Becoming an Author

by James King

Bill Martin Jr.

Bill Martin Jr. was born in 1926. He grew up in Kansas. Reading was not easy for Bill. He had difficulty learning to read and often became discouraged.

When Bill was a young boy, his grandmother told him stories. She listened to her son, too. Bill learned how to listening.

Bill's fifth grade teacher read books aloud to her class each day. While she read, she talked about the book. Bill learned he could picture the characters in his head.

As a college student, Bill Martin was excited to receive books from his teacher. Bill was relieved that his teacher did not know he had difficulty reading. The teacher told him that good readers become good writers.

He has asked their reader to write a letter to the editor. The first place Bill will read is the letter to the editor.
