Mandela Bill Clinton, Tutu, Archbishop Desmond, 2006-10 Describes and depicts the life and times of the South African president who spent twenty seven years in jail for his political beliefs and includes interviews by such figures as Bill Clinton Tony Blair and Bono Refiguring the Archive Carolyn Hamilton, Verne Harris, Michèle Pickover, Graeme Reid, Razia Saleh, Jane Taylor, 2012-12-06 Refiguring the Archive at once expresses cutting edge debates on the archive in South Africa and internationally and pushes the boundaries of those debates It brings together prominent thinkers from a range of disciplines mainly South Africans but a number from other countries Traditionally archives have been seen as preserving memory and as holding the past The contributors to this book question this orthodoxy unfolding the ways in which archives construct sanctify and bury pasts In his contribution Jacques Derrida an instantly recognisable name in intellectual discourse worldwide shows how remembering can never be separated from forgetting and argues that the archive is about the future rather than the past Collectively the contributors demonstrate the degree to which thinking about archives is embracing new realities and new possibilities The book expresses a confidence in claiming for archival discourse previously unentered terrains It serves as an early manual for a time that has already begun

Historical Dictionary of Human Rights Jacques Fomerand, 2021-03-29 The second edition of Historical Dictionary of Human Rights explores both the theory and the practice of international human rights with a focus on the norms and institutions that make up the architecture of the global human rights regime and the tools processes and procedures through which such norms are realized and enforced Particular attention is given to the contextual political and sociological factors that shape and constrain the operation and functioning of international human rights institutions and their state and non state actors This is done through a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 1 000 cross referenced entries on terminology conventions treaties intergovernmental organizations in the United Nations and non governmental organizations as well as some of the pioneers and defenders This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about human rights Managing Internationally

Kamal Fatehi, 2008 Ideal for a course on international management for undergraduate business administration and MBA programs this textbook deals with the management of international business operations in the global market and discusses the basic managerial functions in an international enterprise In the Footsteps of the Masters Dickson

Mungazi, 2000-02-28 The height of colonial rule on the African continent saw two prominent religious leaders step to the fore Desmond Tutu in South Africa and Abel Muzorewa in Zimbabwe Both Tutu and Muzorewa believed that Africans could govern their own nations responsibly and effectively if only they were given the opportunity In expressing their religious views about the need for social justice each man borrowed from national traditions that had shaped policy of earlier church leaders Tutu and Muzorewa argued that the political development of Africans was essential to the security of the white settlers and that whites should seek the promotion of political development of Africans as a condition of that future security Desmond Tutu and Abel Muzorewa were both motivated by strong religious principles They disregarded the possible personal repercussions that they might suffer as a result of their efforts to alter the fundamental bases of their colonial governments Each man hoped to create a new national climate in which blacks and whites could cooperate to build a new nation Each played a part in eventual independence for Zimbabwe in 1980 and for South Africa in 1994 Mungazi s examination of their efforts reveals how individuals with strong convictions can make a difference in shaping the future of their nations

THE BEING LEADER SUJITH RAVINDRAN,2014-08-18 Following the modus operandi of renowned business leaders of the time Sujith Ravindran grew into various leadership positions within corporations and start ups across the globe After a decade and a half of successes he sunk into a spiritual crisis in his life That void led him to leave his corporate life in pursuit of self realization On a quest to find the qualities that made leaders legendary there he came across the inner path of the four legendary leaders portrayed in this book Dr Martin Luther King Nelson Mandela M K Gandhi and Abraham Lincoln From the lives of these Being Leaders Sujith discovered that it was not a set of skills or capabilities that made leaders legendary instead it was a certain inner state that made them so This book examines that inner state and traces the path that got the Being Leaders to that state The Being Leaders go beyond the Doing to master the realm of true Being This realm is one of great personal mastery and self authorship a very high level of self awareness and a life expressing their highest ideals each day This book is for those who long to embody the highest level of leadership in the organizational or societal realm
