Metamorphosen des Weltchristentums Christine Lienemann-Perrin, 2023-09-06 Im Verlauf des 20. Jahrhunderts hat das Christentum tiefgreifende Veränderungen erfahren. Aus einer Religion mit strukturellen, geistlichen und missionarischen Zentren in Europa und Nordamerika ist eine Weltreligion mit neuen Formen christlichen Lebens sowie regionalen Zentren im globalen Süden und in Asien entstanden. In den verschiedenen Teilen der Welt haben unterschiedliche Faktoren diesen Wandel verstärkt: Bevölkerungsanstieg und Wachstum, Säkularisierung und Desäkularisierung, Dekolonisation, Migrationsbewegungen. Mit einem neuen polyzentrischen Ansatz zeichnet Christine Lienemann-Perrin die Konturen des Weltchristentums nach. Das leitende Erkenntnisinteresse gilt den Metamorphosen der heutigen Weltchristenheit und den Konsequenzen, die sich daraus für den christlichen Glauben und die theologische Reflexion im kumenischen Kontext ergeben.

Reading the Bible across Contexts Esa J. Autero, 2016-06-10 In Reading the Bible Across Contexts Esa Autero offers a fresh perspective on Luke's poverty texts. In addition to an historical reading, he conducted an empirical investigation of two Latin American Bible reading groups, one poor and the other affluent, to shed light on Luke's poverty texts. The interaction between historical reading and present-day readings demonstrates the impact of socio-economic status on biblical hermeneutics and sheds new light on Luke's views on wealth and poverty. At the same time, Esa Autero critically examines liberation theologians' claim that the poor are privileged biblical interpreters.

Abuse in World Religions Johanna Stiebert, 2025-07-31 This book draws attention to the texts, mechanisms, strategies, and initiatives that address and combat sexual and spiritual abuse in five world religions. It goes beyond identifying, describing, or characterising spiritual abuse in multiple religious traditions and rape culture settings; instead, it describes what is being done in diverse religious communities and settings to confront, address, resist, and heal from spiritual abuse. Just as none of the world religions are free from spiritual abuse, all have developed ways to detoxify, prevent, eliminate, and bring healing and justice in the face of its existence. Solution-focused activities range from analysis of sacred texts to discussion forums, creation of self-representational visual and creative expressions, digital and other forms of activism, and protest, specialist training courses, support groups, and survivor-led initiatives. The book will appeal to academics of religious studies with interest in rape culture and spiritual abuse, as well as upper-level undergraduates and postgraduates, and also religious leaders or leaders of faith-based organisations seeking to understand and to confront spiritual abuse and rape culture in their own communities.

Faith, Class, and Labor Jin Young Choi, Joerg Rieger, 2020-12-16 Despite the fact that 99 percent of us work for a living and although work shapes us, the core class and labor are topics that are underrepresented in the work of scholars of religion, theology, and the Bible. With this volume, an international group of scholars and activists from nine different countries is bringing issues of religion, class, and labor back into conversation. Historians and theologians investigate how new images of God and the world emerge and what difference they can make. Biblical critics develop new takes on ancient texts that lead to the reversal of readings that had been seemingly stable settled and taken for granted Activists and organizers identify neglected sources of power and energy returning in new force and point to transformations happening Asking how labor and religion mutually shape each other and how the agency of working people operates in their lives the contributors also employ intersectional approaches that engage race gender sexuality and colonialism This volume presents transdisciplinary transtextual transactional transnational and transgressive work in progress much needed in our time
