Diasporic Encounters in German Social Drama: A Spatial Approach to Representations of the Turkish

Diaspora in German Television Films Emrah Yalcin, 2021-02-09 Contemporary television fictions allow the audience to experience the reality of everyday life in audio visual spaces Thus controversial issues discussed in German society such as homosexuality racism or clashes of cultures are revisited in the social drama films produced for German television through a mixture of generic conventions such as tragedy thriller and melodrama Consequently the audio visual representations of the people who are the focus of these discussions represent an interesting area of research The book deals with the audio visual spatiality of the Turkish diaspora in Berlin in three contemporary TV films in this format namely Wut Range dir Zuli Alada 2006 Die Neue The Newcomer dir Buket Alaku 2015 and Nachspielzeit Extra Time dir Andreas Pieper 2015 Therewith it brings a spatial approach to the issue of polemical belonging of the Turkish Diaspora to the German national space within the audio visual context The proposed spatial approach presents an alternative argument to the assumptions of German politicians who celebrate a common German history that bases on Christian Jewish identity democracy and enlightenment

Visualizing Film History Christian Olesen, 2025-01-07 Though many archival digital objects were not born digital film archives are now becoming important resources for digital scholarship as a consequence of digitization Moreover with advancements in digital research methods involving video annotation visual analysis and GIS affecting the way we look at archival films material stylistic histories and circulation new research practices are more important than ever Visualizing Film History is an accessible introduction to archive based digital scholarship in film and media studies and beyond With a combined focus on the history of film historiography archiving and recent digital scholarship covering a period from the first wave of film archiving in the early 1900s to recent data art this book proposes ways to work critically with digitized archives and research methods Christian Olesen encourages a shift towards new critical practices in the field with an in depth assessment of and critical approach to doing film historiography with the latest digital tools and digitized archives Olesen argues that if students scholars and archivists are to fully realize the potential of emerging digital tools and methodologies they must critically consider the roles that data analysis visualization interfaces and procedural human machinery interactions play in producing knowledge in current film historical research If we fail to do so we risk losing our ability to critically navigate and renew contemporary research practices and evaluate the results of digital scholarship

Shifting Subjectivities in Contemporary Fiction and Film from Spain Jennifer Brady, Meredith L. Jeffers, 2018-12-14 This collection of essays analyzes shifting notions of self as represented in films and novels written and produced in Spain in the twenty first century In doing so the anthology establishes an international dialogue of multicultural perspectives on trends in contemporary Spain and serves as a useful reference for scholars and students of Spanish literature and cinema The primary avenues of exploration include representations of recovery in post crisis Spain marginalized texts and identities silenced subjectivities intersecting relationships and spaces of desire and control The individual chapters focus on major events such as the global economic crisis the tension between majority and minority cultures within Spain and the ongoing repercussions of past trauma and historical memory In doing so they build upon theories of identity subjectivity gender history memory and normativity

Popular Cinemas in East Central Europe Dorota Ostrowska, Francesco Pitassio, Zsuzsanna Varga, 2017-06-30 The continued interest in the social and cultural life of the former Warsaw pact countries looking at but also beyond their socialist pasts encompasses a desire to know more about their national cinemas Yet despite the increasing consumption of films from these countries via DVD VOD platforms and other alternative channels there is a lack of comprehensive information on this key aspect of visual culture This important book rectifies the glaring gap and provides both a history and a contemporary

Virtuelle Techniken im industriellen Umfeld
Werner Schreiber, Peter Zimmermann, 2011-09-20 Das Buch behandelt den Einsatz Virtueller Technologien über den gesamten Lebenszyklus also von der Entstehung von Produkten bis zum End of Production EOP. Dargestellt werden die Konzepte zur Informationsbereitstellung im PLM Prozess Product Life Cycle Management Simulation und Rendering Lokalisation und Tracking sowie weitere Themen aus den Bereichen der Virtuellen und Erweiterten Realität. Das Buch beschreibt die Ergebnisse des AVILUS Projekts in dem die Anwendungen der genannten Technologien im Fokus stehen. Die Anwendungen werden an Hand von Demonstratoren in mehr als 40 verschiedenen Szenarien beschrieben und zeigen Potenziale zur Steigerung der Wirtschaftlichkeit und der Qualität in Industrie und in kleinen und mittleren Unternehmen auf. Mit Hilfe einer Webcam können 3D Informationen auf gekennzeichneten Buchseiten in das Magic Book geladen und auf einem Bildschirm dargestellt werden.

