Chicago by the Book Caxton Club, 2018-11-20 Despite its rough and tumble image Chicago has long been identified as a city where books take center stage In fact a volume by A J Liebling gave the Second City its nickname Upton Sinclair's The Jungle arose from the midwestern capital's most infamous industry The great Chicago Fire led to the founding of the Chicago Public Library The city has fostered writers such as Nelson Algren Saul Bellow and Gwendolyn Brooks Chicago's literary magazines The Little Review and Poetry introduced the world to Eliot Hemingway Joyce and Pound The city's robust commercial printing industry supported a flourishing culture of the book With this beautifully produced collection Chicago's rich literary tradition finally gets its due Chicago by the Book profiles 101 landmark publications about Chicago from the past 170 years that have helped define the city and its image Each title carefully selected by the Caxton Club a venerable Chicago bibliophilic organization is the focus of an illustrated essay by a leading scholar writer or bibliophile Arranged chronologically to show the history of both the city and its books the essays can be read in order from Mrs John H Kinzie's 1844 Narrative of the Massacre of Chicago to Sara Paretsky's 2015 crime novel Brush Back Or one can dip in and out savoring reflections on the arts sports crime race relations urban planning politics and even Mrs O Leary's legendary cow The selections do not shy from the underside of the city recognizing that its grit and graft have as much a place in the written imagination as soaring odes and boosterism As Neil Harris observes in his introduction Even when Chicagoans celebrate their hearth and home they do so while acknowledging deep seated flaws At the same time this collection heartily reminds us all of what makes Chicago as Norman Mailer called it the great American city With essays from among others Ira Berkow Thomas Dyja Ann Durkin Keating Alex Kotlowitz Toni Preckwinkle Frank Rich Don Share Carl Smith Regina Taylor Garry Wills and William Julius Wilson and featuring works by Saul Bellow Gwendolyn Brooks Sandra Cisneros Clarence Darrow Erik Larson David Mamet Studs Terkel Ida B Wells Barnett Frank Lloyd Wright and many more

Corners in the City of God Jonathan Tran, Myles Werntz, 2013-10-24 David Simon's The Wire lays out before us a city in which people struggle under the weight of poverty political corruption economic despair educational collapse and the drug trade This volume explores the various theological ethical and philosophical challenges presented by The Wire As each season of The Wire unfolds the moral complexities of life in the city deepen as the failures of one system have unforeseen effects in other corners of the city Fleshing out the ongoing tension between the earthly city and the City of God Corners in the City of God is a theological companion to David Simon's masterpiece inviting the reader to wrestle with the implications of belonging fully to the cities of the world in all of their splendor and tragedy

Fear of a Hip-Hop Planet D. Marvin Jones, 2013-04-01 Is Gangsta Rap just black noise Or does it play the same role for urban youth that CNN plays in mainstream America This provocative set of essays tells us how Gangsta Rap is a creative report about an urban crisis our new American dilemma and why we need to listen Increasingly police politicians and late night talk show hosts portray today's inner cities as violent crime ridden war zones The same moral panic that once focused on blacks in general has now been refocused on urban spaces and the black men who live there especially those wearing saggy pants and hoodies The media always spotlights the crime and violence but rarely gives airtime to the conditions that produced these problems The dominant narrative holds that the cause of the violence is the pathology of ghetto culture Hip hop music is at the center of this conversation When 16 year old Chicago youth Derrion Albert was brutally killed by gang members many blamed rap music Thus hip hop music has been demonized not merely as black noise but as a root cause of crime and violence Fear of a Hip Hop Planet America's New Dilemma explores and demystifies the politics in which the gulf between the inner city and suburbia have come to signify not

Brown,Jamel K. Donnor,2013-09-13 The Education of Black Males in a Post Racial World examines the varied structural and discursive contexts of race masculinities and class that shape the educational and social lives of Black males The contributing authors take direct aim at the current discourses that construct Black males as disengaged in schooling because of an autonomous Black male culture and explore how media social sciences school curriculum popular culture and sport can define and constrain the lives of Black males The chapters also provide alternative methodologies theories and analyses for making sense of and addressing the complex needs of Black males in schools and in society By expanding our understanding of how unequal access to productive opportunities and quality resources converge to systemically create disparate experiences and outcomes for African American males this volume powerfully illustrates that race still matters in post racial America This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education Interpersonal Culture on the Internet Sarah N. Gatson,Amanda Zweerink,2004 Community is a highly contested concept and in the milieu of mass media it is even more highly fraught The book is a community formation narrative adding to our common database of emergent community practice on the Internet The book bolsters our understandings of the substantive processes involved particularly those of boundary formation spatial dimensions of communities and how communities are always both embedded and emerging entities Finally it deals with the question of how seamless and or disruptive the new technology of the Internet is vis a vis our traditional practices of community formation and maintenance We are interested in a problem with communities based in media fandoms Eventually the artist will quit making music the movie will cease to have sequels or the television show will get cancelled What happens to these communities when their basis of interest goes away Is the bond of community enough to keep them together Why do people fracture into other groups Why do some hold on to the one for all all for one mentality chosen offline or do they stick
