ping and Olivia's sheepdog Goodwin agrees. Sure enough Hattie Dominick is nowhere to be found and there's ice cream melting on her porch. Now time is ticking away faster than the Rocky Road. The Police Chief's hands are tied and it seems like Olivia is the only person searching for this lost soul. Olivia will need to accept that she's born for this sleuthing thing because giving up on the hunt could mean giving up on ever finding Hattie. Without Missing a Bark Dog nappings are an owner's worst nightmare. When three rare, expensive and sought-after puppies go missing within a few days of each other, Olivia doesn't even need to be asked to take the case. Her clients are like family and she can't stand to see a family grieve over their missing canine members. But when the investigation leads her to a local jeweler's, Olivia reveals to her best friend that she's ready to make things official with Andrew. In her shock Jackie lets it slip that Andrew was thinking the same thing and has a new ring to prove it. Olivia decides to beat Andrew to the punch. How better to show her stellar level of commitment than proposing first? But the best blabbermouth seems to have tipped off Andrew too. Now they're playing a game of keep your friends close and your soon-to-be spouse closer, which Andrew cements by asking to come along on this case. But when the missing puppies lead to the murder of a well-known and well-hated romance advice columnist, Olivia and Andrew's feelings will be tested. Not just in the battle for the bridal win but in sifting through suspects who wanted to kill the author for ruining their love lives. Olivia and Andrew are in a rush to find who done it before the investigation does away with their engagement. How to

for young people's academic, social and emotional experiences and outcomes. In the face of a sustained decline in children's enjoyment in both reading and writing, this highly significant book presents findings from a three-year study of research and practice that nurtures young people's engagement as readers and writers. The book offers a rich understanding of the study, highlighting the commonalities and synergies identified from the research literature and diverse practice contexts. It introduces a new and powerful Reading and Writing Framework for Practice for schools and charitable literacy programmes. The authors offer practical strategies and recommendations throughout for practitioners, researchers and policy makers who wish to advance this agenda in their own contexts. Areas covered include: The nature of reading and writing for pleasure; Literate identities; Motivating readers and writers; Social interactions; Role models and connected communities; Future research practice and policy. This field-defining text is a key resource for all those committed to halting the decline in young people's engagement as volitional readers and writers.
