urgently needs to renew its acquaintance with an ancient Christian theme the doctrine of deification The Oxford Handbook of Ecclesiology Paul Avis, 2018-06-28 The Oxford Handbook of Ecclesiology is a unique scholarly resource for the study of the Christian Church as we find it in the Bible in history and today As the scholarly study of how we understand the Christian Church's identity and mission ecclesiology is at the centre of today's theological research reflection and debate Ecclesiology is the theological driver of the ecumenical movement The main focus of the intense ecumenical engagement and dialogue of the past half century has been ecclesiological and this is the area where the most intractable differences remain to be tackled Ecclesiology investigates the Church's manifold self-understanding in relation to a number of areas the origins structures authority doctrine ministry sacraments unity diversity and mission of the Church including its relation to the state and to society and culture The sources of ecclesiological reflection are the Bible interpreted in the light of scholarly research Church history and the wealth of the Christian theological tradition together with the information and insights that emerge from other relevant academic disciplines This Handbook considers the biblical resources historical development and contemporary initiatives in ecclesiology It offers an invaluable and comprehensive guide to understanding the Church Catholic Today Willem van Vlastuin,2020-05-11 What is the real meaning of the church for Christian life If we confess Christian faith the church is one of the twelve articles which implies that the church is rather important In the creeds of the early church catholicity is confessed as characteristic for the church This means that the church cannot exist without catholicity What does this qualification mean In this study the author listens to the understanding of the concept of catholicity in the theology of Ignatius Cyprian Cyril Augustine and Vincent In the second part of the book some representatives of the reformed tradition are analyzed namely John Calvin James Ussher John Owen Herman Bavinck and Gerrit Berkouwer This analysis leads to a comparison between the early church and the reformed tradition Listening to theologians from the early church and the reformed tradition Van Vlastuin presents an up to date concept of the catholicity of the church which clarifies among others that the visibility of the church belongs to the essence of Christ s body that practicing the catholicity of the church is necessary against denominationalism and party formation that loss of catholicity leads to spiritual and theological impoverishment that the understanding of catholicity implies also orthodoxy with consequences for the interpretation of semper reformanda and that the consciousness of catholicity is related to the citizenship of two worlds Infallibility, Integrity and Obedience John M. Rist,2023-07-27 The doctrinal and structural revolution currently underway in the Roman Catholic Church is alarming for several reasons not least because of the arbitrary nature of its imposition and the absence of resistance it has encountered The reluctance of many to challenge the authority of the pope tied to the increasing personal veneration by the faithful of each successive incumbent of the Holy See is arguably a symptom of unresolved unclarity surrounding the nature of authority in the Church dating back to the First Vatican Council In Infallibility Integrity and Obedience John Rist unflinchingly exposes the developments that have bred this crisis of understanding and the resulting rejection of tradition in the papal agenda over the past hundred and fifty years Reserving particular attention for the Roman Catholic dilemmas political and theological of the 1930s the mid twentieth century debates on reproductive technology and the advent of celebrity autocracy he shows how a misapprehension of the nature and definition of papal infallibility is at the root of the major issues facing the Church today Most importantly he proposes how the conciliar and individual decisions that have led to the current situation might be reversed and how the proper role of the Pope can be reclaimed for the good of the Church

Encyclopedia of Protestantism Hans J. Hillerbrand,2004-08-02 For more information including sample entries full contents listing and more visit the Encyclopedia of Protestantism web site Routledge is proud to announce the publication of a new major reference work from world renowned scholar Hans J Hillerbrand The Encyclopedia of Protestantism is the definitive reference to the history and beliefs that continue to exert a profound influence on Western thought Featuring entries written by an international team of specialists and scholars the encyclopedia traces the course of Protestantism from its beginnings prior to 1517 when Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of Wittenberg Cathedral to the vital and diverse international scene of the present day Ancestor Christology Cletus Chukwuemeka Nwaogwugwu, 2011-01-07 The study of the application of the title ancestor to Christ permits the author to delve into the Christological reflection in Africa today through one of the principal ways At play here is the inculturation of the faith which cannot be fully achieved without a process of theological assimilation of the fundamental parameters in the African life The thesis therefore is not only limited to a mere description of the contemporary panorama in that respect but attempts to offer a theological evaluation of the real expressive capacity of the title as it has been proposed The criterion used is therefore double In the first place the thesis tried to show that the human and the divine natures of Jesus Christ can be maintained in such a way that there is no rupture with the great tradition of the Christological councils In the second place if it is capable of responding to demands of Christology from above and from below In all this however the horizon of the debate is not occidental exegetical investigation well known by the author but from the theological ambient of sub Saharan world The conclusion is positive pondering the terms involved The work can be of great use in the christoogical endeavors of contemporary Africa as well for those who desire to delve into it Don Alfonso Carrasco Rouco director of the thesis and now Bishop of the Diocese of Lugo Spain The work of Don Cletus Chukwuemeka contains a clear description of what we may call African traditional religiosity as well as the theological efforts to inject Christianity into this cultural and religious tradition The central point of these efforts revolves around the understanding of Christ The most original aspect of this work is in the critical recourse to the figure of the ancestor or proto ancestor to present the identity of Christ in a way that is faithful to the Church tradition and at the same time significant for the religious and cultural tradition of Africa Dr Don Gerardo del Pozo Abejn Censor of the thesis

Catholic Theologians in Nazi Germany Robert Krieg, 2004-02-27 Catholic and Protestant bishops during the period of the Third Reich are often accused of being either sympathetic to the Nazi regime or at least generally tolerant of its anti Jewish stance so long as the latter did not infringe on the functions of the church With some notable exceptions that accusation is extended to many lesser figures including seminary professors and pastors Most notably the exceptions include such martyred heroes as Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Max Metzger religious activists and writers still of great influence Among Catholic theologians the record is no less cloudy Theology and Politics while discussing a range of religious scholars focuses on five major theologians who were born during the Kulturkampf came to maturity and international recognition during the Hitler era and had an influence on Catholicism in the English speaking world Three were in varying degrees and for varying lengths of time sympathetic to the professed goals of the Third Reich Karl Adam Karl Eschweiler and Joseph Lortz The other two Romano Guardini and Engelbert Krebs were publicly critical of the new regime Interestingly the two theologians who have had the greatest influence in the English speaking world Guardini and Adam were initially on opposite sides of the Nazi divide The interplay of theology and politics to which the title refers is evident in the fact that while all the theologians differed from the classic theology of the church as a perfect society and were progressive in their rejection of neo scholastic methodology they differed among themselves in envisaging the church either as the enemy of modernity or as its religious dialogue partner The first group initially approving the Reich agenda were Adam Eschweiler the most ardent supporter and Lortz the second included Guardini and Krebs the most ardent opponent
