 detailed description of Alberta's health care system and the underpinning political and social forces that have shaped it Drawing on significant wealth from government revenues generated through the energy sector Alberta has been able to develop an extensive public health and health care infrastructure Alberta has used its financial resources to attract health professionals by offering the highest levels of financial compensation in Canada However although it spends more per capita than other Canadian jurisdictions Alberta's health care system costs and health outcomes are mediocre compared to those of many other Canadian jurisdictions This unexpected outcome is the consequence of the unique interplay of economic and political forces within Alberta's political economy Through an examination of Alberta's political and economic history and using research on the structures and services provided Alberta A Health System Profile provides a detailed description of the programs and services that constitute Alberta's health care system National Business Bulletin, 2003 McGregor's who
