Negotiating With The Dead Negotiating With The Dead:

Negotiating with the Dead Margaret Atwood, 2002-03-06 Margaret Atwood examines the nature of writing and the role of writers

Negotiating (with) the Dead Anisa Nixon, 2018 The Cambridge Companion to Margaret Atwood Coral Ann Howells, 2006-03-30 Margaret Atwood's international celebrity has given a new visibility to Canadian literature in English. This Companion provides a comprehensive critical account of Atwood's writing across the wide range of genres within which she has worked for the past forty years while paying attention to her Canadian cultural context and the multiple dimensions of her celebrity. The main concern is with Atwood the writer but there is also Atwood the media star and public performer, cultural critic, environmentalist and human rights spokeswoman, social and political satirist and mythmaker. This immensely varied profile is addressed in a series of chapters which cover biographical, textual and contextual issues. The Introduction contains an analysis of dominant trends in Atwood criticism since the 1970s while the essays by twelve leading international Atwood critics represent the wide range of different perspectives in current Atwood scholarship.

Shakespearean Negotiations Stephen Greenblatt, 1988 Stephen Greenblatt has been at the center of a major shift in literary interpretation toward a critical method that situates cultural creation in history. Shakespearean Negotiations is a sustained and powerful exemplification of this innovative method offering a new way of understanding the power of Shakespeare's achievement and beyond this an original analysis of cultural process.

Deadlocks in Multilateral Negotiations Amrita Narlikar, 2010-05-06 Deadlocks are a feature of everyday life as well as high politics. This volume focuses on the concept, causes and consequences of deadlocks in multilateral settings and analyses the types of strategies that could be used to break them. It commences with a definition of deadlock, hypothesises about its occurrence and proposes solutions. Each chapter then makes an original contribution to the issue of deadlock, theoretical, methodological or empirical, and further tests the original concepts and hypotheses either theoretically or through case study analysis, developing or altering them accordingly. This is a unique volume which provides an in-depth examination of the problem of deadlock and a more thorough understanding of specific negotiation problems than has ever been done before. It will be directly relevant to students, researchers, teachers and scholars of negotiation and will also be of interest to practitioners involved in negotiation and diplomacy.

Moments of Negotiation Jürgen Pieters, 2001 Moments of Negotiation offers the first book-length and in-depth analysis of the New Historicist reading method which the American Shakespeare scholar Stephen Greenblatt introduced at the beginning of the 1980s. Ever since Greenblatt has been hailed as the prime representative of this movement whose critical acclaim has been one of the dominant trends in recent literary and cultural studies. In this new book Jürgen Pieters attempts to fill a remarkable lacuna in the critical reception of Greenblatt's work. The book's aim is to provide a thorough analysis of the theoretical background of Greenblatt's method. This involves not only a close reading of Greenblatt's sources, the book offers introductory surveys of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin, Michel Foucault, Louis Althusser, Pierre Macherey, Michel de Certeau.

Jean Fran ois Lyotard Raymond Williams and Stuart Hall but also a critique of the way in which he adapts and transforms their original insights in the framework of his own interdisciplinary method This book is of interest to students and scholars coming from a diverse range of fields literary theory cultural history early modern studies Shakespeare studies theory and practice of history
