Moth Or How I Came To Be With You Again:

Moth; or how I came to be with you again Thomas Heise, 2013-06-14 A deeply melancholic and moving work of art Carole Maso Every writer is a man or woman resuscitated brought back for a little while before being dismissed While I was hovering in bed barely asleep my father would sneak in to check on me Sometimes he came in the shape of a stranger but his black eyes with a mark of sorrow never changed When I was younger I could run so fast my shadow would fly off me I would leave it behind in the city where I was born There was no city only my mother's arms Dear grief hermetic as a goat's skull The future where you are but how to get there except waiting another year The narrator in Thomas Heise's adventurous novel tries to fuse together his present and past abandonment by his parents childhood in an orphanage and a strong sense of disconnection from his adult life The story is written in columnar densely lyrical sections looping and vertiginously dropping into the speaker's past across several cities in Europe W G Sebald Samuel Beckett and Michelangelo Antonioni's films come to mind especially L'Avventura and Red Desert Heise's language is precise dirigibles no larger than a fennel seed and his lush unfolding sentences offer a great gorgeous pleasure Moth is a haunting one of a kind novel that will stay with the reader for a long long time Thomas Heise is the author of Horror Vacui Poems and Urban Underworlds A Geography of Twentieth Century American Literature and Culture He teaches at McGill University The Moth's Flame Diane Simmons, 2011-12-30 The Moth's Flame is about a woman who fell madly in love with the perfect guy until he no longer became what the doctor ordered As time went on her better half began to use drugs and become abusive in ways unspeakable Could the emotional physical and mental damage that eroded after years of good times cause one to murder her husband It's a mystery one would have to read from beginning to end Erster Unterricht im Englischen Carl Munde, 1867
