

Motivational Speech

Good evening, Members of the Institute, MPA 9 students, Ladies and gentlemen,

I am very pleased to be speaking to you today on behalf of the MPA Alumni. I hope that you feel as excited as I am to be part of this great moment. I'd like to draw your attention for a few minutes to share with you how important this day is to all of us.

I was asked by FHR to do a motivational speech and asked myself why, because I didn't graduate with a distinction, I had an overall score of 7.6; and saw my name only once on the grades cup (that's a cup where you get your name printed on, every time you score the highest grade for an exam), It is something to look forward to. To be honest, I only scored a high grade that time because the class really liked the professor. I could be restless in class, asked all kinds of questions and I liked to have fun.

Then I thought about the fact that I never had to do a resit for an exam, I was always driven and tried to study very hard (despite the fact that I didn't always keep to the "4 hours study a day" rule of Mr. LiMaPo). In my mind I went back to my graduation day, March 29th 2014, an exciting day that finally came. That day I fell, and hit my head badly around 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I was rushed to the emergency room with deep cuts and bruises on my forehead. We had to be at the institute at 5 O'clock for our graduation pictures (I'm not in any of them...)

I called Charissa, our program manager, and told her that I would still attend the ceremony in time to do the graduation speech. Yeah, I was the one who was scheduled to do the graduation speech and it had to be me in the emergency room. I left the emergency room at 6, hurried over to my house, applied make-up on only half of my face and rushed to FHR with 4 bandages on my head to

They Aren't Just Students David S. Bunn, 2020-04-23 This book is geared towards the academic as well as the trade audience There are very few books for college teachers that encourage them with specific ways to become better teachers As such this book is very unusual in its information and purpose making it a very valuable tool for anyone who wants to teach This book stands well on its own but would also make a great supplement for any college text book For a trade audience this book has applications to high school and elementary school teachers who can easily make the leap between teaching college and their current level students It will also be of interest to parents as they evaluate the quality of those who teach their children Written in the style of Irvin D Yalom and his book The Gift of Therapy this work is based on general research themes and experience rather than specific studies It is written in a direct and personal style to the reader with many examples from the twenty one years of teaching experience by the author
