Mother Reader Essential Writings On Motherhood:

Mother Reader Moyra Davey, 2001-05-01 The intersection of motherhood and creative life is explored in these writings on mothering that turn the spotlight from the child to the mother herself Here in memoirs testimonials diaries essays and fiction mothers describe first hand the changes brought to their lives by pregnancy childbirth and mothering Many of the writers articulate difficult and socially unsanctioned maternal anger and ambivalence In Mother Reader motherhood is scrutinized for all its painful and illuminating subtleties and addressed with unconventional wisdom and candor What emerges is a sense of a community of writers speaking to and about each other out of a common experience and a compilation of extraordinary literature never before assembled in a single volume Mother Reader Moyra

Davey, 2011-01-04 The intersection of motherhood and creative life is explored in these writings on mothering that turn the spotlight from the child to the mother herself Here in memoirs testimonials diaries essays and fiction mothers describe first hand the changes brought to their lives by pregnancy childbirth and mothering Many of the writers articulate difficult and socially unsanctioned maternal anger and ambivalence In Mother Reader motherhood is scrutinized for all its painful and illuminating subtleties and addressed with unconventional wisdom and candor What emerges is a sense of a community of writers speaking to and about each other out of a common experience and a compilation of extraordinary literature never before assembled in a single volume Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer, 2011-03-15 If questions of subjectivity and identification are at stake in all biographical writing they are particularly trenchant for contemporary women biographers of women Often their efforts to exhume buried lives in hope of finding spiritual foremothers awaken maternal phantoms that must be embraced or confronted Do women writing in fact have any greater access to their own mothers lives than to the lives of other women whose stories have been swept away like dust in the debris of the past In Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer surveys modern women s biographies and contemplates alternatives to an approach based in lineage and the form of thought that emphasizes the line the path hierarchy unity resemblance reflection and the aesthetic mimesis that depends on these ideas Through close readings of memoirs and fictions about mothers Beizer explores how biographers of the women who came before rehearse and rewrite relationships to their own mothers biographically as they seek to appropriate the past in a hybrid genre she calls bio autobiography Thinking through the Mothers features the work of George Sand and Colette and spans such varied figures as Gustave Flaubert Julian Barnes Louise Colet Eunice Lipton Vladimir Nabokov Huguette Bouchardeau and Christa Wolf Beizer seeks an alternative to women s salvation biography or resurrection biography that might resist nostalgia be attentive to silence and reinvent the means to represent the lives of precursors without appropriating traditional models of genealogy Mothers, Mothering and Motherhood Across

Imagining Motherhood in the Twenty-First Century Valerie Heffernan, Gay Wilgus, 2020-12-17 Images representations and constructions of mothers have historically shaped and continue to shape the way we imagine the institution of motherhood and the experience of mothering The various contributions included in this volume consider the diversity of maternal images and narratives that circulate in literature the arts and popular culture and analyse how they reflect on and influence the cultural meaning of motherhood in the contemporary era Mindful of the fact that the images of motherhood that we see in popular media on television and in literature are not mere background noise to our daily lives the various chapters explore how they influence our understanding of what it means to be a mother affect our expectations of motherhood and of mothers frame our experience of mothering and even inform our reproductive decisions Including insights from media studies cultural studies literary studies and the performing and visual arts this book explores how engaging with diverse representations of mothers and mothering contributes to a broader and deeper interdisciplinary understanding of how motherhood is constructed in our time The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Women A Cultural Review

Mothers in Children's and Young Adult Literature Lisa Rowe Fraustino, Karen Coats, 2016-05-05 Winner of the Children's Literature Association's 2018 Edited Book Award Contributions by Robin Calland Lauren Causey Karen Coats Sara K Day Lisa Rowe Fraustino Dorina K Lazo Gilmore Anna Katrina Gutierrez Adrienne Kertzer Kouen Kim Alexandra Kotanko Jennifer Mitchell Mary Jeanette Moran Julie Pfeiffer and Donelle Ruwe Living or dead present or absent sadly dysfunctional or merrily adequate the figure of the mother bears enormous freight across a child's emotional and intellectual life Given the vital role literary mothers play in books for young readers it is remarkable how little scholarly attention has been paid to the representation of mothers outside of fairy tales and beyond studies of gender stereotypes This collection of thirteen essays begins to fill a critical gap by bringing together a range of theoretical perspectives by a rich mix of senior scholars and new voices Following an introduction in which the coeditors describe key trends in interdisciplinary scholarship the book's first section focuses on the pedagogical roots of maternal influence in early children's literature The next section explores the shifting cultural perspectives and subjectivities of the twentieth century The third section examines the interplay of fantasy reality and the ethical dimensions of literary mothers

