Motesuke Vol 1english Version:

International Crimes: Law and Practice Guénaél Mettraux, 2020-05-27 Judge Mettraux's four volume compendium International Crimes Law and Practice will provide the most detailed and authoritative account to date of the law of international crimes. It is a scholarly tour de force providing a unique blend of academic rigour and an insight into the practice of international criminal law. The compendium is unrivalled in its breadth and depth, covering almost a century of legal practice, dozens of jurisdictions, national and international, thousands of decisions and judgments, and hundreds of cases. This second volume discusses in detail crimes against humanity.

Kings in All But Name Thomas D. Conlan, 2024 Kings in All but Name illustrates how Japan was an ethnically diverse state from the fourteenth through the sixteenth centuries, closely bound by trading ties to Korea and China. It reveals new archaeological and textual evidence proving that East Asia had integrated trading networks long before the arrival of European explorers and shows how mining techniques improved and propelled East Asian trade. The story of the Ouchi rulers contradicts the belief that this was a period of warfare and turmoil in Japan and instead proves that this was a stable and prosperous trading state where rituals, policies, politics, and economics were interwoven and diverse.

Military Necessity Nobuo Hayashi, 2020-03-26 What does it mean to say that international humanitarian law (IHL) strikes a realistic and meaningful balance between military necessity and humanity and that the law therefore accounts for military necessity? To what consequences does the law accounting for military necessity give rise? Through real life examples and careful analysis, this book challenges received wisdom on the subject by devising a new theory that not only reaffirms Krieger's fallacy but also explains why IHL has no reason to restrict or prohibit militarily unnecessary conduct on that ground alone. Additionally, the theory hypothesises greater normative significance for humanitarian and chivalrous imperatives when they conflict with IHL rules. By combining international law, jurisprudence, military history, strategic studies, and moral philosophy, this book reveals how rational fighting relates to ethical fighting, how IHL incorporates contrasting values that shape its rules, and how law and theory adapt themselves to war's evolutions.

The Four Masterworks of the Ming Novel Andrew H. Plaks, 2025-03-11 A reinterpretation of some of the great works of Chinese fiction of the late Ming dynasty. In this book, Andrew Plaks reinterprets the great texts of Chinese fiction known as the Four Masterworks of the Ming Novel: ssu ta ch i shu. Arguing that these are far more than collections of popular narratives, Plaks shows that their fullest critical revisions represent a sophisticated new genre of Chinese prose fiction arising in the late Ming dynasty, especially in the sixteenth century. He then analyzes these radical transformations of prior source
