Gender in the 2016 US Presidential Election Dustin Harp, 2019-04-09 Using a discourse analysis, Dustin Harp investigates media during the 2016 US presidential election to explore how traditional patriarchal and feminist ideas about gender played out during the campaign. The book illustrates how these two ideologies competed for space and struggled for discursive authority. A broad range of media texts is examined, and gender moments where gender became a dominant part of the political conversation are identified. These include the 'nasty woman' and 'grab them by the pussy' comments of Donald Trump and the 'woman card' played by and against Hillary Clinton. Furthermore, Harp reveals how binary notions of gender and stereotypical ideas of how men and women should behave look and sound structured the ways Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton were talked about in the media. As a counterpoint, the research also shows the ways feminist ideologies worked against the sexism and misogyny and became mainstream in media discourse.

during the campaign Students and researchers of Gender Studies will find that the gender moments in Gender in the 2016 US Presidential Election tell a broader story about women gender expectations and power They offer important and timely insights about misogyny and sexual harassment in contemporary US culture and feminist resistance in a mediated public sphere Shipped Meredith Tate,2021-05-18 Can two IRL enemies find their happily ever after online Stella Greene and Wesley Clarke are Gene Connolly Memorial High School s biggest rivals While the two have been battling it out for top student it s a race to the bottom when it comes to snide comments and pulling the dirtiest prank For years Stella and Wes have been the villain in each other s story and now it s all out war And there is no bigger battle than the one for valedictorian and more specifically the coveted valedictorian scholarship But Stella and Wes have more in common than they think Both are huge fans of Warship Seven a popular sci fi TV drama with a dedicated online following and the two start chatting under aliases without a clue that their rival is just beyond the screen They realize that they re both attending SciCon this year so they plan to dress in their best cosplay and finally meet IRL While tensions at school are rising and SciCon inches closer and closer the enemy lines between Stella and Wes blur when a class project shows them they might understand one another better than anyone else and not just in cosplay From the author of The Last Confession of Autumn Casterly comes a heartfelt story about rivalry friendships and defying preconceived notions even the ones about yourself From the Top Michael Perry,2013-11-04 Bottom line is I m the kind of guy who s happy to go to the opera but I should like to be allowed to wear steel toed boots with my evening suit I like to read Harper s with a chaser of Varmint Hunter Magazine Maybe that s why I enjoy a good show under canvas Here we sit brain deep in arts and culture but we re also just people hanging out in a tent some of us wearing boots a few of us wearing Birkenstocks but best of all we re breathing free fresh air filled with music From Scandihoovian Spanglish to snickering chickens New York Times bestselling author and humorist Michael Perry navigates a wide range of topics in this collection of brief essays drawn from his weekly appearances on the nationally syndicated Tent Show Radio program Fatherhood dumpster therapy dangerous wedding rings Christmas trees used cars why you should have bacon in your stock portfolio loggers in clogs whatever the subject Perry has a rare ability to touch both the funny bone and the heart Boot and Shoe Recorder ,1920 American Shoemaking ,1959
