Benton,2009-02-27 Who is the typical alcoholic among the 12 5 million living in the United States now Many if not most of us when asked that question would envision a skid row bum or someone at least out of work or with little education locked into a low skill low paying job But that is not accurate according to the results of a national study released in June 2007 by the National Institutes of Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism The NIAAA determined that alcoholics in the United States really fall into five subtypes including nearly 20 percent who are highly functional alcoholics well educated with good incomes They include corporate presidents powerful politicians police lawyers doctors scientists and other highly skilled highly educated people who are middle to high income and by most accounts successful In this unprecedented book mental health counselor Sarah

Benton takes us into the worlds and minds of so called high functioning alcoholics to understand how people so intelligent and achievement oriented get drawn into states in which they secretly cannot control their liquor consumption but still manage to excel in their careers The book includes a look at celebrity alcoholics like singer Eric Clapton and actor comedian Robin Williams as well as alcoholics in high positions including Chris Albrecht former Chairman and CEO of HBO Other high profile people included in this book are Miss USA 2007 Tara Conner and football legend Joe Namath With her own story of alcoholism and her recovery woven into the text Benton takes us into the lives and challenges of these well educated and successful people seeking to understand how when and why they became addicted as well as the reasons their alcoholism is for most so hard to admit cope with and recover from

A Happier You Dr. Mukesh Jain, 2023-01-05 All of us want to be happy Whether our dreams are about professional success spiritual fulfilment a sense of connection a purpose in life or love we cover those things since we believe that they will make us happier We think if I just get that raise or hit that next sales target I shall be happy If I can just get that next good grade I will be happy If I lose those five pounds I will be happy and so on Success comes first then happiness The only problem is that this formula is broken This success central hypothesis has created a wrong perception of our personal and professional universe Ground breaking research in the fields of positive psychology and neuroscience has proven in no uncertain terms that the relationship between success and happiness works the other way around Thanks to this cutting edge science we now know that happiness is the precursor to success not merely the result Remaking yourself a happier person and living a flourishing and meaningful life is entirely in your hands if you are willing to bring to bear some effort and commitment are ready and only if you understand how to proceed A Happier You can be taken as the Art of happiness based on the Science of Happiness
