Large Language Models Oswald Campesato, 2024-10-02 This book begins with an overview of the Generative AI landscape distinguishing it from conversational AI and shedding light on the roles of key players like DeepMind and OpenAI. It then reviews the intricacies of ChatGPT, GPT-4 and Gemini, examining their capabilities, strengths and competitors. Readers will also gain insights into the BERT family of LLMs including ALBERT, DistilBERT and XLNet and how these models have revolutionized natural language processing. Further, the book covers prompt engineering techniques essential for optimizing the outputs of AI models and addresses the challenges of working with LLMs, including the phenomenon of hallucinations and the nuances of fine-tuning these advanced models. Designed for software developers, AI researchers and technology enthusiasts with a foundational understanding of AI, this book offers both theoretical insights and practical code examples in Python. Companion files with code, figures and datasets are available for downloading from the publisher.

Integrating Telemental Health Practice Into Counselor Education Training Heather C. Robertson, 2025-03-11 Counselor educators and instructors need impactful and concise strategies to successfully integrate telemental health (TMH) concepts into an already demanding counseling curriculum. As TMH counseling continues to expand in a post-pandemic era, counselor educators and instructors are charged with the responsibility of training the next generation of professional counselors in ethical and effective TMH counseling. Utilizing the CACREP general curriculum and specialization standards as a framework, Integrating Telemental Health Practice into Counselor Education Training provides counselor educators, doctoral students and instructors with creative ideas as well as concrete strategies to infuse content on TMH into their existing courses and curriculum. Readers will benefit from suggested TMH content for each CACREP standard as well as TMH teaching tips and sample lessons from contributing authors. Lessons include variations for in-person and online instruction. This book provides the counselor educator or doctoral student with a foundational knowledge of TMH, who needs ideas and activities to seamlessly infuse TMH concepts into their counseling courses and curricula.
