Mothers Without Citizenship Asian Immigrant Families And The Consequences Of Welfare Reform:

Mothers Without Citizenship Lynn Fujiwara, 2008 In August 1996 President Bill Clinton signed the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act that fulfilled his campaign promise to end welfare as we know it and one month later the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act passed deepening restrictions on immigrant and welfare provisions These acts harshly and disproportionately affected Asian immigrants who continue to experience the legacy of this legislation today Lynn Fujiwara reveals a neglected aspect of the Asian immigrant story the ill effects of welfare reform on Asian immigrant women and families Mothers without Citizenship intertwines the issues of social and legal citizenship arguing that these draconian measures redefined immigrants as outsiders whose lack of citizenship was used to deem them ineligible for public benefits Fujiwara shows how these people are both a vulnerable invisible group and active agents of change At once astute policy analysis and insightful research Mothers without Citizenship is a significant contribution to this country's immigration controversy offering much needed nuance to the discussion of the consequences of social policy on Asian immigrant communities and complicating debates solely focused around the politics of the border Lynn Fujiwara is assistant professor in the Program of Women's and Gender Studies and the Department of Sociology at the University of Oregon

Immigrant Agency Yang Sao Xiong, 2022-03-18 Through a sociological analysis of Hmong former refugees grassroots movements in the United States between the 1990s and 2000s Immigrant Agency shows how Hmong despite being one of America s most economically impoverished ethnic groups were able to make sustained claims on and have their interests represented in public policies The author Yang Sao Xiong argues that the key to understanding how immigrants incorporate themselves politically is to understand how they mobilize collective action and make choices in circumstances far from racially neutral Immigrant groups in response to political threats or opportunities or both mobilize collective action and make strategic choices about how to position themselves vis vis other minority groups how to construct group identities and how to deploy various tactics in order to engage with the U S political system and influence policy In response to immigrants collective claims the racial state engages in racialization which undermines immigrants political standing and perpetuates their marginalization

Fierce and Fearless Judy Tzu-Chun Wu, Gwendolyn Mink, 2014-09-05 A biography of the Hawaiian legislator who was the first woman of color and first Asian American woman in the U S Congress and the champion of Title IX Patsy Takemoto Mink was the first woman of color and the first Asian American woman elected to Congress Fierce and Fearless is the first biography of this remarkable woman who first won election to Congress in 1964 and went on to serve in the House for twenty four years her final term ending with her death in 2002 Mink was an advocate for girls and women best known for her work shepherding and defending Title IX the legislation that changed the face of education in America making it possible for girls and women to participate in school sports and in education more broadly at the same level as boys and men In Fierce and Fearless Mink s life is wonderfully chronicled by eminent historian Judy Tzu Chun Wu and Gwendolyn Mink Patsy s daughter a noted political science scholar and first hand witness to the many political struggles that her mother had to overcome Featuring family anecdotes vignettes and photographs this book offers new insight into who Mink was and the progressive principles that fueled her mission Wu and Mink provide readers with an up close understanding of her life as a third generation Japanese American from Hawaii from her childhood on Maui to her decades long career in the House working with noted legislators like Shirley Chisholm Bella Abzug and Nancy Pelosi They follow the evolution of her politics including her advocacy for race gender and class equality and her work to promote peace and environmental justice Fierce and Fearless provides vivid details of how Patsy Takemoto Mink changed the future of American politics Celebrating the life and legacy of a woman activist and politician ahead of her time this book illuminates the life of a trailblazing icon who made history Every girl in Little League every woman playing college sports and every parent including Michelle and myself who watches their daughter on a field or in the classroom is forever grateful to the late Patsy Takemoto Mink President Barack Obama on posthumously awarding Mink the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 2014 2023 Mary Nickliss Prize in U S Women s and or Gender History Winner Three Worlds of Relief Cybelle Fox, 2012-04-29 Three Worlds of Relief examines the role of race and immigration in the development of the American social welfare system by comparing how blacks Mexicans and European immigrants were treated by welfare policies during the Progressive Era and the New Deal Taking readers from the turn of the twentieth century to the dark days of the Depression Cybelle Fox finds that despite rampant nativism European immigrants received generous access to social welfare programs The communities in which they lived invested heavily in relief Social workers protected them from snooping immigration agents and ensured that noncitizenship and illegal status did not prevent them from receiving the assistance they needed But that same helping hand was not extended to Mexicans and blacks Fox reveals for example how blacks were relegated to racist and degrading public assistance programs while Mexicans who asked for assistance were deported with the help of the very social workers they turned to for aid Drawing on a wealth of archival evidence Fox paints a riveting portrait of how race labor and politics combined to create three starkly different worlds of relief She debunks the myth that white America s immigrant ancestors pulled themselves up by their bootstraps unlike immigrants and minorities today Three Worlds of Relief challenges us to reconsider not only the historical record but also the implications of our past on contemporary debates about race immigration and the American welfare state

Unsettled Eric Tang, 2015-10 As many as 10 000 Southeast Asian refugees arrived in the Bronx during the 1980s and 90s This book chronicles the odyssey of Bronx Cambodians closely following one woman and her family for several years Argues that refuge is never found that rescue discourses mask a more profound urban reality characterized by racialized geographic enclosure economic displacement and unrelenting poverty and the criminalization of daily life Views the hyperghetto as a site of extreme isolation punishment and confinement What does it mean for these Cambodians to resettle into this distinct time and space of slavery s afterlife publisher The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Leadership and Management Discourse

