User Generated Branding Christoph Burmann, Ulrike Arnhold, 2008 In the digital world of the participatory web, millions of common people have started publishing their own brand-related content. Such amateur pieces ignore official marketing campaigns and are generated by brand fans and opponents alike. Given the increasing speed and reach of the internet, those grassroots messages may have sweeping effects on the brand image. This book represents a first comprehensive study fully dedicated to the emerging phenomenon of brand-related user-generated content. It explores its patterns and shows how brand managers may benefit from it via user-generated branding campaigns.

Latino/a Literature in the Classroom Frederick Luis Aldama, 2015-06-19 In one of the most rapidly growing areas of literary study, this volume provides the first comprehensive guide to teaching Latino literature in all varieties of learning environments. The essays provide conceptual vocabularies and tools to help teachers design courses that pay attention to issues of form across a range of storytelling media; issues of content such as theme and character; issues of historical periods, linguistic communities, and regions; issues of institutional classroom settings. The Visual Worlds of Social Network Sites Ulla Autenrieth, Klaus Neumann-Braun, 2011 The central form of communication on social network sites (SNS) is the communication with and through images. Accordingly, the present volume highlights images and image-based communication on SNS such as Facebook and on nightlife platforms such as Tilllate. First, the authors analyze the two central image categories in depth: profile images and photo albums. What follows is the portrayal of dramaturgical and staging strategies of the semi-professional photography on the nightlife platforms, which leads to an evaluation of the importance of the international glamour photography as a parameter of private photographic self-expression. Other questions that the authors ponder in the volume are: Which functions and meanings do images have for the communications between users on social network sites? To what extent could certain design characteristics in the image-based communication on SNS establish themselves as prototypical staging patterns? Which staging traditions are followed thereby? Which staging strategies are followed on different online platforms by the users self visualizations Analysis of Images, Social Networks and Texts Dmitry I. Ignatov, Mikhail Yu.
