Online Dunbar Neighborhood School People 1940 1965:

America, History and Life, 1991 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada How Teachers Taught Larry Cuban, 1984 Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman, 2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century

Children and Youth in America, 1933-1973 Robert Hamlett Bremner, John Barnard, Robert M. Mennel, 1974 The concluding volumes present forty years of tumultuous history Now completed they constitute an indispensable reference and absorbing chronicle of American social history Essentials of Evaluating Bias in Intelligence Testing Craig L. Frisby, 2025-02-11 Thorough overview of the history viewpoints and research findings of bias in intelligence testing Essentials of Evaluating Bias in Intelligence Testing delivers a comprehensive overview of potential biases that can come to light when making use of IQ tests across demographics detailing where bias can work its way into IQ test selection standardization content administration scoring and interpretation and providing key foundational knowledge on what IQ test bias is versus what it is not as well as the history of bias claims in recent decades Research findings are included throughout the book to provide key context Some of the topics discussed in this book include The Larry P v Wilson Riles trial decision of 1979 which prohibited the use of IQ tests for placing Black students in special education programs and its carryover to today The heritability of IQ scores the nature nurture issue and the role of IQ in the stratification of subpopulation groups in society Implicit assumptions within claims of standardization bias including that all population subgroups must display equal mean scores and that racial ethnic groups are internally homogeneous Essentials of Evaluating Bias in Intelligence Testing is an essential read for educators academics and administrators seeking to understand the full picture on IQ testing and its validity or lack thereof across different demographics The American South Jessica S. Brown, 1986 This two volume work with its almost 8 900 abstracts and annotations of articles drawn from an international list of over 500 periodicals dealing with history and related disciplines published between 1974 and 1984 Introd p viii Robert Clifton Weaver and the American City Wendell E. Pritchett, 2010-02-15 From his role as Franklin Roosevelt s negro advisor to his appointment under Lyndon Johnson as the first secretary of Housing and Urban Development Robert Clifton Weaver was one of the most influential domestic policy makers and civil rights advocates of the twentieth century This volume the first biography of the first African American to hold a cabinet position in the federal government rescues from obscurity the story of a man whose legacy continues to affect American race relations and the cities in which they largely play out Tracing Weaver s career through the creation expansion and contraction of New Deal liberalism Wendell E Pritchett illuminates his instrumental role in the birth of almost every urban initiative of the period from public housing and urban renewal to affirmative action and rent control Beyond these policy achievements Weaver also founded racial liberalism a new approach to race relations that propelled him through a series of high level positions in public and private agencies working to promote racial cooperation in American cities But Pritchett shows that despite Weaver s efforts to make race irrelevant white and black Americans continued to call on him to mediate between the races a position that grew increasingly untenable as Weaver remained caught between the white power structure to which he pledged his allegiance and the African Americans whose lives he devoted his career to improving

The Boy Problem Julia Grant,2014-03-15 A historical perspective on the factors affecting boys relationships with school and the criminal justice system Outstanding Academic Title Choice America s educational system has a problem with boys and it s nothing new The question of what to do with boys the boy problem has vexed educators and social commentators for more than a century Contemporary debates about poor academic performance of boys especially those of color point to a myriad of reasons inadequate and punitive schools broken families poverty and cultural conflicts Julia Grant offers a historical perspective on these debates and reveals that it is a perennial issue in American schooling that says much about gender and education today Since the birth of compulsory schooling educators have contended with what exactly to do with boys of immigrant poor minority backgrounds Initially public schools developed vocational education and organized athletics and technical schools as well as evening and summer continuation schools in response to the concern that the American culture of masculinity devalued academic success in school Urban educators sought ways to deal with the bad boys almost exclusively poor immigrant or migrant who skipped school exhibited behavioral problems when they attended and sometimes landed in special education classes and reformatory institutions The problems these boys posed led to accommodations in public education and juvenile justice system This historical study sheds light on contemporary concerns over the academic performance of boys of color who now flounder in school or languish in the juvenile justice system Grant s cogent analysis will interest education policy makers and educators as well as scholars of the history of education childhood gender studies American studies and urban history

Handbook of Research on Teachers of Color and Indigenous Teachers Conra D. Gist,Travis J. Bristol,2022-10-15 Teachers of Color and Indigenous Teachers are underrepresented in public schools across the United States of America with Black Indigenous and People of Color making up roughly 37% of the adult population and 50% of children but just 19% of the teaching force Yet research over decades has indicated their positive impact on student learning and social and emotional development particularly for Students of Color and Indigenous Students A first of its kind the Handbook of Research on Teachers of Color and Indigenous Teachers addresses key issues and obstacles to ethnoracial diversity across the life course of teachers careers such as recruitment and retention professional development and the role of minority serving institutions Including chapters from leading researchers and policy makers the Handbook is designed to be an important resource to help bridge the gap between scholars practitioners and policy makers In doing so this research will serve as a launching pad for discussion and change at this critical moment in our country s history The volume s goal is to drive conversations around the issue of ethnoracial teacher diversity and to provide concrete practices for policy makers and practitioners to enable them to make evidence based decisions for supporting an ethnoracially diverse educator workforce now and in the future Lexikon amerikanische Literatur Alfred Hornung,1992 Neben biographischen Angaben und einer kurzen Beschreibung der wichtigsten Werke enthalten alle Einträge auch die Titel der deutschen Übersetzungen wichtige Verfilmungen und aktuelle bibliographische Hinweise Canadian Who's Who 2009 Elizabeth Lumley,2008-12-04 Now in its ninety ninth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who's Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge The Impact of Structural Constraints on the Quality of Life for African American Males in Lima, Ohio Jill Rowe-Adjibogoun,2004 African American males are simultaneously loved hated and feared in American culture Historically they have been depicted in the mainstream media as violent agents of destruction and at the same time they have been admired and idolized for their athletic ability and their creativity as entertainers most recently as the standard bearers of Hip Hop culture rap music and conspicuous consumption This historical and ethnographic study focuses on the lives and identities of African American males in Lima Ohio It utilizes a practice approach and an historical methodology to explore the changing identities of African American males and the structural constraints that have contributed to the normalization of violence in this often isolated segment of society The intent is to shed light on major historical events and structural features that have been instrumental in shaping their present day identities In many ways Lima serves as a microcosm of life for some African American males in other places in the country and as a mirror of historical events that occurred concurrently in other Midwestern towns and cities Abstract pages ii iii New York Magazine ,1989-01-30 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Graduate Study in Psychology ,2006 The Junior College Library Collection ,1968 Children and Youth in America: 1933-1973. 2 v Robert Hamlett Bremner,1970 The Junior College Library Collection Frank J.
