A Collection of Nine Winning Favorites Lawrence Nissim, 2020-05-05 Mr Lawrence Nissim s writings focus on stressful situations in which young people find themselves in their homes in their neighborhoods and in their schools Readers may be able to identify with the characters who appear in each plot A first example rises in Befuddled the first of nine stories found in A Collection of Favorites Two high school friends have a disagreement at school They decide to meet after school at the nearby park to settle their differences At the park their discussion escalates to anger then to pushing each other Dominic is punched and falls backward smashing his head on a bench Dominic is unable to move Risky Excursion takes two twelve year olds on a bike riding adventure with some risk Mitch disobeys his mother and follows Carl to the shopping center then later finds himself in a police car A surprise ending follows In I Did It for You Todd's lunch recess at school began peacefully He simply wanted to join his friends in their daily basketball game But his practice shots were interrupted Looking across the active schoolyard he witnessed some behaviors that rekindled memories that caused him and his family much distress last summer He felt he had to cross the yard and get involved But was his decision wise The fifth story in A Collection of Favorites is Daughters Two eighth grade girls were longtime friends They were bored with their summer vacation so both of them decided to take a shopping excursion to their local mall But neither had any shopping money One of the girls felt mischievous and broke the law then encouraged her friend to copycat the behavior Their responses to each other affected a change in their relationship In David's Crisis David's parents are in a marital crisis and David thinks his father is abusing his mother Is it true or is David wrong What can a teen do about a situation such as this one Can the school help solve David and his parents issue In Fancy Jeena Jeena is being bullied in her new junior high school Four girls have been harassing her at school She tries to avoid them in the halls the cafeteria and the schoolyard One of the bullies pushes and hurts Jeena after class one day There are no witnesses to this incident What is the cause of the bullying Reader will discover at the end of each of the nine stories a short list of discussion items which will relate to the preceding presentation In the eighth of our nine stories The Eighth Grade Court Jamie's first days of sixth grade begin sadly and stressfully His dad had been killed recently in an auto accident Jamie now feels a huge emptiness every day They enjoyed close times together sharing thoughts and playing basketball An opportunity arises at school whereby Jamie is invited to play basketball with some eighth graders But the invitation leads Jamie on a questionable and scary course Mr Lawrence Nissim's ninth and final story in A Collection of Favorites is titled The Plan This tale seems appropriate for young players who participate in Little League baseball or softball Or any sport which welcomes parent participation A player's success often follows when families attend his or her games But often the actions of a significant family member will deter the development of the athlete Our main character was embarrassed by the behavior of his father during a game The player wanted to continue to play the game he loved but not with his father present Howie's plan had to be successful

Broadcasting ,1972-04 Re-Designing Youth Sport John McCarthy,Lou Bergholz,Megan Bartlett,2016-02-26 Many observers have pointed out what is wrong with youth sport an emphasis on winning at all costs parental over involvement high participation costs that exclude many families lack of vigorous physical activity lack of player engagement and no focus on development Currently most attempts at righting the wrongs of youth sport have focused on coach education and curriculum but in this book the authors offer a different approach one that involves changing the game itself Re Designing Youth Sport combines vivid examples and case studies of innovative sport programs who are re designing their sport with a comprehensive toolkit for practitioners on how to change their game for bigger and better outcomes It offers a fresh and exciting perspective on the seemingly intractable issues in sport It presents a practical and empowering pathway for readers to apply the examples and tools to the outcomes that they aspire to achieve in their sport such as increased fun and excitement life skills building gender inclusion increased sportspersonship greater parity and avoidance of one sided competition and positive parental roles The book also reveals how community leagues as well as national and international sport governing bodies are using re design to accelerate player skill development tactical awareness and physical fitness

New York Magazine ,1984-11-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
