Motherhood Home And Identity In Selected Novels Of Toni Morrison:

Motherhood, Home, and Identity in Selected Novels of Toni Morrison Saman Omar, 2015-01-09 Chloe Anthony Wofford known as Toni Morrison 1931 is one of the well known contemporary African American novelists Her writings are centered on African American themes The reader of her novels is constantly in the presence of pessimism This is due to the turmoil the African Americans always experienced throughout American history particularly because of slavery and racial segregation In these respects she writes about the individual as well as the community Moreover the Nobel Prize in literature she won in 1993 attests to the richness she displays in her treatment of the different circumstantial and universal themes and for the unconventional techniques she adopts Exploited and Explored Feminine Self: A Study of the Select Novels of Toni Morrison and Shobha De Dr. B. PREETHA M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., Toni Morrison and the Geopoetics of Place, Race, and Be/longing Marilyn Sanders Mobley, 2024-07-05 In this interdisciplinary work of literary criticism Toni Morrison scholar Marilyn S Mobley endeavors to apply geopoetics toward establishing a new framework for understanding Morrison's famous call to create and allow for spaces for the reader to come into the text Reclaiming Home, Remembering Motherhood, Rewriting History Marie Drews, Verena Theile, 2009-05-05 Reclaiming Home Remembering Motherhood Rewriting History African American and Afro Caribbean Women's Literature in the Twentieth Century offers a critical valuation of literature composed by black female writers and examines their projects of reclamation memory and revision As a collection it engages black women writers efforts to create more inclusive conceptualizations of community gender and history conceptualizations that take into account alternate lived and written experiences as well as imagined futures Contributors to this collection probe the realms of gender studies postcolonialism and post structural theory and suggest important ways in which to explore connections between home motherhood and history across the multifarious narratives of African American and Afro Caribbean experiences Together they argue that it is through their female characters that black women writers demonstrate the tumultuous processes of deciphering home and homeland of articulating the complexities of mothering relationships and of locating their own personal history within local and national narratives Essays gathered in this collection consider the works of African American women writers Pauline Hopkins Toni Morrison Jessie Redmon Fauset Audre Lorde Lalita Tademy Lorene Cary Octavia Butler Zora Neale Hurston and Sherley Anne Williams alongside the works of black women writers from the Caribbean Jamaica Kincaid and Gisèle Pineau Guyana Grace Nichols and Cuba Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2010-04-06 In the last decade the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical historical and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences Toni Morrison and Motherhood Andrea

O'Reilly, 2012-02-01 Traces Morrison's theory of African American mothering as it is articulated in her novels essays speeches and interviews Mothering is a central issue for feminist theory and motherhood is also a persistent presence in the work of Toni Morrison Examining Morrison's novels essays speeches and interviews Andrea O'Reilly illustrates how Morrison builds upon black women's experiences of and perspectives on motherhood to develop a view of black motherhood that is in terms of both maternal identity and role radically different from motherhood as practiced and prescribed in the dominant culture Motherhood in Morrison's view is fundamentally and profoundly an act of resistance essential and integral to black women's fight against racism and sexism and their ability to achieve well being for themselves and their culture The power of motherhood and the empowerment of mothering are what make possible the better world we seek for ourselves and for our children This argues O'Reilly is Morrison's maternal theory a politics of the heart As an advocate of a politics of the heart O'Reilly has an acute insight into discerning any threat to the preservation and continuation of traditional African American womanhood and values Above all Toni Morrison and Motherhood based on Andrea O'Reilly's methodical research on Morrison's works as well as feminist critical resources proffers a useful basis for understanding Toni Morrison's works It certainly contributes to exploring in detail Morrison's rich and complex works notable from the perspectives of nurturing and sustaining African American maternal tradition African American Review O'Reilly boldly reconfigures hegemonic western notions of motherhood while maintaining dialogues across cultural differences Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering Andrea O'Reilly examines Morrison's complex presentations of and theories about motherhood with admirable rigor and a refusal to simplify and the result is one of the most penetrating and insightful studies of Morrison yet to appear a book that will prove invaluable to any scholar teacher or reader of Morrison South Atlantic Review it serves as a sort of annotated bibliography of nearly all the major theoretical work on motherhood and on Morrison as an author anyone conducting serious study of either Toni Morrison or motherhood not to mention the combination should read this book O'Reilly's exhaustive research her facility with theories of Anglo American and Black feminism and her penetrating analyses of Morrison's works result in a highly useful scholarly read Literary Mama By tracing both the metaphor and literal practice of mothering in Morrison's literary world O'Reilly conveys Morrison's vision of motherhood as an act of resistance American Literature Motherhood is critically important as a recurring theme in Toni Morrison's oeuvre and within black feminist and feminist scholarship An in depth analysis of this central concern is necessary in order to explore the complex disjunction between Morrison's interviews which praise black mothering and the fiction which presents mothers in various destructive and self destructive modes Kudos to Andrea O Reilly for illuminating Morrison s maternal standpoint and helping readers and critics understand this difficult terrain Toni Morrison and Motherhood is also valuable as a resource that addresses and synthesizes a huge body of secondary literature Nancy Gerber author of Portrait of the Mother Artist Class and Creativity in Contemporary American Fiction In addition to presenting a penetrating and original reading of Toni Morrison O Reilly integrates the evolving scholarship on motherhood in dominant and minority cultures in a review that is both a composite of commonalities and a clear representation of differences Elizabeth Bourque Johnson University of Minnesota Andrea O Reilly is Associate Professor in the School of Women s Studies at York University and President of the Association for Research on Mothering She is the author and editor of several books on mothering including with Sharon Abbey Mothers and Daughters Connection Empowerment and Transformation and Mothers and Sons Feminism Masculinity and the Struggle to Raise Our Sons

