An Iron Rose: Text Classics Peter Temple, 2012-04-26 The classic thriller by the five time winner of the Ned Kelly Award Introduction by Les Carlyon When Mac Faraday's best friend is found hanging the assumption is suicide But Mac is far from convinced and he's a man who knows not to accept things at face value A regular at the local pub a mainstay of the footy team Mac is living the quiet life of a country blacksmith a life connected to a place connected to its people But Mac carries a burden of fear and vigilance from his old life And as this past of secrets corruption abuse and murder begins to close in he must turn to long forgotten resources to hang on to everything he holds dear including his own life Peter Temple is one of Australia's finest writers the winner of Australia's premier prize for literature in 2010 the Miles Franklin Award and the Victorian Premier's Literary Award for his novel Truth Born in South Africa Peter Temple settled in Australia in 1980 and worked as a journalist and teacher before becoming a full time novelist Temple has written nine novels and has won the Ned Kelly Award for crime fiction five times Les Carlyon is the author of Gallipoli a bestseller in Australia Britain and New Zealand The Great War which was voted book of the year at the Australian Book Industry Awards and The Master A Personal Portrait of Bart Cummings Peter Temple has a way with words and the richness of his language alone makes this book rewarding This is a great book Sacramento San Francisco Book Review Temple invests his characters thought speech and deeds with an arresting immediacy and freshness Booklist A wonderfully controlled piece of writing with some delightfully wry observations the quality of the prose alone makes the book worth reading Opinionator A must for thriller seekers Who Weekly Fast funny and assured Australian Book Review The coolest and most elegant of Australian crime writers Age Temple is a phenomenon Sydney Morning Herald An Iron Rose has Temple's usual grizzled police veteran as the central character a despicable and mystifying crime and a support crew of goodies and baddies Temple's dry Australian vernacular and wit should be required reading for everyone above the age of 16 This edition is introduced by Les Carlyon a better match for Temple's writing I could not imagine Melbourne Weekly Translating National Allegories Alistair Rolls, John West-Sooby, Marie-Laure Vuaille-Barcan, 2019-04-15 This book explores the intersection of a number of academic areas of study that are all individually of growing importance translation studies crime fiction and world literature The scholars included here are leaders in one or more of these areas The frame of this volume is imagological its focus is on the ways in which national allegories are constructed and deconstructed encompassing descriptions of national characteristics as they play out at the level of the local or the individual as well as broader political analyses Its corpus crime fiction is shown to be a privileged site for writing the national narrative and often in ways that are more complex and dynamic than is suggested by the genre's much cited role as vehicle for a new realism Finally these two areas are problematised through the lens of translation which is a crucial player in both the development of crime fiction and the formation rather than simply the interlingual transfer of national allegory In this volume national allegories and the crime novels in which they emerge are shown to be eminently versatile foundationally plural texts that promote critical rewriting as opposed to sites for fixing meaning This book was originally published as a special issue of The Translator Obituaries in the Performing Arts, 2018 Harris M. Lentz III, 2019-06-17 The entertainment world lost many notable talents in 2018 including movie icon Burt Reynolds Queen of Soul Aretha Franklin celebrity chef and food critic Anthony Bourdain bestselling novelist Anita Shreve and influential Chicago blues artist Otis Rush Obituaries of actors filmmakers musicians producers dancers composers writers animals and others associated with the performing arts who died in 2018 are included Date place and cause of death are provided for each along with a career recap and a photograph Filmographies are given for film and television performers

Dobson, Steve Marsh, 2017-02-24 This book examines Winston Churchill's role in the creation and development of the Anglo American special relationship Drawing together world leading and emergent scholars this volume offers a critical celebration of Churchill's contribution to establishing the Anglo American special relationship Marking the seventieth anniversary of Churchill's pronouncement in 1946 of that special relationship in his famous Iron Curtain speech the book provides new insights into old debates by drawing upon approaches and disciplines that have hitherto been marginalised or neglected The book foregrounds agency culture values ideas and the construction and representation of special Anglo American relations past and present The volume covers two main themes Firstly it identifies key influences upon Churchill as he developed his political career especially processes and patterns of Anglo American convergence prior to and during World War Two Second it provides insights into how Churchill sought to promote a post war Anglo American special relationship how he discursively constructed it and how he has remained central to that narrative to the present day From this analysis emerges new understanding of the raw material from which Churchill conjured special UK US relations and of how his conceptualisation of that special relationship has been shaped and re shaped in the decades after 1946 This book will be of much interest to
