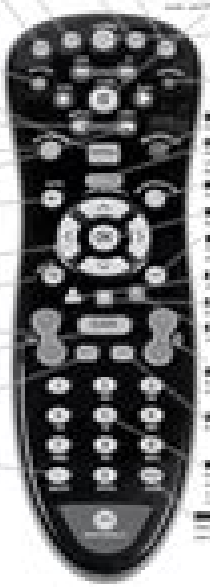
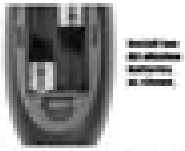
BUTTON FUNCTIONS



BUTTONS SHOWN IN PRESS AND RELEASE MODE AS BELOW BUTTONS ARE USED TO ENTER SETTING COMMANDS



Install two AA alkaline batteries as shown.

1. Set the back of the remote down on the soft pad for easy use.

2. Match the batteries to the + and - marks inside the battery case. Most brands work. See caution statement.

3. Place the battery cover back into place.

Programming the Remote to Control Other Devices

The remote control unit can control the devices that it controls by the preprogrammed codes that are built into the unit. Most of the major brands (up to 3 devices for each device type) that you want to control with the remote control unit are listed in the code lists provided with this booklet. Each brand has been assigned a 2 digit number. Some brands have more than one code number assigned to them. Try the first code listed for your device. If that code does not work, try the next code listed for your device. Continue trying codes until you find the one that works for your device. If you have a universal remote control unit that you no longer need, you may program the remote control unit to operate the same devices that your universal remote control unit operates. Refer to the instructions for programming the remote control unit to learn other codes.

If you have an interactive or satellite set top box, a DVR (digital video recorder), or an audio receiver, you may want to program the remote control unit to operate these devices as well. Refer to the instructions for setting up your new TV, cable box, satellite receiver, etc.

Note: The MX42 uses AUX mode keys (see the 3rd row under the 2 rocker keys). The AUX mode keys can be used to control DVR codes.

1. Manual Programming

Turn on and set the TV, DVD or VCR to the desired source.

Position the top of the remote unit about 6 inches away from the front of the unit that you want to control.

1. Press and hold the mode key (TV, DVD or VCR) you want to control (e.g. press the TV key if you want to control a television).

2. Release mode keys. All of the mode keys will blink (flash) for one second then light solid for 2 seconds.

3. Enter the 3 digit code for operating the television or TV. The illuminated mode keys light solid for 2 seconds then turn off. After the mode keys turn off, the remote control unit enters the learning mode.

4. Point the remote control at the television being used and press the power key. The device should turn off. If it does not turn off, repeat steps 1 through 3 using each code for your brand until you find the correct code.

Program the keys on the operation page to set up another device. To use the remote control for your new device, press the TV/VCR mode key.

Note: If the correct code is entered but the unit is not turned off or the unit turns off, then back on again (flashes for 2 seconds each time), the unit is in the learning mode. Press the power key again to turn off the unit and exit the learning mode. If the unit is left in the learning mode for more than 30 seconds, it will exit the learning mode and return to the previous mode.

2. Using the Search Function

The search function is useful when the code for your device is not listed or does not work. Refer to the instructions for programming the remote control unit using the search function.

1. Turn on the device you want to control and point the remote at that device.

2. Press and hold the mode key (TV, DVD or VCR) you want to control (e.g. press the TV key if you want to control a television).

3. Release both keys. All of the mode keys will flash then the selected mode key light will stay lit.

4. Press the power button repetitively until the selected device turns off. There may be a delay of 5 seconds between each code sent.

5. To control the 2 associated codes, the selected mode key will stay lit and the unit will be in set up/learn mode for 5 seconds after the last code is sent.

6. Press the same mode key to lock in the code. The mode key will flash twice and then stay lit.

7. Test the unit to see if it operates correctly. If it does not, repeat the search function until you find a code that works. Be sure to point the remote at the device when pressing the power key. Refer to the instructions for programming the remote control unit to learn other codes.

3. Learning

If the code for your device is not found in the code list, you may use the remote control unit to learn the codes from your existing remote. Note the following limitations: Only 1 code can be learned per mode key. Some brand remotes may not transmit enough signal for the remote control unit to learn the codes. Certain features may not be learned. Remotes that use infrared signals that are encoded or modulated may not be learned.

Note: Fluorescent lighting may interfere with the learning process. Learning may be more successful if performed in low light conditions.