Toni Morrison and the Bible Shirley A. Stave, 2006 This collection of essays critically interrogates Toni Morrison s use of the Bible in her novels examining the ways in which the author plays on the original text to raise issues of spirituality as it affects race gender and class Ideal for courses on Morrison or on explorations of the intersection of religion and literature this collection treats its topic with sophistication considering religion in its broadest possible sense and examining syncretic theologies as well as mainstream religions in its attempt to locate Morrison s work in a spiritual theological nexus

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison Kelly Reames, Linda Wagner-Martin, 2022-12-15 The most substantial collection of critical essays on Morrison to appear since her death in mid 2019 this book contains previously unpublished essays which both acknowledge the universal significance of her writing even as they map new directions Essayists include pre eminent Morrison scholars as well as scholars who work in cultural criticism African American letters American modernism and women s writing The book includes work on Morrison as a public intellectual work which places Morrison s writing within today s currents of contemporary fiction work which draws together Morrison s trilogy of Beloved Jazz and Paradise alongside Dos Passos USA trilogy work which links Morrison to such Black Atlantic artists as Lubaina Himid and others as well as work which offers a reading of influence that goes both directions between Morrison and Faulkner Another cluster of essays treats seldom discussed works by Morrison including an essay on Morrison as writer of children s books and as speaker for children s education In addition a Teaching Morrison section is designed to help teachers and critics who teach Morrison in undergraduate classes The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison is wide ranging provocative and satisfying a fitting tribute to one of the greatest American novelists

Revisioning love and slavery The Novels of Toni Morrison K. Sumana,1998 American Houses: Literary Spaces of Resistance and Desire ,2022-08-15 Already in 1854 Henry David Thoreau had declared in Walden that Most men appear never to have considered what a house is 225 Like Thoreau many other renowned American writers have considered what houses are and particularly what houses do and they have created fictional dwellings that function not only as settings but as actual central characters in their works The volume is specifically concerned with the structure the organization and the objects inside houses and argues that the space defined by rooms and their contents influences the consciousness the imaginations and the experiences of the humans who inhabit them Winner of the Spanish Association for American Studies Javier Coy Award 2022 for best edited volume Contributors are Cristina Alsina R squez Rodrigo Andr s Vicent Cucarella Ramon Arturo Corujo Mar Gallego Ian Green Michael Jonik Wyn Kelley Cynthia Lytle Carme Manuel Paula Mart n Salv n Elena Ortells Eva Puyuelo Ure a Dolores Resano and Cynthia Stretch The Palgrave Handbook of Reproductive Justice and Literature Beth Widmaier Capo,Laura Lazzari,2022-09-10 This handbook offers a collection of scholarly essays that analyze questions of reproductive justice throughout its cultural representation in global literature and film It offers analysis of specific texts carefully situated in their evolving historical economic and cultural contexts Reproductive justice is taken beyond the American setting in which the theory and movement began chapters apply concepts to international realities and literatures from different countries and cultures by covering diverse genres of cultural production including film television YouTube documentaries drama short story novel memoir and self help literature Each chapter analyzes texts from within the framework of reproductive justice in an interdisciplinary way including English Japanese Italian Spanish and German language literature and culture comparative literature film South Asian fiction Canadian theatre writing gender studies Deaf studies disability studies global health and medical humanities and sociology Academics graduate students and advanced undergraduate students in Literature Gender Sexuality and Women s Studies Cultural Studies Motherhood Studies Comparative Literature History Sociology the Medical Humanities Reproductive Justice and Human Rights are the main audience of the volume Toni Morrison L. Wagner-Martin,2015-04-22 A reading of the oeuvre of Toni Morrison fiction non fiction and other drawing extensively from her many interviews as well as her primary texts The author aligns Morrison s novels with the works of Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner assessing her works as among the most innovative and most significant worldwide of the past fifty years The Mother Wave Andrea O'Reilly,Fiona Joy Green,2024-09-01 Matricentric feminism seeks to make motherhood the business of feminism by positioning mothers needs and concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic on and for the empowerment of women as mothers Based on the conviction that mothering is a verb it understands that becoming and being a mother is not limited to biological mothers or cisgender women but rather to anyone who does the work of mothering as a central part of their life The Mother Wave the first ever book on the topic compellingly explores how mothers need a matricentric mode of feminism organized from and for their particular identity and work as mothers and because mothers remain disempowered despite sixty years of feminism The anthology makes visible the power of matricentric feminism as it is theorized enacted and represented to realize and achieve the subversive potential of mothers and their contributions to feminist theory and activism Contributors share the impact and influence of matricentric feminism on families and children culture art literature education public policy social media and workplace practices through personal reflections scholarly essays memoir creative non fiction poetry and photography The mother wave of matricentric feminism invites conversations with others and offers a praxis of feminism that aims to coexist overlap and intersect with others

Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris, 2021-12-06 In Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris analyzes fictional homespaces in African American literature from those set in the time of slavery to modern urban configurations of the homespace She argues that African American writers often inadvertently create and follow a tradition of portraying dysfunctional and physically or emotionally violent homespaces Harris explores the roles race and religion play in the creation of homespaces and how geography space and character all influence these spaces Although many characters in African American literature crave safe happy homespaces and frequently carry such images with them through their mental or physical migrations few characters experience the formation of healthy homespaces by the end of their journeys Harris studies the historical cultural and literary portrayals of the home in works from well known authors such as Richard Wright James Baldwin Toni Morrison and August Wilson as well as lesser studied authors such as Daniel Black A J Verdelle Margaret Walker and Dorothy West
