Risk Measures with Applications in Finance and Economics Michael McAleer, Wing-Keung Wong, 2019-07-23 Risk measures play a vital role in many subfields of economics and finance It has been proposed that risk measures could be analysed in relation to the performance of variables extracted from empirical real world data For example risk measures may help inform effective monetary and fiscal policies and therefore the further development of pricing models for financial assets such as equities bonds currencies and derivative securities A Special Issue of Risk Measures with Applications in Finance and Economics will be devoted to advancements in the mathematical and statistical development of risk measures with applications in finance and economics This Special Issue will bring together the theory practice and real world applications of risk measures This book is a collection of papers published in the Special Issue of Risk Measures with Applications in Finance and Economics for Sustainability in 2018

Capital Asset Pricing Model (CAPM). A Case Study Alexander Moßhammer, Elias Danzl, Kilian Altenberger, 2015-02-02 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject Business economics Investment and Finance grade 1.00 University of Innsbruck Department of Banking and Finance course Proseminar Financial Management language English abstract The purpose of this paper is to do empirical research on the capital asset pricing model The bases of our research are the returns of three stocks the S P 500 index which represents the market and the LIBOR as a proxy for the risk free interest rate The three companies that were chosen in this paper were Kellogg Company KB Financial Group Inc and Kate Spade Company and all of them in combination represent our fictive market

Bitcoin Pricing. An Empirical Analysis Andreas Bialek, 2019-04-01 Master's Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics Miscellaneous grade 1.3 University of Hamburg language English abstract In this paper I analyze the relation between daily bitcoin returns and sentiment using a dataset reaching from 2013 to 2018 I find that daily bitcoin returns are not only affected contemporaneously by the bitcoin sentiment measures but also in the next three days while established stock market sentiment measures provide no explanatory power Additionally the negative emotions show return reversal patterns as often observed in sentiment induced mispricing literature resulting in higher returns the next two days after affecting returns negatively today I further find that trading volume affects returns positively today in the next four days and that it is connected with stock market measures For what I wisdom this is also the first academic research that uses the recently introduced Thomson Reuters MarketPsych Indices on cryptocurrencies
