Anxious Appetites Peter Jackson, 2015-09-24 Despite government claims that food is safer and more readily available today than ever before recent survey evidence demonstrates high levels of food related anxiety among Western consumers While chronic hunger and malnutrition are relatively rare in the West food scares relating to individual products concerns about global food security and other expressions of consumer anxiety about food remain widespread Anxious Appetites explores the causes of these present day anxieties Looking at fears over provenance and regulation in a world of lengthening supply chains and greater concentration of corporate power Peter Jackson investigates how anxieties about food circulate and how they act as a channel for broader social issues Drawing on case studies such as the 2013 horsemeat scandal and fears about the contamination of infant formula in China in 2008 he examines how and why these concerns emerge Comparing survey results with ethnographic observation of consumer practice he explores the gap between official advice about food safety and people's everyday experience of food including a critique of ideological notions of consumer choice A captivating timely book which presents a new theory of social anxiety Consumer Behaviour Isabelle Szmigin, Maria Piacentini, 2015 For lecturers Comprehensive customizable PowerPoint slides Learning activities including more detailed workshop based activities shorter lecture based in class exercises and suggestions for assessment approaches An instructor's manual containing guidance on how to use the case studies and Practitioner Insights in class indicative answers and some additional questions Routledge Handbook of Health Geography Valorie A. Crooks, Gavin J. Andrews, Jamie

Pearce, 2018-06-14 The places of our daily life affect our health well being and receipt of health care in complex ways The connection between health and place has been acknowledged for centuries and the contemporary discipline of health geography sets as its core mission to uncover and explicate all facets of this connection The Routledge Handbook of Health Geography features 52 chapters from leading international thinkers that collectively characterize the breadth and depth of current thinking on the health place connection It will be of interest to students seeking an introduction to health geography as well as multidisciplinary health scholars looking to explore the intersection between health and place This book provides a coherent synthesis of scholarship in health geography as well as multidisciplinary insights into cutting edge research It explores the key concepts central to appreciating the ways in which place influences our health from the micro space of the body to the macro scale of entire world regions in order to articulate historical and contemporary aspects of this influence

Towards an Eliasian Understanding of Food in the 21st Century John Lever, Jennifer Smith Maguire, Adrianna Kapek-Goodridge, 2024-11-15 This edited volume serves as an overview and introduction to the conceptual apparatus of Norbert Elias for newcomers while also outlining current research within the Eliasian school of sociology An Eliasian or figurational approach foregrounds process is sensitive to long term historical development and changing power relations and is methodologically diverse Elias's work is now found across academic disciplines and this volume contains contributions by sociologists anthropologists business and management scholars and those working at the interface of sociology and human geography Instead of simply highlighting the distinctiveness of the school vis vis other theoretical traditions this volume outlines how Eliasian inspired work can contribute to important debates on the future of food across academic disciplines

Routledge Handbook on Consumption Margit Keller,Bente Halkier,Terhi-Anna Wilska,Monica Truninger,2017-02-10 Consumption research is burgeoning across a wide range of disciplines The Routledge Handbook on Consumption gathers experts from around the world to provide a nuanced overview of the latest scholarship in this expanding field At once ambitious and timely the volume provides an ideal map for those looking to position their work find new analytic insights and identify research gaps With an intuitive thematic structure and resolutely international outlook it engages with theory and methodology markets and businesses policies politics and the state and culture and everyday life It will be essential reading for students and scholars across the social and economic sciences Anxious Appetites Peter Jackson,2015 The Agency of Eating Emma-Jayne Abbotts,2017-09-21 Deciding what to eat and how to eat it are two of the most basic acts of everyday life Yet every choice also implies a value judgement good foods versus bad proper and improper ways of eating and healthy and unhealthy bodies These food decisions are influenced by a range of social political and economic bioauthorities and mediated through the individual eating body This book is unique in the cultural politics of food in its exploration of a range of such bioauthorities and in its examination of the interplay between them and the individual eating body No matter whether they are accepted or resisted our eating practices and preferences are shaped by and shape these agencies Abbotts places the body materiality and the non human at the heart of her analysis interrogating not only how the individual s embodied eating practices incorporate and reject the bioauthorities of food but also how such authorities are created by the individual act of eating Drawing on ethnographic case studies from across the globe The Agency of Eating provides an important analysis of the power dynamics at play in the contemporary food system and the ways in which agency is expressed and bounded This book will be of great benefit to any with an interest in food studies anthropology sociology and human geography Feeding Anxieties Zofia Boni,2023-03-10 Focusing on the underlying politics behind children s food this book highlights the variety of social relationships expectations and emotions ingrained in feeding children in Poland With rich ethnographic accounts including research with children the book demonstrates how families schools the food industry and state agencies shape and experience feeding anxieties and how such anxiety is at the heart of a new form of sociality The book complicates our understanding of health and modern subjectivity and unpacks what and how we feed children today Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice_ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

Alternative Food Networks for Sustainable, Just, Resilient and Productive Food Systems José Luis Vicente-Vicente, Lukas Egli, Felix Zoll, Simona Zollet,2024-10-01 There is growing evidence that the current globalised agri food system is neither sustainable nor resilient It is responsible for around one third of the global GHG emissions and is a major driver of biodiversity loss Furthermore its structure and distribution mode do not provide food security for all and foster socio economic inequalities between different parts of the planet Consequently an increasing number of scientists and members of the civil society are demanding a radical transformation of agri food systems The creation of alternative food networks AFNs represent a possible first step towards agri food system transformation AFNs can incorporate local indigenous and innovative knowledge and bring together a diversity of actors to connect food production and consumption and create new practices and relationships around food The creation of AFNs and ultimately of Alternative Food Systems AFS should involve different actors from farmers to social movements from policymakers to scientists AFNs have the potential to contribute to a transformation towards sustainable just resilient and productive food systems but even though they have increased in numbers and organisational forms in recent years they still remain in a niche Consequently scientific evidence of their performance is still limited This research topic will contribute to a comprehensive multi scalar and critical e g including potential counter effects understanding of the current state and future potential of AFNs It will address multiple aspects ranging from social economic and environmental aspects to productivity participation and justice Moreover it will highlight the role of governance power relations and institutions as well as barriers and ways forward to promote AFNs and their role in food system transformation

The Top Books of the Year Online Anxious Appetites Consumer Contemporary Politics The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Online Anxious Appetites Consumer Contemporary Politics : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
