however to some extent an unexpected phenomenon arising from the permanent settlement of migrant guest workers expected to be temporary residents and from other unplanned processes such as decolonization and the influx of asylum seekers Moreover family reunification is today one of the main legal channels by which migrants come to Europe so it is no coincidence that the main issues animating European public debate on inter ethnic coexistence involve family religion and the relationships between genders and generations Finally the migrant family has to some extent become a lens through which to analyze many key topics connected with the present and future of European societies This work Migrant Families and Religious Belonging is a collection of nine essays exploring the relationship between family religion and immigration These essays mainly focus on the integration process with particular attention to the experience of migrants offspring The book consists of an introductory chapter and four thematic sections and topics covered include gender equality forced marriages child fostering care and religious radicalization The relationship between family religion and immigration provides a fascinating perspective to explore and shed light on European society today The book will be of interest to a wide range of academics researchers and practitioners Feminist Theologies Stephen Burns,Rebekah Pryor,2023-01-24 This assemblage of feminist theologies represents a series of vital entanglements Chapters are written from different cultures geographies and discourses and brought together around themes as specific and wide ranging as immigration detention hate crime discrimination rites of marriage and partnership and artistic and religious imagination The contributors variously echo celebrate question and contradict each other Despite the complexity and allied as they are with liberation decolonial ecological queer and other theologies these perspectives seek not only to confront and resist the problems oppressions and omissions of hegemonic theologies but also to realize better worlds Ancient Laws and Institutes of Wales ,1841
