Children's Literature in Primary Schools David Waugh, Sally Neaum, Rosemary Waugh, 2016-07-15 How can you help children to develop a love of reading and books? Which books are the best ones to use in primary teaching? How do you make the most of children's literature in teaching across the curriculum? Trainee and experienced primary school teachers need an advanced knowledge of children's literature. This is your guide to the range of and scope of children's literature for the primary classroom. Through the exploration of different genres it covers a wide range of literature and helps you to consider what we mean by literature. Case studies that model good practice are included with suggestions for practical activities using literature to enhance teaching across the curriculum. Throughout book recommendations show how specific texts can be used for teaching in exciting and innovative ways. What's new to this edition updated in line with the new Primary National Curriculum includes new content on supporting children for whom English is an Additional Language, an extensive list of book recommendations for primary teaching, how to get more out of classic texts, introduces new texts and new children's authors.

Teaching English by the Book James Clements, 2017-12-07 Teaching English by the Book is about putting great books, wonderful poems and rich texts at the heart of English teaching, transforming children's attitudes to reading and writing and having a positive impact on learning. It offers a practical approach to teaching a text-based curriculum full of strategies and ideas that are immediately useable in the classroom. Written by James Clements, teacher, researcher, writer and creator of shakespeareandmore.com. Teaching English by the Book provides effective ideas for enthusing children about literature, poetry and picture books. It offers techniques and activities to teach grammar, punctuation and spelling, provides support and guidance on planning lessons and units for meaningful learning and shows how to bring texts to life through drama and the use of multimedia and film texts. Teaching English by the Book is for all teachers who aspire to use great books to introduce children to ideas beyond their own experience, encounter concepts that have never occurred to them before, to hear and read beautiful language and experience what it's like to lose themselves in a story, developing a genuine love of English that will stay with them forever.
