Mediating Culture William Anselmi, Kosta Gouliamos, 1994 This collection of essays has been taken up with questions of power mediation marginality democracy political economy alienation and socio cultural transformations The objective of the editors is not necessarily to determine what the answers must be but to recommend some paramount lines of investigation towards tentative means of analysis The authors invited to participate in this project are Robert Babe Cornelius Castoriadis Noam Chomsky Nicos Poulantzas Domenico D Alessandro Denis Bachand Francesco Guardiani Daniele Pieroni Cris Podmore William Anselmi and Kosta Gouliamos

Necessary Illusions Thought Control in Democratic Societies, 1995 In his national bestselling 1988 CBC Massey Lectures Noam Chomsky inquires into the nature of the media in a political system where the population cannot be disciplined by force and thus must be subjected to more subtle forms of ideological control Specific cases are illustrated in detail using the U S media primarily but also media in other societies Chomsky considers how the media might be democratized as part of the general problem of developing more democratic institutions in order to offer citizens broader and more meaningful participation in social and political life

Analyzing the Israel Effect in Canada Peter Eglin, 2024-05-21 What is the life of a Palestinian worth to intellectuals in Canadian universities and news media Analyzing the Israel Effect documents and analyzes the discursive and organizational methods by which public criticism of Israel s oppression of the Palestinians is silenced in Canada as experienced through ten episodes in the life of the author over a thirty year period from 1990-2020 in interaction with his university and local and national Canadian news media. As a sociological work, the book is a critical autoethnography. But it is also an atrocity tale, a horror story of institutional self-censorship amounting to the abrogation of intellectual responsibility by those specifically charged with upholding it. In the end, the book is a crossover between academic treatise and journalistic exposé, a historical narrative written by an academic from the standpoint of a political participant-observer. Rajan Philips' The Israel Effect itself is analyzed as a three-tier propaganda industry. Hasbara is produced in Israel (Tier 1), disseminated to Israel Lobby groups around the world (Tier 2), and independently reproduced actively and passively by the intellectual institutions, universities, and news media (Tier 3). This book is about the non-Jewish, non-Zionist institutions of Tier 3, the onlookers to war crimes, ethnic cleansing, and arguably genocide as in Gaza in October-November 2023. This work stands as a compelling testament to the importance of preserving freedom of expression and the vital role intellectuals play in challenging injustice and promoting transparency. It is ideal for scholars, activists, and anyone seeking to understand the complexities of political activism and the power dynamics behind public discourse.

Sport, Civil Liberties and Human Rights Richard Giulianotti, David McArdle, 2014-01-02. What is the relationship between sport and human rights? Can sport protect and enhance the human rights of competitors and sport workers? Can it also undermine those rights? These topical issues are among the many that are explored in this groundbreaking volume, which analyzes how sports both contribute to and undermine the human rights of participants, spectators, and workers. The papers are written by esteemed academics whose work is at the cutting edge of this burgeoning area of study. Experts from around the world have contributed to this important work and examine controversial issues such as sexual harassment, racism, freedom of movement, sport as popular protest. This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society.

Risky Business Michael D. Mehta, 2005-01-01. This David and Goliath story chronicles and analyzes how a small underfunded public interest group, Durham Nuclear Awareness of Oshawa, Ontario, mobilized opposition to the December 1994 relicensing of the Pickering Nuclear Generating Station. Michael D. Mehta explores the struggle between Durham Nuclear Awareness and Canada's nuclear establishment to illustrate how risk as a concept can be used to understand contemporary political conflicts.

Intellectual Citizenship and the Problem of Incarnation Peter Eglin, 2012-11-08. Who has the right to know? asks Jean-François Lyotard. Who has the right to eat? asks Peter Madaka Wanyama. This book asks what does it mean to be a responsible academic in a northern university given the incarnate connections between the university's operations and death and suffering elsewhere. Through studies of the neoliberal university in Ontario, the imperial university in relation to East Timor, the chauvinist university in relation to El Salvador, and the gendered university in relation to the Montreal Massacre, the author challenges himself and the reader to practice intellectual citizenship everywhere, from the classroom to the university commons to the street. Peter Eglin argues that the moral imperative to do so derives from the concept of incarnation Here the idea of incarnation is removed from its Christian context and replaced with a political economic interpretation of the embodiment of exploited labor This embodiment is presented through the material goods that link the many s compromised right to eat with the privileged few s right to know Jahresbibliographie Massenkommunikation,1989 Western Jihadism Jytte Klausen,2021 This book tells the story of Al Qaeda and its development in the West
