Imagining Human Rights in Twenty-First Century Theater F. Becker, P. Hernández, B. Werth, 2012-12-27 There is extraordinary diversity depth and complexity in the encounter between theatre performance and human rights Through an examination of a rich repertoire of plays and performance practices from and about countries across six continents the contributors open the way toward understanding the character and significance of this encounter Dissident Authorship in Mozambique Tom Stennett, 2024-02-16 This book is the first monograph on neglected Portuguese poet and painter António Quadros 1933 1994 It analyses the question of what it means to be an author in Mozambique through Quadros's quirky literary works which he published under three pennames and interrogates Barthes's and Foucault's influential theories on authorship Women, the Arts, and Dictatorship in the Portuguese-Speaking Context Ana Gabriela Macedo, Margarida Esteves Pereira, Joana Passos, Márcia Oliveira, 2024-06-17 This book deals with the work of twentieth century women artists and literary authors from Portugal Brazil and Portuguese speaking African countries against the backdrop of political dictatorships The essays in this volume reflect upon and challenge canonical perspectives on the arts and literature bringing to light some of the hidden and silenced faces of Lusophone culture By doing so they highlight how dominant ideologies marked the artistic and literary practices of Portuguese speaking women and how these women in turn developed strategies of resistance through their creative work The volume brings together contributors working in a range of disciplines including literary criticism the visual arts and film studies all of whom reflect on themes such as the reactions of women artists to authoritarianism the representations of political repression in their work the colonial war and the critical revision of this historical moment by a younger generation of artists It addresses scholars critics students and cultural workers with an interest in post colonial and feminist studies in the Portuguese speaking context Making Sense of People and Place in Linguistic Landscapes Amiana Peck, Christopher Stroud, Quentin Williams, 2018-10-18 This volume offers comprehensive analyses of how we live continuously in a multiplicity and simultaneity of places It explores what it means to be in place the variety of ways in which meanings of place are made and how relationships to others are mediated through the linguistic and material semiotics of place Drawing on examples of linguistic landscapes LL over the world such as gentrified landscapes in Johannesburg and Brunswick Mozambican memorializations volatile train graffiti in Stockholm Brazilian protest marches Guadeloupian Creole signs microscapes of souvenirs in Guinea Bissau and old landscapes of apartheid in South Africa in contemporary time this book explores how we are what we are through how we are emplaced Across these examples world leading contributors explore how LLs contribute to the reimagining of different selves in the living past living the past in the present alternative presents and imagined futures It focuses particularly on how the LL in all of these mediations is read through emotionality and affect creating senses of belonging precarity and hope across a simultaneous multiplicity of worlds The volume offers a reframing of linguistics landscape research in a geohumanities framework emphasizing negotiations of self in place in LL studies building upon a rich body of LL research With over 40 illustrations it covers various methodological and epistemological issues such as the need for extended temporal engagement with landscapes a mobile approach to landscapes and how bodies engage with texts Women's Cinema in

Contemporary Portugal Mariana Liz, Hilary Owen, 2020-03-05 Women's Cinema in Contemporary Portugal brings together scholars from Portugal UK and the USA to discuss 14 women film directors in Portugal focussing on their production in both feature film and documentary genres over the last half century. It charts the specific cinematic visions that these women have brought to the re-emergence of Portuguese national cinema in the wake of the 1974 Revolution and African decolonisation and to the growing internationalisation of Portugal's arguably minor or small nation cinema with significant young women directors such as Leonor Teles achieving prominence abroad. The history of Portuguese women's cinema only begins systematically after the 1974 revolution and democratisation. This collection shows how female auteurs made their mark on Portugal's post-revolutionary conceptualisation of a differently national cinema through the ethnographic output of the late 1970s. It goes on to explore women's decisively gendered interventions in the cinematic memory practices that opened up around the masculine domain of the Colonial Wars in Africa. Feminist political issues such as Portugal's 30 year abortion campaign and LGBT status have become more visible since the 1990s alongside preoccupations with global concerns relating to immigration transit and minority status communities. The book also demonstrates how women have contributed to the evolution of soundscapes, the genre of essay cinema, film's relationship to the archive and the adaptation of the written word. The result is a powerful provocative and definitive challenge to the marginalisation of Portuguese female directed film in terms of double minority.