The Routledge Companion to European Cinema Gábor Gergely, Susan Hayward, 2021-12-29 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this wide ranging collection of 43 original chapters asks what European cinema tells us about Europe. The book engages with European cinema that attends to questions of European colonial racialized and gendered power seeks to decentre Europe itself not merely its putative centres and interrogate Europe's various conceptualizations from a variety of viewpoints. It explores the broad complex and heterogeneous communities produced in and by European films taking in Kurdish Hollywood and Singapore cinema as comfortably as the cinema of Poland Spanish colonial films or the European gangster genre. Chapters cover numerous topics including individual films film movements filmmakers stars scholarship representations and identities audiences production practices genres and more all analysed in their contexts so as to construct an image of Europe as it emerges from Europe's film corpus. The Companion opens the study of European cinema to a broad readership and is ideal for students and scholars in film European studies queer studies and cultural studies as well as historians with an interest in audio visual culture nationalism and transnationalism and those working in language based area studies.

Video Theory Andreas Treske, 2015-04-15 Video is a part of everyday life comparable to driving a car or taking a shower. It is nearly omnipresent available on demand and attached to nearly anything anywhere. Online Video became something vital and independent. With all the video created by the cameras around us constantly uploading sharing linking and relating a blue ocean is covering our planet an ocean of video. What might look as bluish noise and dust from the far outside might embed beautiful and fascinating living scapes of moving images objects constantly changing rearranging assembling evolving collapsing but never disappearing a real cinema. Andreas Treske describes and theorizes these objects formerly named video their forms behaviours and properties.

The Global Land Grab Annelies Zoomers, Mayke Kaag, 2014-02-13 The last two years have seen a huge amount of academic policy making and media interest in the increasingly contentious issue of land grabbing the large scale acquisition of land in the global South It is a phenomenon against which locals seem defenceless and one about which multilateral organizations such as the World Bank as well as civil society organizations and action NGOs have become increasingly vocal This in depth and empirically diverse volume taking in case studies from across Africa Asia and Latin America takes a step back from the hype to explore a number of key questions Does the global land grab actually exist If so what is new about it And what beyond the immediately visible dynamics and practices are the real problems A comprehensive and much needed intervention on one of the most hotly contested but little understood issues facing countries

Frank,2017-06-14 This study investigates the overlaps between political discourse and literary and cinematic fiction arguing that both are informed by and contribute to the cultural imaginary of terrorism Whenever mass mediated acts of terrorism occur they tend to trigger a proliferation of threat

scenarios not only in the realm of literature and film but also in the statements of policymakers security experts and journalists In the process the discursive boundary between the factual and the speculative can become difficult to discern To elucidate this phenomenon this book proposes that terror is a halfway house between the real and the imaginary For what characterizes terrorism is less the single act of violence than it is the fact that this act is perceived to be the beginning or part of a potential series and that further acts are expected to occur As turn of the century writers such as Stevenson and Conrad were the first to point out this gives terror a fantastical dimension a fact reinforced by the clandestine nature of both terrorist and counter terrorist operations Supported by contextual readings of selected texts and films from The Dynamiter and The Secret Agent through late Victorian science fiction to post 9 11 novels and cinema this study explores the complex interplay between actual incidents of political violence the surrounding discourse and fictional engagement with the issue to show how terrorism becomes an object of fantasy Drawing on research from a variety of disciplines The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism will be a valuable resource for those with interests in the areas of Literature and Film Terrorism Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Trauma Studies and Cultural Studies
