Gender from Latin to Romance Michele Loporcaro, 2018 This book explores grammatical gender in the Romance languages and dialects and its evolution from Latin Michele Loporcaro investigates the significant diversity found in the Romance varieties in this regard he draws on data from the Middle Ages to the present from all the Romance languages and dialects discussing examples from Romanian to Portuguese and crucially also focusing on less widely studied varieties such as Sursilvan Neapolitan and Asturian The investigation first reveals that several varieties display more complex systems than the binary masculine feminine contrast familiar from modern French or Italian Moreover it emerges that traditional accounts whereby neuter gender was lost in the spoken Latin of the late Empire cannot be correct instead the neuter gender underwent a range of different transformations from Late Latin onwards which are responsible for the different systems that can be observed today across the Romance languages The volume provides a detailed description of many of these systems which in turns reveals a wealth of fascinating data such as varieties where husbands are feminine and others where wives are masculine dialects in which nouns overtly mark gender but only in certain syntactic contexts and one Romance variety Asturian in which it appears that grammatical gender has split into two concurrent systems The volume will appeal to linguists from a range of backgrounds including Romance linguistics historical linguistics typology and morphosyntax and is also of relevance to those working in sociology gender studies and psychology

Convergence and divergence in Ibero-Romance across contact situations and beyond Miriam Bouzouita, Renata Enghels, Clara Vanderschueren, 2021-10-25 This book aims to provide a better understanding of convergence and non convergence phenomena such as divergence from different theoretical perspectives It brings together nine case studies that deal with contact between languages found in the Iberian Peninsula Castilian Catalan Portuguese and Basque between Spanish or Portuguese and another language such as English and between different varieties from Europe and other continents The volume thus unites views from two fields that rarely interact contact linguistics and dialectology It discusses the mechanisms and consequences of language contact within the Ibero Romance world a geographical space characterised by a high rate of multilingual speakers and settings The contributions deal with various combinations of convergence and divergence for example between different varieties of the same language language stability despite contact as well as less studied aspects such as the relation between language contact and second language acquisition the linguistic landscape perspective of language contact and divergence in linguistic identity construction

Congruence in Contact-Induced Language Change Juliane Besters-Dilger, Cynthia Dermarkar, Stefan Pfänder, Achim Rabus, 2014-01-31 Modern contact linguistics has primarily focused on contact between languages that are genetically unrelated and structurally distant This compendium of articles looks instead at the effects of pre existing structural congruency between the affected languages at the time of their initial contact using the Romance and Slavic languages as examples In contact of this kind both genetic and typological similarities play a part

Wine Me, Dine Me, Dance Me, Romance Me Gene Hewett Ph.D., 2002-10-01 Wine Me Dine Me Dance Me Romance Me reads like an evolving collage of romantic experiences framed in poetic style In many ways the collection represents an autobiographical sketch in romance It begins by providing snapshots of the authors early relationships evolves to romantic accounts as viewed through the eyes of a fictional son and concludes with romantic descriptions provided by that sons daughter The collection has a traditional table of contents a second one titled Musical Inspiration and a third titled Photographic Images The second table of contents illustrates the authors desire to match specific majority rhythm and blues songs such as Aint No Way to each poem In the short run the author envisions that the collection will be made available a in electronic form b as a paperback and c for hardcover distribution In addition owing to the musical theme the author anticipates that the collection can be presented in audio book form In the long run the author anticipates that it may be possible to package the collection in a stage production format complete with a speaker background music and Power Point images with optional dance choreography The third table of contents shows the authors ability to enhance the spirit and mood of each poem by linking them to a digital image obtained from the corbisimage com website The majority of the digital images were based upon floral themes such as Close Up View of a Pink Rose and landscape themes such as Wildflowers at Malibu Beach Several digital image selections such as Glass of Wine with Cork and Rosebuds departed from the floral landscape pattern in order to further highlight a unique mood
