Quality in Early Childhood Education and Care through Leadership and Organizational Learning Line Skov Hansen, Charlotte Ringsmose, 2023-10-19 This book provides insights in to how high quality learning environments in Early Childhood Education and Care ECEC develop and how competent systems can support this It builds on the knowledge that quality early environments shape the wellbeing and development of the child and explores how communities of professional practice that support quality development are built Acknowledging that the conditions for providing high quality pedagogical work depend not only on the individual teacher but also on collaboration and organizational and professional development The book draws on a range of theoretical frameworks and research that underline competent systems rather than individualized learning as a path to improve workforce quality and professionalization in the field of ECEC

Leadership in Early Childhood Education Joce Nuttall, Linda Henderson, Elizabeth Wood, Jenny Martin, 2024-06-12 The book presents a conceptual framework for understanding leadership for effective educator learning in early childhood settings. The book describes how leaders can move centre practices from crisis to stabilization. It argues that a core component of leaders' work in early childhood settings is to construct and enact epistemological accounts of practice change. The book includes case examples that bring to life the contexts, early childhood services and services leaders who participated in the research. The book also describes the application of cultural historical activity theory to the development of practice in early childhood education. It describes how background theory, literature and data can be synthesized to create new focal theory in education. Readers will benefit from the theory that is presented, establishing a sound basis for testing in future research in schools as well as in early childhood education. Joce Nuttall and team are congratulated for their ground-breaking scholarly endeavour in designing, implementing, validating findings and then writing a book that unambiguously connects theory, policy, practice in enacting leadership in early childhood settings. This book is ambitious, eloquent and inspirational. The research was driven by a bold vision to build a new theorisation of early childhood leadership. The writing style of the book makes the complex clear and easy to digest and thereby strengthens its readability and understanding. The comparative lens adopted in the study underscores the neoliberal control of the working lives of early childhood leaders in both Australia and England. The use of case study narratives to explain various aspects, including the study design and methodology, was refreshingly engaging. Notes of encouragement addressed to novice researchers such as those embarking on higher degree studies also provide apt guidance about the messiness of conducting qualitative research. The book is infused with lots of examples demonstrating the transformative power of learning, especially when expertly scaffolded by the research team and thereby increasing practitioner agency and quality improvement across the early childhood setting. If professional autonomy is the driver of reform and change, then we must find ways to nurture strong educational leaders who can think outside the box. Overall, Nuttall and team succeed in arousing learning-rich possibilities for reimagining early childhood leadership in theory and in practice and thereby making a magnificent contribution to the scholarship of educational leadership. Professor Manjula Waniganayake PhD, Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia.

Pedagogical Leadership in Early Childhood Education Mona Sakr, June O'Sullivan, 2022-06-30 Pedagogical leadership views leadership as something separate from formal authority or qualifications, seeing educators' understanding, interpretation and passion as the key lever for continuous improvement in early childhood education (ECE). This book shows how effective pedagogical leadership can create the right conditions for quality ECE provision to increase motivation and engagement among staff and impact positively on staff recruitment and retention. Written by a team of international experts based in Australia, Azerbaijan, Estonia, Greece, Finland, Norway, Sweden, the UK and the USA, this book explores pedagogical leadership in ECE in depth and through an international lens. The chapters address questions including: what is pedagogic leadership? what does it look like?

what impact can pedagogic leadership have on the everyday work of nurseries and other ECE providers The contributors cover a range of topics including trauma responsive pedagogy child initiated pedagogies conflict management change management theory and social leadership theory