Making Waves Anniversary Volume Ann Davies, Parvathi Kumaraswami, Claire Williams, 2021-02-10 Gender and women's studies have formed part of the academic landscape for many years but while the field is now established enough to have developed in depth and perspectives there remain many areas of significance yet to be explored. Most significantly much of the work carried out has remained rooted in the Anglo American context. Those working outside this context are increasingly aware of the need to understand women in different cultural contexts in order to determine whether to what extent and how representations of women and cultural contexts are interactive and dynamic concepts. The current volume contributes to the growing interest in the field of women and culture in the Hispanic and Lusophone worlds and shows how women writers, researchers, teachers and students have always made waves to counteract the complacency, prejudice and tradition that threatens to ignore or subsume them. The volume draws on literary study the starting point for much of the early work on gender in Spain, the Lusophone world and Latin America but also goes beyond it to discuss women's interaction not only with literature but also with art and language itself in the Hispanic and Lusophone contexts. It acts as a showcase for contemporary scholarship undertaken in Hispanic and Lusophone gender studies, developing earlier insights and forging new ones to refine the debate continuing in the subject. The contributors include both established scholars with a proven track record and promising newcomers to the field. The volume arises from the individual research projects and sustained discussions of Women in Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Studies WiSPs, an organisation that exists to promote scholarship by and about women in the field of Iberian, Lusophone and Latin American Studies This volume celebrates the first seven years of WiSPs's life and presents some of the research presented under its auspices at annual conferences and study days

Rhythm Vincent Barletta, 2024-05-31 More than the persistent beat of a song or the structural frame of poetry rhythm is a deeply imbedded force that drives our world and is also a central component of the condition of human existence It's the pulse of the body a power that orders matter a strange and natural force that flows through us Virginia Woolf describes it as a wave in the mind that carries us something we can no more escape than we could stop our hearts from beating Vincent Barletta explores rhythm through three historical moments each addressing it as a phenomenon that transcends poetry aesthetics and even temporality He reveals rhythm to be a power that holds us in place dispossesses us and shapes the foundations of our world In these moments Barletta encounters rhythm as a primordial and physical binding force that establishes order and form in the ancient world as the anatomy of lived experience in early modern Europe and as a subject of aesthetic and ethical questioning in the twentieth century A wide ranging book covering a period spanning two millennia and texts from over ten languages Rhythm will expand the conversation around this complex and powerful phenomenon

Family, Violence and Gender in African Anglophone Novels and Contemporary Terrorist Threats Chi Sum Garfield Lau, 2017-05-11 This book investigates how the breakdown of the family and the conventional gendering of roles gives rise to terrorist violence as portrayed in various African Anglophone narratives written by internationally renowned authors including Chinua Achebe Doris Lessing J M Coetzee and the award winning contemporary Moroccan author Laila Lalami It proves that the indispensable relationship between an eroding family structure and terror is not only an observation found in African Anglophone narratives but rather that this relationship can help us to better comprehend terror as a globalized phenomenon in the twenty first century Both the novels and the real life cases of various terrorist figures such as Osama bin Laden and Mohamed Morsi seemingly suggest a linkage between an alternative family institution in the form of fundamentalist religious sects and terror Referencing paratexts in fiction and biography the book adopts a ground breaking approach to juxtapose the portrayal of fictional characters to the life story of Malala Yousafzai a Pakistani student who has resisted Taliban rule in Afghanistan at great personal risk When viewed together these paratexts capably represent a viable afterlife of ideology and narrative to the colonial legacy of terror and the reinvention of that legacy as a tradition of contemporary fundamentalism in response to the failure of states to protect the family

Globalizing International Theory A. Layug, John M. Hobson, 2022-09-30 Globalizing International Theory adds to the literature on non Western international relations IR theory by probing the question of what it means to globalize international theory The book starts with the premise that international theory is unfinished incomplete and homogenous because it provides a limited conception of the international which in turn derives from its partiality that reflects its narrow Western centric bias The contributors argue that the IR vision of the world is projected through a polarizing Western filtered lens Rather than utilizing an objective set of explanatory tools for explaining world politics the reality is that orthodox IR theory only tells us why the West is best and why the Rest should become like the West This means that international theory is not truly international In provincializing Western international theory this volume navigates beyond the Eurocentric and imperial frontier of the prevailing limited conception of the international to explore the hidden contributions to international theory which can be found in the non Western world Bringing in excluded non Western conceptions of international theory highlights a broader conception of the international The book provides a framework for theorizing globally exploring the fundamental problems with Western IR theory and how to overcome them This book will be used by advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students scholars researchers and IR theorists worldwide who are interested in non Western IR theory It will help navigate the problem of internationalness in the face of the grand theoretical problem of our time the use and misuse of international theory in making sense of and responding to the complex global realities of the twenty first century

