The Historical Muhammad Irving M. Zeitlin, 2013-04-25 In his quest for the historical Muhammad Zeitlin's chief aim is to catch glimpses of the birth of Islam and the role played by its extraordinary founder Islam as its Prophet came to conceive it was a strict and absolute monotheism How Muhammad had arrived at this view is not a problem for Muslims who believe that the Prophet received a revelation from Allah or God mediated by the Angel Gabriel For scholars however interested in placing Muhammad in the historical context of the seventh century Arabian Peninsula the source of the Prophet's inspiration is a significant question It is apparent that the two earlier monotheisms Judaism and Christianity constituted an influential presence in the Hijaz the region comprising Mecca and Medina Indeed Jewish communities were salient here especially in Medina and other not too distant oases Moreover in addition to the presence of Jews and Christians there existed a third category of individuals the Hanifs who dissatisfied with their polytheistic beliefs had developed monotheistic ideas Zeitlin assesses the extent to which these various influences shaped the emergence of Islam and the development of the Prophets beliefs He also seeks to understand how the process set in motion by Muhammad led not long after his death to the establishment of a world empire
