African Evangelicalism and the Transformation of Africa Jacob K. Olupona, 2025 What is the impact of Evangelical Christianity on Africa Evangelical Christianity and the Transformation of Africa will answer this question Evangelical Christianity is manifesting into a strong presence in African states perhaps more than in any other place in the world Given its exponential rise in Africa it is increasingly clear that Christianity in its evangelical form is exercising significant influence in virtually all spheres of life defining the essence of public and private life Drawing on original works from leading scholars in humanities and social science disciplines such as Afe Adogame Yolanda Covington Ward Jacob Olupona Derek Peterson Shobana Shankar and Nimi Wariboko this volume endeavors to produce a comprehensive study of Evangelical Christianity in Africa paying careful attention to disciplinary interconnections as well as social cultural political and economic forces Among other subjects essays in this volume address examples of evangelical subjectivity and identity formation against the current political backdrops of Nigeria Kenya the Democratic Republic of Congo and other nations While the book works to convey the core elements of the evangelical movement across the African continent it recognizes the importance of its diverse manifestations giving additional focus to Pentecostal groups and their distinct social cultural and political engagements At the same time it works to correct the unwarranted saturation of attention given to Pentecostal Charismatic movements in recent scholarship and expands the study of evangelicalism in Africa into the sphere of mainline churches and extra ecclesial organizations Authors also reflect on the ways that the African diaspora and transnational ties contribute to the make up of contemporary African evangelicalism In short this edited volume examines how the centrality of religion in African affairs political economic cultural ideological domains has contributed to turning Evangelical Christianity into the official face of the Christian Church in Africa today

The Anthropology of Religious Conversion Andrew Buckser, Stephen D.

Glazier, 2003-08-18 The Anthropology of Religious Conversion paints a picture of conversion far more complex than its customary image in anthropology and religious studies Conversion is very seldom simply a sudden moment of insight or inspiration it is a change both of individual consciousness and of social belonging of mental attitude and of physical experience whose unfolding depends both on its cultural setting and on the distinct individuals who undergo it The book explores religious conversion in a variety of cultural settings and considers how anthropological approaches can help us understand the phenomenon Fourteen case studies span historical and geographical contexts including the contemporary United States modern and medieval Europe and non western societies in South Asia Melanesia and South America They discuss conversion to Christianity Judaism Hinduism Islam and Spiritualism Combining ethnographic description with theoretical analysis authors consider the nature and meaning of conversion its social and political dimensions and its relationship to individual religious experience

Ordinary Lives and Grand Schemes Joska Samuli Schielke, Liza Debevec, 2012 Everyday practice of religion is complex in its nature ambivalent and at times contradictory The task of an anthropology of religious practice is therefore precisely to see how people navigate and make sense of that complexity and what the significance of religious beliefs and practices in a given setting can be Rather than putting everyday practice and normative doctrine on different analytical planes the authors argue that the articulation of religious doctrine is also an everyday practice and must be understood as such Vernacular Christianity Wendy James, Douglas Hamilton Johnson, 1988 Learning Religion David Berliner, Ramon Sarró, 2008-10 On learning religion an introduction David Berliner and Ramon Sarr Learning to believe a preliminary approach Carlo Severi Menstrual slaps and first blood celebrations inference simulation and the learning of ritual Michael Houseman The accidental in religious instruction ideas and convictions David Parkin On catching up with oneself learning to know that one means what one does Michael Lambek How do you learn to know that it is God who speaks T M Luhrmann How to learn in an Afro Brazilian spirit possession religion ontology and multiplicity in Candomblé Marcio Goldman Learning to be a proper medium middle class womanhood and spirit mediumship at Christian rationalist seances in Cape Verde Joao Vasconcelos Copyright and authorship ritual speech and the new market of words in Toraja Aurora Donzelli Learning faith young Christians and catechism Laurence Herault What is interesting about Chinese religion Charles Stafford The sound of witchcraft noise as mediation in religious transmission Michael Rowlands Anthropological Aspects in the Christian-Muslim Dialogues of the Vatican Jutta B. Funerals Elizabeth Whinfrey-Koepping,2008 This is a wide ranging yet incisive text on religion from below by an anthropologist based on many years of field work in Borneo and Australia and current teaching in practical theology and religious studies It argues that rural Lutherans in Australia and rural Anglicans Muslims and local religionists in Malaysia whose views form the core of the book discern their religious identity primarily in terms of their food friends and partners and funeral practices and only secondarily if at all in terms of belief and doctrine It also critiques ego centred and ethnocentred approaches to religion too often apparent in religious studies and missiology Islam in Relation to the Christ of prayer into anthropological discussion Across diverse significant ethnographic case studies five anthropologists attend to prayers and how they are performed and seen to intervene in the social world The studies include Pentecostals in Zambia Charismatic Christians in Ghana Protestants in Scotland Eastern Orthodox Christians in Romania and Catholics in Syria Across these ethnographic cases the book argues that focusing on the social life of prayer offers a significant way to engage with matters close to people Prayers are a way to map affect and the affective relationships people hold in what they are oriented towards and care about Taking its cue from Marcel Mauss the book invites us to go beyond the individual and see how prayers always point to a broader social landscape of obligation and affective investment Focusing on the social life of prayers the book posits accordingly entices a particular form of situated comparison of diverse Christian traditions that pushes the scholarly conversation on Christianity to consider central questions of agency responsibility and subjectivity Taking up prayer as the object of study this book offers novel anthropological perspectives on Christian life and practice The chapters in this book were originally published a special issue of Religion
