

A vibrant Cyber Monday promotional graphic. The background is a deep blue gradient. In the top left, there are three glowing circles in shades of blue and purple. A large, glowing yellow diamond shape is centered on the page. Inside the diamond, the words "CYBER" and "MONDAY" are written in large, bold, blue-outlined letters. A yellow rectangular box with rounded corners is positioned behind the text. In the bottom right corner, there is a yellow trapezoidal shape that looks like a discount tag, containing the text "DISC. UP TO 80% OFF". The tag has a 3D effect with a darker yellow shadow. Horizontal rows of small 'x' marks in blue and yellow are located at the top right and bottom left of the image.

A Cultural History of Shopping in the Modern Age Vicki Howard, 2022-06-02 A Cultural History of Shopping was a Library Journal Best in Reference selection for 2022 In the modern consumer age that emerged after the First World War shopping became a ubiquitous cultural practice Despite its apparent universality the historicity and contingency of shopping should not be ignored its meaning was always inextricably linked to the political material and economic contexts within which it took place Gendered female for the most part shopping continued to evoke different cultural responses embraced as liberatory by some condemned as frivolous by others Business decisions and public policies helped construct the frameworks within which new often American led shopping cultures emerged from downtown department stores to chain stores to suburban shopping malls The digital revolution in shopping that began in the last decade of the 20th century has changed the face of cities and towns and led to the closure of many bricks and mortar stores but as this volume explores the shopper remains very much at the center of Western capitalist societies A Cultural History of Shopping in the Modern Age presents an overview of the period with themes addressing practices and processes spaces and places shoppers and identities luxury and everyday home and family visual and literary representations reputation trust and credit and governance regulation and the state
