Online Achievement Inclusion Schools Lani Florian:

Achievement and Inclusion in Schools Lani Florian, Martyn Rouse, Kristine Black Hawkins, 2024-11-01 Winner of the nasen Special Educational Needs Academic Book award 2008 There is an enduring and widespread perception amongst policy makers and practitioners that certain groups of children in particular those who find learning difficult have a detrimental effect on the achievement of other children Challenging this basic assumption Achievement and Inclusion in Schools argues that high levels of inclusion can be entirely compatible with high levels of achievement and that combining the two is not only possible but essential if all children are to have the opportunity to participate fully in education Packed with vivid case studies that explore the benefits and tensions for children and schools this book sets out to answer the following questions What is the nature of the relationship between the inclusion of some children and the achievement of all Are there strategies which can raise the achievement of all children whilst safeguarding the inclusion of others who are more vulnerable What changes can a school make to ensure high levels of inclusion as well as high levels of achievement for all its children Achievement and Inclusion in Schools offers an up to date analysis of current issues provides practical guidance for practitioners and policy makers and will be of interest to anyone passionate about inclusive education Inclusive

Pedagogical Practices Amidst a Global Pandemic Lawrence Meda, Jonathan Chitiyo, 2022-09-23 This book addresses the current issues of inclusive education during the time of the global pandemic of COVID 19 It offers inclusive pedagogical strategies and approaches for teachers and instructors to cater for the diverse learning needs of children in the midst of the pandemic The work explores different ways in which students in different contexts across the globe are being accommodated and shows how inclusion is being implemented It draws on a range of theoretical frameworks and research projects to provide multiple perspectives on inclusive pedagogical practices The SAGE Handbook of Special Education Lani

Florian, 2006-11-16 This book provides an excellent overview of special education which will be a valuable resource for teachers school managers and administrators parents and indeed anyone with an interest in the development of provision for pupils with special educational needs It is also likely to be an invaluable source book for researchers and postgraduate students alike REACH The Handbook offers a range of views on how to empower all learners to transcend their current performance and go beyond the limits Journal of Cognitive Education and Psychology This text makes an important contribution to special education Perhaps more significantly it makes an important contribution to inclusive education and possibly even more widely to education in general it is a book that has significance for all of us who wish to move education towards a more equitable democratic humane and dignified system for our young people Education in the North In recent years there has been increasingly vigorous debate about the nature and purpose of special education and what might be considered the appropriate responses to pupils who experience difficulties in learning This Handbook brings together the most up to date knowledge of this area and will serve as the major source book of authoritative information and ideas about current and future directions for special education It examines the intricate relation between theory research and practice and places a particular emphasis on what has been learned about providing for students who experience difficulties in learning how these understandings can contribute to new conceptualisations of special education and the development of more inclusive schools This comprehensive research based work brings together scholarship on an international level and covers topics that transcend national boundaries It will become essential reading for all professionals and academics with any interest in this important and dynamic field

Handbook of Effective Inclusive Schools James McLeskey, Fred Spooner, Bob Algozzine, Nancy, L. Waldron, 2014-05-16 Over the last decade the educational context for students with disabilities has significantly changed primarily as a result of mandates contained in NCLB and IDEA The purpose of this book is to summarize the research literature regarding how students might be provided classrooms and schools that are both inclusive and effective Inclusive schools are defined as places where students with disabilities are valued and active participants in academic and social activities and are given supports that help them succeed Effectiveness is addressed within the current movement toward multi tiered systems of support and evidence based practices that meet the demands of high stakes accountability

Disability Classification in Education Lani Florian, Margaret J. McLaughlin, 2008-04-03 Makes a strong contribution to the field illuminating many issues and significant concerns Mary Carlson Special Education Teacher Park Hill K 8 School Denver CO A unique timeless collection that raises interesting questions about disability classification internationally Wendy Dallman Special Education Teacher New London High School WI Promote equal educational opportunity through improved classification practices The identification of children for special educational services has long been a topic of debate Are students classified accurately Do current classification systems produce adequate education services Have systems designed to ensure equity instead resulted in discrimination Disability Classification in Education offers a comprehensive analysis of current classification systems and categorical labels in the United States the United Kingdom and other countries Covering specific national policies from historical sociological and legal perspectives this collection of articles from a group of esteemed educational researchers identifies the disparities between different classification systems and suggests changes based on recent requirements challenges and trends Aligned with NCLB and the reauthorization of IDEA 2004 this edited volume examines The evolution of special education classification policies The relevance of existing disability classification systems Dilemmas educators face in using current classification procedures Alternatives for serving learners with special needs Approaches to developing a standardized or universal classification policy Intended to stimulate discussion and spark change this guide helps school or district administrators and university faculty improve the professional practice of those entrusted with the development and well being of children with disabilities
