Motherline Every Woman's Journey Female:

The Motherline Naomi Ruth Lowinsky, 2009 Originally published Los Angeles J P Tarcher 1992 under the title Stories from the motherline Essential Love Ginny Lowe Connors, 2000 In this inspiring collection of vibrant poems contemporary American poets speak out on a universal theme the unbreakable bond shared by parents and their children With kindness nostalgia forgiveness and love poets recall their parents Book jacket In Search of Susanna Suzanne L. Bunkers, 1996 On a summer day in 1980 in Niederfeulen Luxembourg Suzanne Bunkers pored over parish records of her maternal ancestors immigrants to the rural American Midwest in the mid 1800s Suddenly chance led her to the name Simmerl and to the missing piece in the genealogical puzzle that had brought her so far Susanna Simmerl Bunkers paternal great great grandmother who had given birth to an illegitimate daughter in 1856 before coming to America Finding Susanna was the catalyst for Bunkers intensely personal book which blends history memory and imagination into a drama of two women's lives within their multigenerational family Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy Sea Glass Gilda Frantz, 2014-10-18 Sea Glass A Jungian Analyst's Exploration of Suffering and Individuation explores experiences many of us encounter in the course of a lifetime including those of early childhood As we mature we can begin to become aware that suffering when made conscious can lead us on a path toward higher consciousness toward the experience of wholeness or individuation The examples related in this book are told as a storyteller might and include the all too human experiences of loneliness loss shame abandonment aging disenfranchisement working with dreams dealing with the opposites striving to find one's creativity and relationship issues Now in her mid eighties Gilda Frantz's shares with us what she has learned from life and from being a Jungian analyst She has written a feeling intuitive wise woman's shorter version of her own Memories Dreams Reflections Personal insights links essays on subjects drawn from her life and work there is poignancy and an affirmation of indomitable spirit in her musings She knows first hand about difficult childhoods early widowhood aging death of a beloved grandchild and closeness to the end of life She knows about suffering and the creativity and soul growth that can go hand in hand These are themes in her own life and in her observations of others Sea Glass is an apt metaphor for this book to discover why requires reading it Jean Shinoda Bolen M D author of Goddesses in Everywoman Goddesses in Older Women and Close to the Bone You could be listening to the storyteller by the fire or to your favorite aunt at the kitchen table the one who always makes you laugh so vital and engaging is the narrative voice in Sea Glass. In fact you are reading the gathered writings of Gilda Frantz a beloved Jungian elder in the classical tradition. Frantz is on intimate terms with the gods and their myths. She has personal experience of alchemy, individuation, dreams and the creative process all of which she describes in accessible and lively language. Sea Glass sparkles with gems including Frantz's interview with the film director Fellini and her amplification of the story of Pinocchio. Like the sea glass for which she names her book, Frantz has had a difficult life, been thrown about on waves of fortune, battered on the rocks of childhood poverty, parental divorce, early widowhood and the death of a son and granddaughter. Her wit and wisdom has been polished to a fine glow. She is eloquent in her reflections on the meaning of suffering. Sea Glass is most luminous when addressing the toughest topics: loneliness, grief, abandonment, aging and death. It is a comfort and an inspiration, strong medicine for the soul.

Field, Form, and Fate Michael Conforti, 2019-11-28

C. G. Jung emphasized the deep link to the physical world that exists for the collective unconscious and its archetypes. Our dreams and symbols as well as the patterns of our behavior are shaped by the fact that we are creatures of a material universe. Michael Conforti's research has been directed to understanding the nature of these links and patterns in the light of the new sciences: quantum theory, chaos theory, self-organization and the new biology. Conforti's book successfully integrates this material to offer a new exciting challenge to psychotherapy. It demonstrates that the study of consciousness cannot neglect the insights of the sciences and in doing so promises a unified view of mind and matter.

The Dream: The Vision of the Night Max Zeller, 2015-06-01

A classic in the field of dream analysis, The Dream: The Vision of the Night is a collection of essays, lectures and vignettes by Max Zeller whose career included a law degree, a brief imprisonment in a Nazi Concentration Camp, study at the Jung Institute in Zurich, Switzerland and thirty years of in-depth work as a Jungian analyst. In the eighteen pieces of this collection, Zeller intersperses theoretical writings, compassionate and incisive case studies and powerful, almost haiku-like reminiscences of certain incidences in his life from his meetings with C. G. Jung to his impressions of life in pre-war Nazi Germany. The Dream: The Vision of the Night is the best example of amplification of Jungian principles that can be found. Neither pure research nor pure memoir, the collection is an affective combination of both and as such best portrays the spirit of its author: always restless and searching, always compassionate and open-minded and above all, always fascinated by the mystery and power of our dreams.