The collection ends with readings of postfeminist motherhood from contemporary realism to dystopian fantasy The range of critical approaches in this volume will provide multiple inroads for scholars to investigate richer readings of mothers in children s and young adult literature Ruth Asawa and the Artist-Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller,2025-07-01 How a group of artist mothers in postwar San Francisco refused the centuries old belief that a woman could not make art while also raising children For most of modern history to be an artist and a mother was to embody a contradiction in terms This awful dichotomy as painter Alice Neel put it pitted artmaking against caretaking and argued that the best art was made at the expense of family and futurity But in San Francisco in the 1950s and 1960s a group of artists gathered around Ruth Asawa 1926 2013 began to reject this dominant narrative In Ruth Asawa and the Artist Mother at Midcentury Jordan Troeller analyzes this remarkable moment Insisting that their labor as mothers fueled their labor as artists these women redefined key aesthetic concerns of their era including autonomy medium specificity and originality Delving into the archive where the traces of motherhood have not yet been erased from official history Troeller reveals Ruth Asawa s personal and professional dialogue with several other artist mothers including Merry Renk Imogen Cunningham and Sally Woodbridge For these women motherhood was not an essentialized identity but rather a means to reimagine the terms of artmaking outside of the patriarchal policing of reproduction This project unfolded in three broad areas which also structure the book s chapters domesticity and decoration metaphors for creativity and maternal labor in the public sphere especially in the public schools Drawing on queer theory and feminist writings Troeller argues that in belatedly accounting for the figure of the artist mother art history must reckon with an emergent paradigm of artmaking one predicated on reciprocity caretaking and futurity

Inappropriate Bodies Art, Design and Maternity Buller Rachel Epp,2019-09-01 This edited collection examines conflicting assumptions expectations and perceptions of maternity in artistic cultural and institutional contexts Over the past two decades the maternal body has gained currency in popular culture and the contemporary art world with many books and exhibitions foregrounding artists experiences and art historical explorations of maternity that previously were marginalized or dismissed In too many instances however the maternal potential of female bodies whether realized or not still causes them to be stigmatized censored or otherwise treated as inappropriate cultural expectations of maternity create one set of prejudices against women whose bodies or experiences do align with those same expectations and another set of prejudices against those whose do not Support for mothers in the paid workforce remains woefully inadequate yet in many cultural contexts social norms continue to ask what is wrong with women who do not have children In these essays and conversations artists and writers discuss how maternal expectations shape both creative work and designed environments and highlight alternative ways of existing in relation to those expectations

Performing Parenthood Heather Jerónimo,2024-07-05 Performing Parenthood reveals different enactments of motherhood and fatherhood in twentieth and twenty first century Spain showing how the family has adapted or at times failed to do so within the context of Spain's changing socioeconomic reality Through an examination of examples of non normative parenthood in contemporary Spanish literature and film including gay literary father figures subversive physical touch between mother and child fathers who cross dress lesbian maternal community building non biological parenting and disabled bodies the book argues that current conceptualizations of parenthood should be amplified to reflect the various existing identities and performances of motherhoods and fatherhoods Connecting canonical works to recent works the book establishes a unique dialogue that will expand the conversation about the Spanish family beyond the traditional view bringing visibility to alternative family models It argues that parental identities exist on a spectrum enabling many parental figures to disregard heteronormative standards imposed upon the role and allowing them to experience parenthood in meaningful ways Bringing visibility to literary and cinematic examples of alternative Spanish families Performing Parenthood provides a glimpse into an evolving society influenced by national and global changes

The Baby on the Fire Escape Julie Phillips, 2022-04-26 An insightful provocative and witty exploration of the relationship between motherhood and art for anyone who is a mother wants to be or has ever had one What does a great artist who is also a mother look like What does it mean to create not in a room of one's own but in a domestic space In The Baby on the Fire Escape award winning biographer Julie Phillips traverses the shifting terrain where motherhood and creativity converge With fierce empathy Phillips evokes the intimate and varied struggles of brilliant artists and writers of the twentieth century Ursula K Le Guin found productive stability in family life and Audre Lorde's queer polyamorous union allowed her to raise children on her own terms Susan Sontag became a mother at nineteen Angela Carter at forty three These mothers had one child or five or seven They worked in a studio in the kitchen in the car on the bed at a desk with a baby carrier beside them They faced judgement for pursuing their creative work Doris Lessing was said to have abandoned her children and Alice Neel's in-laws falsely claimed that she once to finish a painting left her baby on the fire escape of her New York apartment As she threads together vivid portraits of these pathbreaking women Phillips argues that creative motherhood is a question of keeping the baby on that apocryphal fire escape work and care held in a constantly renegotiated provisional productive tension A meditation on maternal identity and artistic greatness The Baby on the Fire Escape illuminates some of the most pressing conflicts in contemporary life

Beat Myths in Literature Estíbaliz Encarnación-Pinedo, 2023-09-22 Beat Myths in Literature reassesses the work of women poets associated with the Beat Generation from the critical lens of revisionist discourses Using the metaphor and the critical lens of looking back an act infused with feminist implications after Adrienne Rich 1972 the volume focuses on poetry fiction and autobiographical writing to analyze the different ways in which Beat women used revisionist discourses to refashion the Beat Generation and establish themselves as literary and artistic subjects Offering the first comprehensive study of the use of mythology in the Beat Generation Beat Myths in Literature Revisionist Strategies in Beat Women focuses on the specific re-writing or revisioning of mythical texts As such it studies the ways in which Beat poets incorporate mythology into their works both through the feminist reinvention or appropriation of ancient myths but also by debunking more contemporary myths used to contain women in particular social and artistic roles Furthermore this volume expands Rich's notion of revision considering memoirs and autobiographies as factual and fictional re-interpretations of history Seen through the eyes of revisionist studies and the poets' investment in personal myth the book establishes new points of entrance into works that
