Chattoo,2020 Only a few years after the 2013 Sundance Film Festival premiere of Blackfish an independent documentary film that critiqued the treatment of orcas in captivity visits to SeaWorld declined major corporate sponsors pulled their support and performing acts canceled appearances. The steady drumbeat of public criticism, negative media coverage and unrelenting activism became known as the Blackfish Effect. In 2016 SeaWorld announced a stunning corporate policy change: the end of its profitable orca shows. In an evolving networked era, social issue documentaries like Blackfish are art for civic imagination and social critique. Today's documentaries interrogate topics like sexual assault in the U.S. military, The Invisible War, racial injustice, 13th government surveillance, Citizenfour, and more. Artistic nonfiction films are changing public conversations, influencing media agendas, mobilizing communities, and capturing the attention of policymakers, accessed by expanding audiences in a transforming media marketplace. In Story Movements: How Documentaries Empower People and Inspire Social Change, producer and scholar Caty Borum Chattoo explores how documentaries disrupt dominant cultural narratives through complex, creative, often investigative storytelling. Featuring original interviews with award-winning documentary filmmakers and field leaders, the book reveals the influence and motivations behind the vibrant, eye-opening stories of the contemporary documentary age. Protest, Movements, and Dissent in the Social Sciences Giovanni A.

Travaglino,2017-10-02 Drawing on a wide range of social science disciplines and approaches, each chapter in this book offers a comprehensive analysis of social protest, political dissent, and collective action. The distinguished scholars contributing to the book discuss some of the key theoretical and methodological issues in social protest research and analyse recent instances of collective dissent around the globe, ranging from the 15M movement in Spain to the 2011 Salford riots in the UK to Pro-Palestinian activism in Jerusalem. The result of these contributions is a sophisticated and multifaceted collection that enriches our understanding of why, when, and how groups of people decide to act collectively in order to pursue political change. The book is a timely testament to the vitality of the field. This book was originally published as a special issue of Contemporary Social Science. The Rhetoric of Social Movements Nathan Crick,2020-09-22 This collection provides an accessible yet rigorous survey of the rhetorical study of historical and contemporary social movements and promotes the study of relations between strategy, symbolic action, and social assemblage. Offering a comprehensive collection of the latest research in the field, The Rhetoric of Social Movements: Networks, Power, and New Media suggests a framework for the study of social movements grounded in a methodology of slow inquiry and the interconnectedness of these imminent phenomena Chapters address the rhetorical tactics that social movements use to gain attention and challenge power the centrality of traditional and new media in social movements the operations of power in movement organization leadership and local and global networking and emerging contents and environments for social movements in the twenty first century Each chapter is framed by case studies drawn from movements across the world ranging from Black Lives Matter and Occupy to Greek anarchism and indigenous land protests that ground conceptual characteristics of social movements in their continuously unfolding reality furnishing readers with both practical and theoretical insights The Rhetoric of Social Movements will be of interest to scholars and advanced students of rhetoric communication media studies cultural studies social protest and activism and political science
