Stealing MySpace Julia Angwin, 2009-03-17 A few years ago MySpace.com was just an idea kicking around a Southern California spam mill Scroll down to the present day and MySpace is one of the most visited Internet destinations in America displaying more than 40 billion webpage views per month and generating nearly 1 billion annually for Rupert Murdoch's online empire Even by the standards of the Internet age the MySpace saga is an astounding growth story which climaxed with the site's acquisition by Murdoch's News Corporation in 2005 for a sum approaching one billion dollars But more than that it may be the defining drama of the digital era In Stealing MySpace Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Julia Angwin chronicles the rise of this Internet powerhouse With an unerring eye Angwin details how MySpace took the Internet by storm by grabbing the best ideas from around the Web encouraging pinup stars such as Tila Tequila to make their home on its pages and giving everyone freedom to experiment with online identities including using somebody else's identity Stealing MySpace introduces us to the site's founders Chris DeWolfe and Tom Anderson who dabbled in computer hacking online pornography spam and