A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle, Stephen Parkinson, Cláudia Pazos Alonso, 2013 An essential chronological framework for students of Portuguese literature This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment STEPHEN PARKINSON CLAUDIA PAZOS ALONSO and T F EARLE are all members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at the University of Oxford CONTRIBUTORS Vanda Anastácio Helena Carvalhao Buescu Rip Cohen T F Earle David Frier Lu s Gomes Mariana Gray de Castro Helder Macedo Patricia Odber de Baubeta Hilary Owen Stephen Parkinson Cláudia Pazos Alonso Juliet Perkins Teresa Pinto Coelho Phillip Rothwell Mark Sabine Claire Williams Clive Willis Transnational Portuguese Studies Hilary Owen, Claire Williams, 2020-06-17 Transnational Portuguese Studies offers a radical rethinking of the role played by the concepts of nationhood and the nation in the epistemologies that underpin Portuguese Studies as an academic discipline Portuguese Studies offers a particularly rich and enlightening challenge to methodological nationalism in Modern Languages not least because the teaching of Portuguese has always extended beyond the study of the single western European country from which the language takes its name However this has rarely been analysed with explicit or critical reference to the transnational turn in Arts and Humanities This volume of essays from leading scholars in Portugal Brazil the USA and the UK explores how the histories cultures and ideas constituted in and through Portuguese language resist borders and produce encounters from the manoeuvres of 15th century globalization and cartography to present day mega events such as the Rio Olympics The result is a timely counter narrative to the workings of linguistic and cultural nationalism demonstrating how texts paintings and photobooks musical forms political ideas cinematic representations gender identities digital communications and lexical forms may travel translate and embody transcultural contact in ways which only become readable through the optics of transnationalism Contributors Ana Margarida Dias Martins Anna M Klobucka Christopher Larkosh Claire Williams Cl udia Pazos Alonso Edward King Ellen W Sapega Fernando Arenas Hilary Owen Jos Lingna Nafaf Kimberly DaCosta Holton Maria Lu sa Coelho Paulo de Medeiros Sara Ramos Pinto Sheila Moura Hue Simon Park Susana Afonso Tatiana Heise Toby Green Tori Holmes Vivien Kogut Lessa de S and Zolt n Biedermann

Anticolonial Form Alexandra Reza,2024 Raza examines key literary journals published in French English and Portuguese by African writers in Europe in the period of decolonization mainly between 1940 and 1970 to understand how writers understood Empire as a political and cultural structure and what conceptions of freedom culture and society underpinned anti colonial thinking

Portuguese and Luso-Asian Legacies in Southeast Asia, 1511-2011: The making of the Luso-Asian world, intricacies of engagement Laura Jarnagin,2011 Five hundred years later a conference held in Singapore brought together a large group of scholars from widely different national academic and disciplinary contexts to analyse and discuss the intricate consequences of Portuguese interactions in Asia over the longue duree The result of these discussions is a stimulating set of case studies that as a rule combine original archival and or field research with innovative historiographical perspectives Luso Asian communities real and imagined and Luso Asian heritage material and symbolic are studied with depth and insight The range of thematic chronological and geographic areas covered in these proceeding is truly remarkable showing not only the extraordinary relevance of revisiting Luso Asian interactions in the longer term but also the surprising dynamism within an area of studies which seemed on the verge of exhaustion After all archives from all over the world from Rio de Janeiro to London from Lisbon to Rome and from Goa to Macao might still hold some secrets on the subject of Luso Asian relations when duly explored by resourceful scholars

Representations of China in Latin American Literature (1987-2016) Maria Montt Strabucchi,2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987 2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America s understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued

Gender, Empire, and Postcolony Anna M. Klobucka, 2014-09-04 Analyzing a wide body of cultural texts including literature film and other visual arts Gender Empire and Postcolony Luso Afro Brazilian Intersections is a diverse collection of essays on gender in Portuguese colonialism and Lusophone postcolonialism

Portuguese and Luso-Asian Legacies in Southeast Asia, 1511-2011, vol. 1 Laura Jarnagin, 2003-08-01 In 1511 a Portuguese expedition under the command of Afonso de Albuquerque arrived on the shores of Malacca taking control of the prosperous Malayan port city after a swift military campaign Portugal a peripheral but then technologically advanced country in southwestern Europe since the latter fifteenth century had been in the process of establishing solid outposts all along Asia s littoral in order to participate in the most active and profitable maritime trading routes of the day As it turned out the Portuguese presence and influence in the Malayan Peninsula and elsewhere in continental and insular Asia expanded far beyond the sphere of commerce and extended over time well into the twenty first century Five hundred years later a conference held in Singapore brought together a large group of scholars from widely different national academic and disciplinary contexts to analyse and discuss the intricate consequences of Portuguese interactions in Asia over the longue duree The result of these discussions is a stimulating set of case studies that as a rule combine original archival and or field research with innovative historiographical perspectives Luso Asian communities real and imagined and Luso Asian heritage material and symbolic are studied with depth and insight The range of thematic chronological and geographic areas covered in these proceedings is truly remarkable showing not only the extraordinary relevance of revisiting Luso Asian interactions in the longer term but also the surprising dynamism within an area of studies which seemed on the verge of exhaustion After all archives from all over the world from Rio de Janeiro to London from Lisbon to Rome and from Goa to Macao might still hold some secrets on the subject of Luso Asian relations when duly explored by resourceful scholars Rui M Loureiro Centro de Historia de Alem Mar Lisbon
