Management Innovations for Healthcare Organizations Anders Örtengren, Carina Abrahamson Löfström, Rod Sheaff, 2015-11-19 Innovations in management are becoming more numerous and diverse and are appearing in organizations providing many different kinds of products and services The purpose of this book is to examine whether some widely promoted examples of these management innovations ranging from techniques such as Kaizen to styles of leadership and the management of learning can usefully be applied to organizations which provide healthcare and applied in different kinds of health systems Management Innovations for Healthcare Organizations is distinctive in selecting a wide and diverse range and selection of managerial innovations to examine No less distinctively it makes an adaptive critical scrutiny of these innovations Neither evangelist nor nihilist the book instead considers how these innovations might be adapted for the specific task of providing healthcare Where evidence on these points is available the book outlines that too Consequently the book takes an international approach with contributions from Europe the Middle East Australia and North America Each contributor is an expert in the management innovation which they present This combination of features makes the book unique I'm the Principal Stephen Dinham, Kerry Elliott, Helen Stokes, Louisa Rennie, 2018-08-01 While an immensely rewarding role the work of a school principal can be a lonely one made up of brief encounters and regular interruptions steep in responsibilities and accountabilities and free from accolades Research shows that principals often feel there is nothing that really prepares them for assuming full and ongoing responsibility for a school The I'm the Principal project utilised the Australian Professional Standard for Principals as a framework to consider key aspects and contributors to principal learning action influence and identity through interviews with 50 practicing principals drawn from the various sectors and levels of Australian school education I'm the Principal is a record of the study of the work of the principal today containing personal first hand comments experiences values beliefs and concerns It speaks to the successes and the challenges of the role I'm the Principal is a timely and thoughtful must read for anyone wanting to explore and understand the value and worth of a school

Supervision Jeffrey Glanz, Sally J. Zepeda, 2015-10-30 Supervision New Perspectives for Theory and Practice co edited by two prominent scholars in the field Jeffrey Glanz and Sally Zepeda draws attention to supervision as a function that is often misunderstood under appreciated and frequently controversial Much has changed in the last two decades in the education world These changes have inevitably influenced the theory and practice of supervision This text includes some of the top scholars in the field in the USA to offer their insights to important topics and issues in supervision To strike a balance the editors also included award winning practitioners who share their insights about supervision We hope that this volume raises awareness to several critical issues that affect teachers administrators and policy makers With the range of topics associated with supervision we believe that the authors offer an informed and lively discussion of supervision in the present and future contexts of schools Through our efforts we believe that the multiple contexts in which supervision unfolds are examined alongside trends including high stakes testing the uses of data the work superintendents do to supervise principals and the type of supervision that builds a just and caring school culture that is culturally relevant and respectful for teachers and leaders

Knowledge Management for School Education Eric C. K. Cheng, 2014-10-15 This book introduces the application of knowledge management KM theories practices and tools in school organization for sustainable development Schools in Asia Pacific have long faced a variety of challenges in terms of sustainable development under the education reforms and curriculum reforms to meet the demands of a knowledge society Schools are inevitably expected to develop human capital for the knowledge society within the competitive global economy and to interact with its policy environment and know how to leverage pedagogical knowledge The high speed of expansion change and expansion of knowledge have dramatically influence the development of flexibility of teacher and school works The nature of teacher work becomes increasingly less routine more analytical and disruptive yet often come with a sense of urgency and need to be more collaborative Teachers not only require data and information but also knowledge and experience of individual they also need to collaborative task execution decision making and problem solving Helping school