Fenwick W. English, 2022-10-13 This Handbook explores the discourse within the field of educational leadership and management It provides a clear analysis of the current field as well as older foundational ideas and newer concepts which are beginning to permeate the discussion The field of educational leadership and management has long acknowledged that educational contexts include a variety of leaders beyond school principals and other school officials such as informal and middle level leaders By looking at the knowledge dynamic rather than a static knowledge base this Handbook allows research to be presented in its multidimensional evolving reality The Movement for Reproductive Justice Patricia Zavella, 2020-05-19 2021 Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine Shows how reproductive justice organizations collaborative work across racial lines provides a compelling model for other groups to successfully influence change Patricia Zavella experienced firsthand the trials and judgments imposed on a working professional mother of color her own commitment to academia was questioned during her pregnancy as she was shamed for having children too young And when she finally achieved her professorship she felt out of place as one of the few female faculty members with children These experiences sparked Zavella s interest in the movement for reproductive justice In this book she draws on five years of ethnographic research to explore collaborations among women of color engaged in reproductive justice activism While there are numerous organizations focused on reproductive justice most are racially specific such as the National Asian Pacific American Women s Forum and Black Women for Wellness Yet Zavella reveals that many of these organizations have built coalitions among themselves sharing resources and supporting each other through different campaigns and struggles While the coalitions are often regional or even national the organizations themselves remain racially or ethnically specific presenting unique challenges and opportunities for the women involved Zavella argues that these organizations provide a compelling model for negotiating across differences within constituencies In the context of the war on women s reproductive rights and its disproportionate effect on women of color and increased legal violence toward immigrants and now incorporating an updated preface addressing the Dobbs decision which struck down Roe v Wade The Movement for Reproductive Justice demonstrates that a truly intersectional movement built on grassroots organizing culture shift work and policy advocating can offer visions of strength resiliency and dignity for all In Lady Liberty's Shadow Robyn Magalit

Rodriguez,2017-06-22 Home to Ellis Island New Jersey has been the first stop for many immigrant groups for well over a century Yet in this highly diverse state some of the most anti immigrant policies in the nation are being tested American suburbs are home to increasing numbers of first and second generation immigrants who may actually be bypassing the city to settle directly into the neighborhoods that their predecessors have already begun to plant roots in a trajectory that leads to nativist ordinances and other forms of xenophobia In Lady Liberty s Shadow examines popular white perceptions of danger represented by immigrants and their children as well the specter that lurks at the edges of suburbs in the shape of black and Latino urban underclasses and the ever more nebulous hazard of presumed Islamic terrorism that threatening to undermine life as we know it Robyn Magalit Rodriguez explores the impact of anti immigrant municipal ordinances on a range of immigrant groups living in varied suburban communities from undocumented Latinos in predominantly white suburbs to long established Asian immigrants in majority minority suburbs The American Dream that suburban life is supposed to represent is shown to rest on a racialized segregated social order meant to be enjoyed only by whites Although it is a case study of New Jersey In Lady Liberty s Shadow offers crucial insights that can shed fresh light on the national immigration debate For more information go to <https://www.facebook.com/inlibertysshadow>

Citizenship in Dalit and Indigenous Australian Literatures
Riya Mukherjee,2023-10-06 Citizenship in Dalit and Indigenous Australian Literatures examines the difference in citizenship as experienced by the communities of Dalits in India and Aboriginals in Australia through an analysis of select literature by authors of these marginalised groups Aligning the voices of two disparate communities the author creates a transnational dialogue between the subaltern communities of the two countries India and Australia through the literature produced by the two communities The Covid 19 pandemic has made the divide that exists between the performative citizenship rights enjoyed by the Dalits and the aboriginals and the respective dominant communities of their countries more apparent The author addresses the issue of this disparity between discursive and performative citizenship through a detailed analysis of select Dalit and Australian aboriginal autobiographies in particular the works by Dalit autobiographers Baby Kamble and Aravind Malagatti and aboriginal autobiographers Alice Nannup and Gordon Briscoe The book uses the dominant tropes of the individual autobiographies as a background to unfurl the denial of citizenship both in the discursive and the performative form using the parameters of equal citizenship In doing so the author also raises important groundbreaking questions How is the performativity of citizenship foregrounded by the Dalits and aboriginals in the literary counter public How does this foregrounding evoke violent retribution from the dominant sections And does the continued violation of performative citizenship point to the dysfunctionality of the performative citizenship status accorded to the Dalits and the aboriginals Questioning the liberal legacy of political civil and social citizenship this book will be of interest to researchers studying Dalit and Aboriginal Literature Interdisciplinary Literary Studies and World Literature South Asian Studies and researchers dealing with the question of citizenship

Migrants and Race in the US Philip Kretsedemas,2013-10-23 This book explains how migrants can be viewed as racial others not just because they are nonwhite but because they are racially alien This way of seeing makes it possible to distinguish migrants from a set of racial categories that are presumed to be indigenous to the nation In the US these indigenous racial categories are usually defined in terms of white and black Kretsedemas explores how this kind of racialization puts migrants in a quandary leading them to be simultaneously raced and situated outside of race Although the book focuses on the situation of migrants in the US it builds on theories of migrants and race that extend beyond the US and makes a point of criticizing nation centered explanations of race and racism These arguments point toward the emergence of a new field visibility that has transformed the racial meaning of nativity migration and migrant ethnicity It also situates these changing views of migrants in a broader historical perspective than prior theory explaining how they have been shaped by a changing relationship between race and territory that has been unfolding for several hundred years and which crystallizes in the late colonial era