When the Pixies Come Out to Play Lois Carey, 2014-03

A collection of essays and articles written over a 30-year span by a seasoned sandplay therapist, When Pixies Come Out to Play: A Play Therapy Primer is the work of a true master of the craft of sandplay therapy, informed by Jungian theory and the pioneering work of Dora Kallf with whom Lois Carey studied. Woven into the exquisite tapestry of this lovely book is history and theory of the method, rich case material told in a warm and moving voice which reflects the extraordinary empathy of this remarkable sandplay and play therapist. A wealth of information packed into a highly readable book that just like the author herself will

The Water of Life David Hart, 2013-06-14 The intensive study of Jungian psychology was amplified by another subject taught continuously while I was a student at the Jung Institute in Zurich Switzerland the psychology of fairy tales The study of fairy tales was the specialty of a fairly young single woman Dr Marie Louise von Franz She lectured to us English speaking students in well spoken English and the conviction and power of her voice made me feel how deep and meaningful these stories were to her Not only that I myself was immediately deeply affected by the convincing spiritual reality that was being presented to me in the stories themselves It was as if the reality of life came out here in a wholly new form untouched by the standard accepted form of common life What most struck me I think now was the following realization here in this story is a completely insoluble problem I want to follow it all the way through and to my surprise finally feel that this problem has been solved This outcome has been both essential and unbelievable to me As one who felt that life posed just such an insoluble problem I found the typical fairy tale both impossible and incredible I found in fairy tales a healing presence and possibility for the terror of my own early life This is the unexpressed feeling that kept me fastened on the totally unexpected subject of fairy tales Marked by Fire Patricia Damery, Naomi Ruth Lowinsky, 2012 This life is the way the long sought after way to the unfathomable which we call divine The Red Book Marked by Fire Stories of the Jungian Way is a collection that includes and illuminates the inner life When Soul appeared to C G Jung and demanded he change his life he opened himself to the powerful forces of the unconscious He recorded his inner journey his conversations with figures that appeared to him in vision and in dream in The Red Book Although it would be years before The Red Book was published much of what we now know as Jungian psychology began in those pages when Jung allowed the irrational to assault him That was a century ago How do those of us who dedicate ourselves to Jung's psychology as analysts teachers writers respond to Soul's demands in our own lives If we believe with Jung in the reality of the psyche how does that shape us The articles in Marked By Fire portray direct experiences of the unconscious they tell life stories about the fiery process of becoming ourselves Contributors to this edition of the Fisher King Review include Jerome Bernstein Claire Douglas Gilda Frantz Jacqueline Gerson Jean Kirsch Chie Lee Karlyn Ward Henry Abramovitch Sharon Heath Dennis Patrick Slatterly Robert Romanyshyn Patricia Damery and Naomi Ruth Lowinsky The Politics of Belonging in Contemporary India Kaustav Chakraborty, 2019-07-02 This volume looks at the emerging forms of intimacies in contemporary India Drawing on rigorous academic research and pop culture phenomena the volume Brings together themes of nationhood motherhood disability masculinity ethnicity kinship and sexuality and attempts to understand them within a more complex web of issues related to space social justice marginality and communication Focuses on the struggles for intimacy by the disabled queer Dalit and other subalterns as well as people with non human intimacies to propose an alternative theory of the politics of belonging Explores the role of social and new media in understanding and negotiating intimacies and anxieties Comprehensive and thought provoking this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of political studies sociology sexuality and gender studies women's studies cultural studies and minority studies

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Carl Gustav Jung: Side by Side Fred Gustafson, 2015-03-21 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and C G Jung Side by Side is an anthology written by authors from different backgrounds sharing how the lives of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Carl Gustav Jung impacted them personally and or how they understand the relevance of these two men for our present times Contributors to this fourth volume of the Fisher King Review include John Dourley Peter Dunlap Barbara Faris Fred R Gustafson John Giannini Richard W Hanhardt Robert Henderson Steven B Herrmann Jane A Kelley Jon Magnuson Francisco Paco Martorell Stan V McDaniel Dennis L Merritt and Laura A Weber Though C G Jung and

