Standing Ready John A. Adams, 2022-08-24 Across America in the wake of World War I college football entered a time of prominence often referred to as a Golden Era This same period saw the origins of many beloved traditions of Texas A the Aggie War Hymn penned by J V Pinky Wilson 21 was officially adopted maroon and white emerged as the sanctioned college colors And in 1922 a lanky Dallas athlete named E King Gill stepped up and agreed to be the 12th Man at a football game that may have been the greatest ever played Today the 12th Man tradition is one of the most cherished parts of A M heritage The 1922 Dixie Classic precursor to today s Cotton Bowl featured a contest between two championship coaches with strong ties to Texas A M D X Bible who led the Aggies from 1916 to 1928 and Centre College s Uncle Charlie Moran who coached at A M from 1909 to 1914 Historian John A Adams Jr 73 uncovers enthralling details the pregame conversation between Bible and E King Gill that helped place Gill in uniform on the sidelines the wedding celebration involving the Centre College team at the historic Adolphus Hotel the morning before the game the diagram of the play the Aggies used to score the game winning touchdown and so much more Sports fans and historians especially those interested in the early days of American football will savor the rich previously unknown details surrounding this storied contest between two renowned coaches and their steadfast squads

Football, Community and Social Inclusion Daniel Parnell, David Richardson, 2017-10-02 This special issue addresses the complex reality of English community football organisations including Football in the Community FitC schemes which have been attending to social agendas such as social inclusion and health promotion The positioning of football as a key agent of change for this diverse range of social issues has resulted in an increase in funding support Despite the increased availability of funding and the apparent willingness of football clubs to adopt such an altruistic position within society there remains limited empirical evidence to substantiate football s ability to deliver results This book explores the current role of a football and football clubs in supporting and delivering social inclusion and health promotion to its community and seeks to examine the philosophical political environmental and practical challenges of this work The power and subsequent lure of a football club and its brand is an ideal vehicle to entice and capture populations that normally ignore or turn away from positive social and or health behaviours The foundations of such a belief are examined outlining key recommendations and considerations for both researchers and practitioners attending to these social and health issues through the vehicle of football This book was originally published as a special issue of Soccer Society