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin never met their independent intellectual inquiries and courageous researches pushed the personal and collective soul forward and placed both of them at the foreground of needing to understand and integrate on a planetary level the core values of their expansive work Both Jung and de Chardin were concerned with science and religion and operated within these paradigms Both of them shook the world by offering up views on one hand of the profound depths of the human psyche and on the other presenting a profound re consideration of evolution as a process leading toward a social unification of the planet One used the concept of individuation the other spoke of evolution Each took these concepts to a creative depth so much so that the world they lived in either deeply admired or detested them Both had conflicts in their chosen fields Jung was a psychologist who used the field of science to explore the religious depths of the human soul by studying mythology world religions folk tales dreams and human behavior Chardin used the ground of religion to work in the field of science via paleontology geology and physics as he explored a deeper and relevant understanding of evolution Though each began from different intellectual platforms they each crisscrossed into the other s territory of inquiry and related their ideas to include the full scope of humanity One went deeply into soul and found matter whereas the other went deeply into matter and found soul In their own ways both spent their careers trying to heal the split between spirit and matter in the weltanschauung of their times reflected in the human psyche and in the general religious views permeating most of Western culture

Lowinsky, 2016-11-01 A sanctuary for the soul In The Rabbi the Goddess and Jung Naomi Ruth Lowinsky shows us how to create a sacred space by cultivating one s inner life Admitting that this is not an easy practice in our hectic fearful times she demonstrates how the word from within orients whether it comes as gift or disturbance guest or ghost riddle or revelation It may force a confrontation with one s worst fears It may visit in nightmare images such as the enormous spider with hairy legs and eight baleful eyes that appeared in a dream come to warn it would seem of the perils facing human nature and Mother Nature It is essential especially in difficult times to make space for what the Kabbalah calls the beyond that lies within the still small voice of the Self the long view of the wisdom traditions In this collection of poetic visionary essays Lowinsky tells stories of the Lady Tree who showed up when she was six and has wandered in and out of her life revealing her Goddess nature Active imagination enables her to work out unfinished business with ancestors including her father and Jung Dreams introduce her to her spirit guides and to a dancing rabbi who insists she study Kabbalah And that scary spider turns out to be Grandmother Spider a creator goddess who has the power if we recognize Her to help us reweave our relationship with earth

Uncovering the Act of Maternal Infanticide from a Psychological, Political, and Jungian Perspective Brooke Laufer, 2024-07-02 Using a wide range of disciplinary backgrounds Laufer examines the topic of maternal infanticide through the lens of Jungian theory and presents an integrated and forensic view of this issue as an aggregate of personal and political moments and as a feminine and feminist outcry urging human evolution The first part of the book will dissect the identity of the infanticidal mother and the Death Mother archetype with the author providing firsthand accounts of patients that she has worked with in her professional career The second part of the book focuses on interpreting that act of maternal infanticide and these chapters will look to the construct of patriarchal Motherhood as a way of explaining the drive and actions of an infanticidal mother The third and final section of the book takes the concept of evolution and transmutation a step further and addresses what is required in our modern state for the event of maternal infanticide This is an important new book for Jungian and analytic clinicians and scholars with an interest in maternal archetypes as well as psychologists and psychiatrists who specialize in perinatal mental health It would also be appropriate for forensic psychologists and legal analysts and academics and clinicians in the fields of women's health and studies

Representing Latina/x Reproductive Decision-Making Melissa Huerta, 2022-08-16 Representing Latina x Reproductive Decision Making examines representations of reproductive decisions in cultural texts and engages with scholarship on Latina x representation to interrogate what these representations mean for Latinx popular culture Melissa Huerta demonstrates that cultural texts ranging from the work of Teatro Luna and television series like Jane the Virgin and Vida to the film Quincea era and Favianna Rodriguez's artwork can challenge traditional notions of Latina x reproductive decisions pointing to more inclusive understandings of people's experiences Huerta argues for the importance of cultural representation in theater television film and art and analyzes the roles language and images play in shaping meaning This book will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies gender studies Latin American studies and film and media studies

The Guilt Cure Nancy Carter Pennington, Lawrence H. Staples, 2011-09-21 The Guilt Cure addresses spiritual and psychological means to treat and expiate guilt and its neurotic counterparts One of the great paradoxes of guilt is that despite its useful contributions to our lives it can also be potentially dangerous It is a major cause of anxiety and depression and if untreated or expiated in some way guilt can be deadly This seminal body of work about the psychological implications of guilt reaches deep into humanity's collective experience of guilt and finds persuasive psychological reasons for guilt's role and purpose that go far beyond conventionally held religious explanations The conventional view is that guilt's primary function is the protection and maintenance of morals While guilt admittedly contributes to the protection and maintenance of morals this is by no means its only role Nor is it even its most important role Guilt is complicated and paradoxical It serves the psyche and life itself in a number of ways beyond its role in the protection of conventional morality The Guilt Cure examines the many faces of guilt including its more important function in the creation and maintenance of consciousness its place in the self-regulatory system of the psyche its effects on our psychological development and its impact on our mental health and wellbeing
